Dale Sherman, 2019-04-15 For more than 50 years John Waters has been staging a coup against the good taste of the American public From the ultimate gross out in Pink Flamingos to the amazing general audience rating of his biggest hit Hairspray Waters has been subverting viewers expectations with comedies that stretch past the boundaries of even today's jaded audiences A provocateur of bad taste in a glorious way Waters started out as an outsider with a camera and a small circle of fellow delinquents In tearing down icons of the silver screen Waters would create his own that are used still by others in movies and television And that's only part of the tale John Waters FAQ looks at how a nice boy from the right side of the tracks would end up becoming a demon of society and the influences that drove his ambition in moviemaking Also featured are biographical information of the Dreamlanders the actors and crew members who would join Waters on his adventures in film land over the years including Waters's best remembered find Divine Beyond chapters dedicated to the making of each of his films from Hag in a Black Leather Jacket to his most recent A Dirty Shame there are those covering his career as a writer and artist Also reviewed are his acting career in other people's television shows and movies over the years Water's interest in music and projects that never were to be John Waters FAQ covers it all in the career of a man who started out with a dream of becoming an underground filmmaker and became so much more John Waters Kristen

Hileman, 2018-10-16 It has been more than fifty years since John Waters filmed his first short on the roof of his parents' Baltimore home Over the following decades Waters has developed a reputation as an uncompromising cultural force not only in cinema but also in visual art writing and performance This major retrospective examines the artist's influential career through more than 160 photographs sculptures soundworks and videos he has made since the early 1990s These works deploy Waters's renegade humor to reveal the ways that mass media and celebrity embody cultural attitudes moral codes and shared tragedy Waters has broadened our understanding of American individualism particularly as it relates to queer identity racial equality and freedom of expression In bringing bad taste to the walls of galleries and museums he tugs at the curtain of exclusivity that can divide art from human experience Waters freely manipulates an image bank of less than sacred low brow references Elizabeth Taylor's hairstyles his own self portraits and pictures of individuals brought into the limelight through his films including his counterculture muse Divine to entice viewers to engage with his astute and provocative observations about society This richly illustrated book explores themes including the artist's childhood and identity Pop culture and the movie business Waters's satirical take on the contemporary art world and the transgressive power of images The catalogue features essays by BMA Senior Curator of Contemporary Art Kristen Hileman art historian and activist Jonathan David Katz critic curator and artist Robert Storr as well as an interview with Waters by photographer Wolfgang Tillmans Published in association with the Baltimore Museum of Art Exhibition dates The Baltimore Museum of Art October 7 2018 January 6 2019 Wexner Center for the Arts February 2 April 28 2019 Directory of World Cinema: American

Independent John Berra, 2010-05-01 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema: American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American society Copious illustrations and a range of research resources round out the volume making this a truly comprehensive guide At a time when independent films are enjoying considerable cultural cachet this easy to use yet authoritative guide will find an eager audience in media historians film studies scholars and movie buffs alike This Music Leaves Stains James Greene Jr., 2013-02-14 Few bands in the past three decades have proven as affecting or exciting as the Misfits the ferocious horror punk outfit that lurked in the shadows of suburban New Jersey and released a handful of pivotal underground recordings during their brief tumultuous time together Led by Glenn Danzig a singer possessed of vision and blessed with an incredible baritone the Misfits pioneered a death rock sound that would reverberate through the various musical subgenres that sprung up in their wake This Music Leaves Stains now presents the full story behind the Misfits and their ubiquitous haunting skull logo a story of unique talent strange timing clashing personalities and incredible music that helped shape rock as we know it today James Greene Jr maps this narrative from the band's birth at the tail end of the original punk movement through their messy dissolve at the dawn of the 1980s right on through the legal warring and inexplicable reunions that helped carry the band into the 21st century Music junkies of any stripe will surely find themselves engrossed in this saga that finally pieces together the full story of the greatest horror punk band that ever existed though Misfits fans will truly marvel at the thorough and detailed approach James Greene Jr has taken in outlining the rise fall resurrection and influence of New Jersey s most frightening musical assembly Hollywood Reborn James Morrison,2010 The book focuses on the way various film icons engaged in and helped define some major issues of cultural and social concern to America by making heavily politicized movies during the 1970s Encyclopedia of Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty,2013-11-05 First Published in 2000 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a wide range of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new scholars whose research continues to advance gender studies into the future Perspectives on American Dance Jennifer Atkins,Sally R. Showman of the Screen A. T. McKenna, 2016-11-01 Short immaculately dressed and shockingly foul mouthed Joseph E Levine 1905 1987 was larger than life He rose from poverty in Boston's West End to become one of postwar Hollywood's most prolific independent promoters distributors and producers Alternately respected and reviled this master of movie promotion was responsible for bringing films as varied as Godzilla King of the Monsters 1956 Hercules 1958 The Graduate 1967 The Lion in Winter 1968 and A Bridge Too Far 1977 to American audiences In the first biography of this controversial pioneer A T McKenna traces Levine's rise as an influential packager of popular culture He explores the mogul's pivotal role in many significant industry innovations from the 1950s to the 1970s examining his use of saturation release tactics and bombastic advertising campaigns Levine was also a trailblazer in promoting European art house cinema in the 1960s He made Federico Fellini's 8 1/2 1963 a hit in America feuded with Jean Luc Godard over their production of Contempt 1963 and campaigned aggressively for Sophia Loren to become the first actress to win an Oscar for a foreign language performance for her role in Two Women 1960 Despite his significant accomplishments and prominent role in shaping film distribution and promotion in the post studio era Levine is largely overlooked today McKenna's in depth biography corrects misunderstandings and misinformation about this colorful figure and offers a sober assessment of his contributions to world cinema It also illuminates Levine's peculiar talent for movie and self promotion as well as his extraordinary career in the motion picture business Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner, John Cline, 2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics
