Cput Application Forms For 2015:

The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 A new study of the importance of language for sociocultural change in Africa from postcolonial to globally competitive knowledge societies

Process Engineering Renewal 1 Éric Schaer, Jean-Claude André, 2020-06-16 Process engineering emerged at the beginning of the 20th Century and has become an essential scientific discipline for the matter and energy processing industries Its success is incontrovertible with the exponential increase in techniques and innovations Rapid advances in new technologies such as artificial intelligence as well as current societal needs sustainable development climate change renewable energy the environment are developments that must be taken into account in industrial renewal Process Engineering Renewal 1 the first volume of three focuses on training demonstrating the need for innovation in order for the field to have a framework that is sustainable in a highly changeable world Library Staffing for the Future Samantha Schmehl Hines, Marcy Simons, 2015-12-09 This latest volume contains approaches from researchers around the world The chapters explore such issues as skills building and other professional development activities changing demographic profiles of staff changing modes of resource provision succession planning remote work and planning for Linked Data Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsedisio Michael Makoelle, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as of equity and access highlighting how these ideas have evolved been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions HEIs of South Africa since 2001 ICTR 2022 5th International Conference on Tourism Research Cândida Silva, Mónica Oliveira, Susana Silva, 2022-05-19 Technical and Vocational Teaching in South Africa Reuben Dlamini, Ian Moll, Vasidevan Naiker, 2024-07-23 This book unpacks the notion of pedagogy in South African technical and vocational education and training TVET enhancing the importance of the psychological dimension of learning The book is premised on the idea that as stories of actual grounded teaching and learning practices emerge from South African colleges a coherent picture of pedagogy can be established With chapters by practising TVET educators writing about their own work the volume seeks to reconceptualise vocational teaching and learning processes with diversity and inclusivity in mind The book will be of interest to students and scholars of TVET and education in South Africa as well as South African college practitioners and policymakers Telling Stories Differently Janet Condry, 2015-09-01 The aim of this book is to share a relatively loose collection of studies using digital storytelling as a pedagogical tool in Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT The book takes an informed social justice approach to teaching and learning at the heart of which is the exploration of DST as a practice of voice and agency Voice and agency are important in excavating and recovering subjugated identities and moving the concerns of those occupying subaltern spaces to the mainstream of teaching and learning Yet this discursive shift is not without inherent challenges Multi modal technologies are reflective of wider inequities in the so called technological divide

Whilst this is a book about higher education there are important lessons for schooling On the one hand the book is a powerful demonstration of the potential of DST for enhancing learning in schools particularly in schools serving the poor and marginalised On the other hand improving teaching and learning in higher education through the creative use of technology is essential to overcome the learning challenges of those entering tertiary level institutions Materials and

Sustainability Julia L Freer Goldstein,Paul Foulkes-Arellano,2024-04-12 This book examines sustainable manufacturing from the extraction of materials to processing use and disposal and argues that significant changes in all of the above are needed for the world to progress toward a more circular economy Materials and processing methods are usually chosen with performance as the key metric Why has our society embraced plastics Because they work In most cases they are lighter easier to manufacture and less expensive than the metal wood glass or stone they have replaced Why do industrial manufacturers use toxic chemicals Because they are effective but the unintended consequences may be severe By learning how various materials are made and what happens when they are recycled readers will better understand the value of materials and the challenges that manufacturers face when trying to make their facilities and products less toxic and less wasteful The three chapters in Part I provide essential background about materials in the circular economy chemicals and waste Part II delves into specific materials It includes chapters on plastics metals wood and paper products glass and novel materials Part III covers recycling and manufacturing processes and Part IV delves into practical considerations including the effect of regulations concluding with a chapter that helps readers translate the information presented into action Interviews with industry experts round out the chapters and offer valuable insights Materials and Sustainability is a must read for business professionals who are serious about making their companies as environmentally responsible as possible and for business and engineering students who want to begin their careers with practical knowledge about materials and their impacts

