Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2017 It's been a decade since Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli wrote the first edition of Mentor Texts and helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction. In the second edition of this important book Lynne and Rose show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies, literary devices, sentence structures, and words. Lynne and Rose offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter a Think About It, Talk About It, Write About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues. The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing: focus, content, organization, style, and conventions. Rose and Lynne write in a friendly and conversational style, employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom. This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers. Our Wonderful Universe

Clarence Augustus Chant, 1905 A Place for Wonder Georgia Heard, Jennifer McDonough, 2023-10-10 In A Place for Wonder, Georgia Heard and Jennifer McDonough discuss how to create a landscape of wonder in a primary classroom where curiosity, creativity, and exploration are encouraged. For it is these characteristics, the authors write, that develop intelligent, inquiring, life-long learners. The authors' research shows that many primary grade state standards encourage teaching for understanding, critical thinking, creativity, and question asking, and promote the development of children who have the attributes of inventiveness, curiosity, engagement, imagination, and creativity. With these goals in mind, Georgia and Jennifer provide teachers with numerous practical ways of setting up wonder centers, gathering data through senses, teaching nonfiction craft, and creating a classroom environment where students' questions and observations are part of daily work. They also present a step-by-step guide to planning a nonfiction reading and writing unit of study, creating a nonfiction book which includes creating a table of contents, writing focused chapters using wow words, and developing point of view. A Place for Wonder will help teachers reclaim their classrooms as a place where true learning is the norm. 180 Days™: Reading for Kindergarten Suzanne Barchers, 2013-01-01 Help kindergarten students improve their reading skills with fun and effective daily practice activities. 180 Days Reading for Kindergarten introduces new words to practice foundational reading skills, boosts students' confidence in reading with quick learning activities focusing on vocabulary and fluency skills, makes at-home learning whole class instruction or small group support quick and easy, includes standards-based activities easy to follow, instructions, and an answer key to quickly assess student understanding.
