Craft Of Revision Donald Murray:

The Craft of Revision, Anniversary Edition Donald M. Murray, 2012-01-09 Pulitzer Prize winning author Donald M. Murray's lively and inspiring approach to writing and revision does not condescend but invites students into the writer's studio. The ANNIVERSARY EDITION includes a new foreword by Brock Dethier, Writing Program Director at Utah State University and former University of New Hampshire colleague of the late Donald Murray. They met in 1978 and when Dethier later became an adjunct instructor at UNH struggling to balance his teaching career with his dreams of getting published, Murray was a source of guidance and support. Dethier offers not only an introduction to the man behind the book but a retrospective of Murray's significant contributions to the Composition world and the ways in which THE CRAFT OF REVISION helps students to actually DO the writing not just talk about it. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version. The Craft of Revision Donald Morison Murray, 1991 Pulitzer prize winning author Donald M. Murray takes a lively and inspiring approach to the process of revision. Revision Alice Horning, Anne Becker, 2006-05-22 Explores the wide range of scholarship on revision while bringing new light to bear on enduring questions in composition and rhetoric. Revising Moves Christina LaVecchia, Allison Carr, Laura Micciche, Hannah Rule, Jayne Stone, 2024-04-22 Revision sometimes seems more metaphor than real, having been variously described as a stage, an act of goal setting, a method of correction, a process of discovery, a form of resistance. Revising Moves makes a significant contribution to writing theory by collecting stories of revision that honor revision's vitality and immerse readers in rooms, life circumstances, and scenes where revision comes to life. In these narrative-driven essays written by a wide range of writing professionals, Revising Moves describes revision as a messy, generative, and often collaborative act. These meditations reveal how revision is both a micro practice tracked by textual change and a macro phenomenon rooted in family life, institutional culture, identity, commitments, and political and social upheaval. Contributors depict revision as a holistic undertaking and a radically contextualized, distributed practice that showcases its relationality to everything else. Authors share their revision processes when creating scholarly works, institutional and self-promoting documents, and creative projects. Through narrative, the volume opens a window to what is often unseen in a finished text: months or years of work, life events that disrupt or alter writing plans, multiple draft changes, questions about writerly identity, and positionality, layers of sometimes contradictory feedback, and much more. The Craft of Historical Research Isaac Land, 2024-12-22 Complete with practical advice and helpful guidance, this book is an approachable manual perfect for budding historians at all levels. Its worksheets, which focus on framing realistic goals and heading off common misunderstandings, will aid independent work and make check-ins with the advisor more candid and productive. Drawing on examples from six continents as well as primary sources ranging from cuneiform tablets to emails, students will learn about the effective deployment of quotations, footnotes, maps, graphs, images, and data visualizations. Throughout the book, emphasis is placed on how the student can formulate support and revise their claims in a historical project with a skeptical reader in mind

Renew! Shawna Coppola, 2023-10-10 When was the last time you shook up your writing instruction In Renew: Become a Better and More Authentic Writing Teacher author Shawna Coppola builds on the premise that our students are ever changing and so is our collective knowledge base Instructional strategies that have worked in the past may need to evolve accordingly Coppola guides K-8 writing teachers with a three-part framework for Rethinking Revising and Renewing their approaches and finding new energy along the way Using the framework Renew examines the most pervasive educational practices in writing instruction and poses questions that guide teachers to revise those practices to ensure they are effective for all students Coppola believes the work is challenging yet critical referencing R Buckminster Fuller's Knowledge Doubling Curve According to Fuller's paradigm the amount of time it takes for us to increase our collective knowledge base by 100 percent will continue to shrink the older we get If this is true or even close to being true show can we as educators ever feel satisfied with teaching our students the same concepts using the same methodologies and practices that we have in the past The book offers a road map for renewing key aspects of our practice including How we teach the writing process Over time and frequent usage some of our favorite teaching strategies can become rigid Coppola gives a candid account of how her enthusiasm for the writing process as an undergraduate led her to teach writing for years as a set of pre determined steps Now she teaches that there are many variations of the writing process and many twists and turns along the path One foundational strategy used is opening up her own process as a writer and her writer s notebooks to students and encouraging them to think and