Knowledge-building Karl Maton,Susan Hood,Suellen Shay,2015-10-08 Education and knowledge have never been more important to society yet research is segmented by approach methodology or topic Legitimation Code Theory or LCT extends and integrates insights from Pierre Bourdieu and Basil Bernstein to offer a framework for research and practice that overcomes segmentalism This book shows how LCT can be used to build knowledge about education and society Comprising original papers by an international and multidisciplinary group of scholars Knowledge building offers the first primer in this fast growing approach Through case studies of major research projects Part I provides practical insights into how LCT can be used to build knowledge by enabling dialogue between theory and data in qualitative research bringing together quantitative and qualitative methodologies in mixed methods research relating theory and practice in praxis conducting interdisciplinary studies with systemic functional linguistics Part II offers a series of studies of pressing issues facing knowledge building in education and beyond encompassing diverse subject areas including physics English cultural studies music and design educational sites schooling vocational education and higher education practices of research curriculum pedagogy and assessment both education and informal learning contexts such as museums and masonic lodges Carefully sequenced and interrelated these chapters form a coherent collection that gives a unique insight into one of the most thought provoking and innovative ways of building knowledge about knowledge building in education and society to have emerged this century This book is essential reading for all serious students and scholars of education sociology and linguistics Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange,Ruth Teer-Tomaselli,2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people s ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as well Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Re-imagining Curriculum Lynn Quinn,2019-11-15 The book argues that academics academic developers and academic leaders need to undertake curriculum work in their institutions that has the potential to disrupt common sense notions about curriculum and create spaces for engagement with scholarly concepts and theories to re imagine curricula for the changing times Now more than ever in the history of higher education curriculum practices and processes need to be shared the findings of research undertaken on curriculum need to be disseminated to inform curriculum work We hope the book will enable readers to look beyond their contextual difficulties and constraints to find spaces where they can dream and begin to implement innovative and creative solutions to what may seem like intractable challenges or difficulties Advanced Materials for Renewable Hydrogen Production, Storage and Utilization Jianjun Liu,2015-11-25 Hydrogen as an energy carrier is widely regarded as a potential cost effective renewable and clean energy alternative to fossil fuels in order to mitigate the energy shortage and environmental pollution that are currently being faced The rapid development of advanced materials in hydrogen production storage and utilization has opened up a new avenue for the conversion and utilization of hydrogen energy This book summarizes the current research progress in these areas and is expected to aid in the development and design of advanced materials to improve hydrogen production storage and utilization

Integrated Space for African Society Annette Froehlich,2019-09-18 This book provides an overview of the space sector in African countries from a legal and policy point of view analysing how the African Union s Space Policy and Strategy ASPS is implemented and highlighting the various space activities in each country Against this backdrop it investigates the ASPS identifying its policy goals identified and discussing its strategy Moreover it explores the on going regional cooperation

Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Sustainability Norbert Grünwald, 2015-06-03 The ICEBE conference in Windhoek is the sixth in a series of annual conferences on engineering and business education It is organized by the Robert Schmidt Institute University Wismar hosted by Polytechnic of Namibia and co organised by University of Applied Sciences Jena The conferences were held in Sibiu Romania Manila Philippines Cape Town South Africa and Wismar Germany The theme of the Windhoek Conference is Innovation Entrepreneurship and Sustainability which describes the emphasis that is laid on always using these three terms in combination i e not to consider one in isolation from the others Thus the primary target of this conference is to provide the delegates with cross disciplinary thinking related to the three main streams in engineering and business education

ECEL 2021 20th European Conference on e-Learning Prof. Dr.-Ing. Carsten Busch, Prof. Dr. Tilo Wendler, Martin Steinicke i, 2021-10-28 Science, technology and innovation policies for inclusive growth in Africa : human skills development and country cases LIT Verlag, 2020-01-01 The volume analyses major strategic and policy issues How to make Science Technology and Innovation STI Policies relevant for inclusive growth strategies in Africa so that socio economic transformation strategies will take off The first part discusses the issues of human skills development as part of STI policies based on visions strategic plans and country cases for Cameroon Nigeria and Mauritania The second part looks at STI Policies for Economic Transformation focussing on country case studies for Egypt and Tunisia A third part presents book reviews and book notes

Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country

Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology Mohamed Seedat, Shahnaaz Suffla, Daniel J. Christie, 2016-12-06 With the major goal of building an inclusive international community that promotes peace related research and action this volume reflects on local national and global peace engagement and works towards transdisciplinary understandings of the role of psychology in peace conflict and violence Drawn primarily from 14th Biennial International Symposium on the Contributions of Psychology the chapters focus on peacemaking or the pursuit of harmony in human relations and peacebuilding or equity in human relations with a special emphasis on voices from typically underrepresented areas in psychology such as the Global South In order to move beyond a Western centered idea of peace psychology the volume is divided into two major parts The first half of the volume puts an emphasis on peace psychology research and praxis in a number of geohistorical contexts including Malaysia Northern Ireland Thailand and Kashmir that bear on conflict harmony and equity in human relations Chapters in the second half of the volume fulfill the mandate of Biennial Symposia namely to create more equity in the production of peace theory and praxis by bringing forward the voices of scholars and change agents that are often unheard in peace discourses including a number of scholars and chapters from South Africa Additionally throughout the chapters the authors and editors of the volume emphasize emancipatory agendas as an important alternative to militarism and state sponsored violence With the aim of bringing forward voices from cultures and situations that are typically not included or highly visible in peace discourses Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology in Invited and Invented Spaces African and World Regional Contributions is a thought provoking timely and informative work Psychologists anthropologists sociologists political scientists activists public policy makers and all those interested in promoting peace and justice are sure to find this an invaluable and illuminating resource
