Abbreviations of Organizations L. Pitman,2012-12-06 The previous edition of this directory extended its coverage of the Far East Australasia and Latin America areas previously under represented For this new edition emphasis has been given to increasing the number of entries for organizations from Britain the United States and Australia and particular attention has been paid to new political organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union The number of entries included has gone up to over 68 000 of which over 9 000 are new or amended Cross references from defunct organizations in the previous edition have been deleted and references indicated by ex and now added for organizations which have changed their name since the previous edition As before the range of organizations included is broad and only purely local organizations have been excluded This directory therefore lists official and unofficial organizations national and international on all Subjects political economic and social Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are given where appropriate and equivalencies are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization Further information about the organizations listed can be found in the sources listed in the bibliography I would like to thank Henry Heaney and Graeme Mackintosh for their advice and David Grinyer for his technical support L M Pitman Bibliography Adams R ed 1993 Centres Bureaux A Directory of UK Concentrations of Effort Information and Expertise 2nd edn CBD Research Beckenham Barrett IK 1993 Encyclopedia of Women s Associations Worldwide Gale London Airman's Guide ,1963

Power Economics Elena Cahill,2021-02-04 Energy efficiency is more of a journey than a battle It starts with small steps taken at the local and state levels It is a matter of identifying and then practicing good habits in our daily lives at home and at work Every idea and process described in this book if performed reasonably well will put money in your pocket You will not only save money you will probably make money and you will take important steps toward saving the planet Power Economics is a book for thoughtful people who want to cut their energy costs and diminish the harmful effects of greenhouse gas emissions Climate change and global warming are not speculative fantasies They are real They threaten communities towns cities regions nations and continents Even if you don t care about polar bears and penguins the effects of melting icecaps and shifting ocean currents will transform your life and the lives of the people around you Power Economics offers practical steps and achievable strategies for reducing the destructive impact of climate change and global warming Yes we need energy to live and to sustain our economies But we don t need to burn fossil fuels and release CO2 gas at levels that will result in a global catastrophe There are reasonable alternatives to our current practices None of the ideas that described in this book are entirely new or totally unfamiliar They aren't extreme or bizarre They won't require harsh or draconian measures to work All of them follow basic rules of common sense and can be achieved at reasonable cost I have done my best to convey the complexity and urgency of the matter I hope that you find this book informative and useful Working together we can shed many of our wasteful energy habits and begin the task of building a world that is safe sustainable and healthy
