My Green Manifesto David Gessner,2011-07-12 All environmentalism is local A wonderfully readable book about saving the planet by focusing first on our own habitats The Boston Globe Though environmental awareness is on the rise our march toward ecological collapse continues What was once a movement based primarily on land preservation endangered species and policy reform is now a fractured mess of back to the landers capitalist green lifestyle vendors technology worshipers and countless special interest groups Inspired by a rough and tumble journey across country and down river David Gessner a John Burroughs Award winner makes the case for a new environmentalism In a frank funny and incisive call to arms that spans from the Cape Wind Project to the Monkey Wrench Gang he considers why we do or do not fight to protect and restore wilderness and reminds us why it s time to join the fray Known as an environmental advocate reminiscent of Edward Abbey Library Journal Gessner rebels against this fragmented environmentalism and holier than thou posturing He also suggests that global problems though real are disempowering While introducing us to lovable stubborn Dan Driscoll a regular guy fighting a local fight for a limited wilderness he argues for a movement focused on local issues and grounded in a more basic more holistic and ultimately more effective defense of home Funny and inspiring Publishers Weekly starred review Cabin Fever Tom Montgomery Fate,2011-06-07 Cabin Fever might be described as a modern Walden if you can imagine Thoreau married with a job three kids and a minivan A seasonal memoir written alternately from a little cabin in the Michigan woods and a house in suburban Chicago the book engages readers in a serious yet irreverent conversation about Thoreau s relevance in the modern age The author turns Thoreau s immortal statement I went to the woods because I wished to live deliberately on its head with the phrase I got married and had children because I wished to live deliberately Though Fate spends half his time at the cabin this is no world renouncing back to nature paean Unlike Thoreau during his Walden years he balances his solitude with full engagement in family and civic life Fate s writing reflects this balancing of nature and family in stories such as The Confused Cardinal in which a male cardinal feeds chicks of another species and leads to a reflection on parenting In the Time of Cicadas which juxtaposes his wife s hysterectomy with the burgeoning fecundity of the seventeen year cicadas coming out to mate and in a beautiful essay reminiscent of E B White s Once More to the Lake in which Fate takes his son to the same cabin his father took him as a child In his exploration of how we are to live a more deliberate life amid a high tech materialist culture Fate invites readers into an interrogation of their own lives and into a new kind of vision the possibility of enough in a culture of more How Shall I Live My Life? Derrick Jensen,2008-03-01 In this collection of interviews Derrick Jensen discusses the destructive dominant culture with ten people who have devoted their lives to undermining it Whether it is Carolyn Raffensperger and her radical approach to public health or Thomas Berry on perceiving the sacred be it Kathleen Dean Moore reminding us that our bodies are made of mountains rivers and sunlight or Vine Deloria asserting that our dreams tell us more about the world than science ever can the activists and philosophers interviewed in How Shall I Live My Life each bravely present a few of the endless forms that resistance can and must take Interviews include George Draffan Jesse Wolf Hardin Vine Deloria David Abram Steven Wise Jan Lundber David Edwards Thomas Berry Carolyn Raffensperger and Kathleen Dean Moore Sick of Nature David Gessner,2005-05 Essays that trace the making of a reluctant nature writer Fur News and Outdoor World ,1929 My Wild World Joan Embury,1981-12 Embury describes her many years working with the San Diego Zoo and of the many animals she has encountered Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching,Kaleo Ching,2014-01-14 In Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching and Kaleo Ching combine art and archetypes meditation and acupressure guided imagery journaling and many different creative processes in a collage of healing knowledge and wisdom The authors start by stressing the balance of complementary opposites left brain right brain challenge comfort practicality the sacred as crucial to beginning the journey Then through guided imagery they lead readers through subconscious realms to connect with archetypal sources of inner wisdom This process frees the creative and healing spirit connecting explorers with the body s instinctive intelligence which expresses itself through the creation of art Central to this process is a detailed description of maskmaking including how to work with a partner to mold each other's gauze mask balanced with self explorations of the inner experience of this event Poetry personal stories photographs and a gallery of Kaleo Ching's evocative totemic masks expand the reader's experience of this richly resonant journey to self Hope Sings Susanna Foth Aughtmon,2017-04-04 Following God on our journey of faith can be a journey in the dark Oftentimes we don't know where we are going or where we will end up Sometimes we feel completely lost We get caught up in fear or anxiety But Faith has a best friend named Hope Hope shows up when we get to know the effervescent character of the One who loves us most of all In Aughtmon's new book Hope Sings the reader is invited to follow God on a faith journey God wants us to reach for dreams that are out of our grasp To fight for impossible causes To believe for the miraculous To hold on to Him when all else seems lost God wants us to put our hope in Him In His character In His mercy His peace His grace His worthiness His faithfulness His ability to restore His healing power His authentic goodness Our hope is in the One who calms seas and breathes life back into the dead His voice is singing out bringing light into the dark inviting us to join Him in His everlasting song of hope Coyote at the Kitchen Door Stephen DeStefano,2010-01-15 A moose frustrates commuters by wandering onto the highway an alligator suns himself in a strip mall parking lot DeStefano draws on decades of experience as a biologist and conservationist to examine the interplay between urban sprawl and wayward wildlife He asks us to rethink the meaning of progress and create a new suburban wildlife ethic