talk about their process with classmates What we mean by Writing Coppola argues that drawing isn t an accompaniment to writing it is writing It s another form of composition through which students can tell stories convey ideas and engage readers The book is full of visual compositions by students as well as Shawna s wonderfully simple and evocative sketches from her writer s notebook The tools we use to teach writing The most ubiquitous tools used to teach writing from anchor charts to graphic organizers to sentence starters etc tend to be teacher centric rather than student centric Renew invites students into the process of constructing tools that are meaningful and helpful to them The book includes a range of examples of tools built collaboratively with students How we assess and evaluate student writing Coppola draws a distinction between assessments which should be an interactive conversation with students and evaluation which is about judging and categorizing what students know and can do Renew offers a range of examples and resources that illustrate effective feedback for student writers including online videos of teacher student and peer to peer conferences Renew also offers ideas for how teachers can nurture their own writing lives and thus reinvigorate their instructional practice Through rethinking revising and renewing their practice teachers can not only strengthen students skills as writers but also nurture students to become critical thinkers problem solvers and risk takers in the classroom and in our rapidly changing world TEACHING ENGLISH CREATIVELY John H.

Close Writing Paula Bourque, 2023-10-10 How closely do your students read their writing What are the implications for those who do and those who don't During her work in classrooms literacy coach Paula Bourque noticed that students who read their own writing closely are engaged in their work write fluently are able to produce lengthy drafts and incorporate teaching points from mini lessons into the day's writing In this comprehensive book Paula shows you that no matter what structures or lessons you use in your writing classroom the strategies in Close Writing will help you make these better by creating student writers who are more aware of what effective writing looks like who care about what they write and who take ownership and responsibility for their growth as writers Paula argues that a key element in close writing is learning to look and looking to learn by closely reading our own writing Instead of focusing on the mechanics of their writing she encourages students to read their words for understanding clarity and the effect they will have on an audience She urges them to recognize their habits and their approaches to writing and to build upon them Close Writing is based on research and methods that are reliable and valid best practices but it will not prescribe lessons or structures It gives you a peek inside classrooms where teachers just like you are working with budding authors just like yours Paula also provides considerations for ELL writers as well as a section of interviews with authors She shares an extensive reference resource guide and a companion website with students work samples reproducibles and templates and videos of classroom writing lessons round out this must have resource plots natural dialogue and captivating details I Hate Writing J. M. Bohannon, 2005 I Hate Writing may be the only page turner textbook out there J M Bohannon gives her readers invaluable writing advice using an uplifting modern voice tinged with humor She takes her readers through the stages of writing a paper giving detailed advice on how to find topics turn ideas into words and organize those words into coherent paragraphs with seamless transitions She shows her readers how to revise their own work and through her Critical Q s teaches them to become critical readers She also explains how to find outside sources and how to include those sources in a paper Too many students approach writing at the university level as a scientist approaches a volatile experiment with protective suit goggles gloves and forceps They struggle to write without contaminating that writing with anything resembling personality Don t let that student be you Your unique voice should blast through your writing letting everyone know there s a person behind your words Writing Lessons That Teach Key Strategies Patricia Tabb, Nancy Delano Moore, 2001-04 Reproducible pages contain lessons such as finding an idea to write about creating vivid descriptions with sensory details developing compelling openings revising and editing Perspective on Analytical Writing a Focus on Feature and Editorial Writing Richmond S. Anderson Snr., 2021-12-10 The writing of this book Perspective on Analytical Writing a focus on Feature and Editorial writing is based on the urge for students majoring in mass communication on the African continent particularly those within the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS to have a simplistic understanding of the course feature and editorial writing It will be oblivious or a miss calculation to say that there are no texts books on feature and editorial writing on the African continent since I have not had the opportunity to extensively travel within Africa but what could be safely said is for over three decades since I completed my under graduate studies I have not