American Quakers will be drawn to her story which begins with her birth in the claim shanty of her parents homestead in the new State of South Dakota. Genealogy buffs will enjoy the well documented family genealogical histories of Evas eight great grandparents. Students of the history of the modern Middle East will be fascinated by her first person accounts of life in Palestine during the waning years of the British Mandate before the creation of Israel.

Part I The Autobiography of Eva Marshall Totah From the South Dakota prairie a young Quaker woman was recruited in 1927 to teach for a year in the Holy Land. Well prepared by her college and graduate studies as well as two years as a Bible teacher in a Chicago after school religious education program she ventures overseas. Not realizing there were Arabs in Palestine Eva Rae Marshall was expecting to teach Jewish children at the Friends Girls School in Ramallah. Discovering the varied religious landscape in Jerusalems environs was only one of many surprises in store for her. In Evas autobiography she recounts her childhood in Wessington Springs South Dakota and the choices she made that took her across the world at a time when most women did not even finish high school. Always supported and guided by her loving parents Eva describes how she found her lifes purpose at the Quaker school in Palestine among the varied and colorful religious groups that called the country their home and recounts her travels throughout the surrounding Levantine region during the British Mandate period. Eva found love and purpose in Palestine eventually marrying a Palestinian Quaker Dr Khalil Totah. She spent 17 years in Palestine before she and Dr Totah moved their family to America sailing on a Liberty Ship through the mine strewn Mediterranean waters during World War II. After several years on the East Coast Eva lived the rest of her years in California.

Part II Evas Letters Home from Palestine 1927 1944 The second section contains Evas letters to her family in South Dakota from Palestine. The letters are the only ones known to remain from a correspondence that was carried on weekly for 17 years. They span from her arrival in 1927 to the familys departure from Palestine in 1944 and include remarkable observations of the colorful life of the Middle East of that period.

Part III Genealogy of Eva Marshall Totah The third portion of the book contains well researched genealogy and family history narratives of eight of Evas ancestral families: Jesse Marshall, Mary Pickering, William Owen, Lancaster, Olive Ruddick, Phillip Strahl, Rhoda Ann French, Arthur Ginn, and Mary Eliza Barton. Since Eva was of almost completely Quaker stock the research benefits from the volume of rich sources of information available on members of the Society of Friends. Eva Rae Marshall was also a direct descendant of Mayflower pilgrim Stephen Hopkins.

Something Greater Jeanne Choy Tate,2013-05-21 Every day Americans rub shoulders with the cultures of the world on the sidewalks of their cities and increasingly in small towns and rural areas As civil discourse becomes increasingly divisive many long for our nation to better deal with its diversity Yet Americans also wonder how far the nation can stretch to embrace diversity and still maintain an identity Ethnic and faith communities Americans of many varieties share a fear of losing their traditions Will the next generation still honor the values of caring for others and contributing to community life The psychology of individualism that underlies American life is no longer adequate to guide a future filled with diversity America's children may have wings to soar into the future but they lack roots connecting them to a shared heritage Something Greater explores the impact of individualism on American child rearing practices and its inability to deal with diversity while sustaining life together in families and communities By contrasting the intergenerational values of biblical and Chinese communities and current infant research with her own experiences in San Francisco's Chinatown the author reveals how the living stories of heritage that lie at the heart of human development speak to a deep American hunger for shared values and connectedness in family and community