seen a text book on feature and editorial writing readily Based on this experience the book first endeavored in its starting to give students an insight on what an analytical writing is beginning with a drill on perspective and gave a detailed and vivid picture of perspective thereby laying the basis to understanding what feature and editorial writing is all about Although the core focus of the book is on feature and editorial writing but as the title depicts Perspectives on Analytical Writing more emphases are placed on perspective and analytical writing in order to provide a deeper understanding for the students as a foundation to grasp the concept of feature and editorial writing Also the book featured research as a component to writing an appreciable feature and editorial piece Added to research other ingredients for writing good feature and editorials are also considered They include opinion persuasion and propaganda Furthermore since feature and editorial writings are within the scope of mass communication and journalism it became imperative for the book to touch on the ethical aspect of the profession aimed at providing students the barometer of knowing what to do and not what to do while writing feature and editorial pieces In its conclusive stage the book dealt with the impact of editorial on political actors as it relates to their involvement in the process of national development As you will come across in your reading mass communication and journalism are catalysts to agenda setting in any society therefore it is expected that stakeholders particularly those involved in the governance process of our countries in Africa to take clue from editorial articles especially those that advocate for positive change to propel them to respond to the developmental needs of Africa Now let s be practical and reflect on a simple analogy referencing a performance by a group of movie stars such as the late popular comedian Peter Ballah of Liberia Kekura Kamara with his popular movie Malawala Balawala of Liberia Salla Kamara with his movie Blood Diamond of Sierra Leone Mr Ibu John Okafor with the show Mr Ebu and his son of Nigeria or John Dumelo with the movie the tie that binds of Ghana As these movie stars are performing in their movies the viewers are fascinated with emotion amusement and are thrilled by the performances while in their seats in the theatre movie hall or in their various homes Just as the emotion of viewers is intrigued by the performances or movies so feature and editorial write ups are replica to evoking the emotion of the readers The articles must create a scenario of curiosity to arouse or entice the readers This is the drama in feature and editorial writing

Mechanically Inclined Jeff Anderson, Lisa Thibodeaux, 2024-12-09 Some teachers love grammar and some hate it but nearly all struggle to find ways of making the mechanics of English meaningful to kids As a middle school teacher Jeff Anderson also discovered that his students were not grasping the basics and that it was preventing them from reaching their potential as writers Jeff readily admits I am not a grammarian nor am I punctilious about anything so he began researching and testing the ideas of scores of grammar experts in his classroom gradually finding successful ways of integrating grammar instruction into writer s workshop Just in time for its 20th anniversary this long awaited second edition of Mechanically Inclined continues to merge the best of writer s workshop elements with relevant theory about how and why skills should be taught It connects theory about using grammar in context with practical instructional strategies explains why kids often don t understand or apply grammar and mechanics correctly focuses on attending to the high payoff or most common errors in student writing and shows how to carefully construct a workshop environment that can best support grammar and mechanics concepts In this new edition longtime colleague Lisa Thibodeaux joins Jeff in emphasizing four key elements for grammar instruction short daily instruction in grammar and mechanics within writer s workshop using high quality mentor texts to teach grammar and mechanics in context visual scaffolds including wall charts and visual cues that can be pasted into writer s notebooks regular short routines like express lane edits that help students spot and correct errors automatically Comprising an overview of the research based context for grammar instruction a series of over forty detailed lessons updated research compelling new mentor texts and an appendix of helpful forms and instructional tools Mechanically Inclined is a boon to teachers regardless of their level of grammar phobia It shifts the negative rule plagued emphasis of much grammar instruction into one which celebrates the power and beauty these tools have in shaping all forms of writing existence or benevolence Religion is viewed as a social and political force affecting human interaction Drawing on years of experience teaching composition in Chile and the United States the author explores real world events such as Chile s 1973 coup d etat the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI and the daily interplay of religious beliefs among family members Reading and writing assignments geared for believers and nonbelievers alike are provided including student essays that make various arguments about religion
