Curriculum Development for Medical Education Patricia A. Thomas,David E. Kern,Mark T. Hughes,Sean A.

Tackett,Belinda Y. Chen,2022-08-30 This book presents a practical framework for the development implementation and dissemination of quality health professions curricula The book is intended for faculty and others who while content experts may not have a background in education or implementation science but have an interest or responsibility as educators in their discipline Transforming Multilateral Diplomacy Macharia Kamau, Pamela Chasek, David O'Connor, 2018-03-13

Transforming Multilateral Diplomacy provides the inside view of the negotiations that produced the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Not only did this process mark a sea change in how the UN conducts multilateral diplomacy it changed the way the UN does its business This book tells the story of the people issues negotiations and paradigm shifts that unfolded through the Open Working Group OWG on SDGs and the subsequent negotiations on the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda from the unique point of view of Ambassador Macharia Kamau and other key participants from governments the UN Secretariat and civil society Consensus Planning: The Relevance of Communicative Planning Theory in Dutch Infrastructure Development Johan Woltjer, 2017-11-22

This title was published in 2000 This text offers a standpoint on communicative participatory planning called consensus planning The discussion takes place in the Netherlands where consensus based decision making is part of the national heritage The book explores recent Dutch infrastructure development experiences and concludes that communicative planning theory does not offer uniform relevance for the challenges that planning practitioners face Building on these experiences it proposes the concept of consensus planning as valuable in a complementary normalized and contingent way Consensus planning in other words has diverse practical appearances and sometimes may not exist or be desirable Socializing Development Leon Valentin Schettler, 2020-03-03

As Multilateral Development Banks increasingly gained influence in shaping global development transnational social movements pushed to hold them accountable for their human rights impact towards communities Leon Valentin Schettler presents a novel causal mechanism of movement advocacy towards MDBs combining disruptive and conventional tactics Systematically comparing the evolution of human rights standards and complaint mechanisms over the last three decades he reveals how the combination of 1 declining US hegemony 2 counter mobilization by China and 3 movement cooptation by the World Bank bureaucracy led to a dilution of human rights accountability in the 2010s Conflict and Development Andrew J.

Williams, Alasdair Gordon-Gibson, 2024-09-26 Fully revised and updated in its third edition this timely book brings together the study of conflict and war and the problems surrounding the economic development of developing societies that are most prone to experiencing problems in moving on after war The book does so by reflecting on the issues surrounding war as it unfolds and after it has in principle ended within the context of the history present day problems and future prospects The book aims to highlight the possibilities successes and failures of past and present policies that bring development to countries and peoples that want to be more involved in deciding their own futures after conflict and war and often find themselves subject to what can be seen as arbitrary and even alien ways of thinking and acting by institutions in which they theoretically have membership and agency but often do not in practice The case studies have been fully updated to reflect changes and developments since the second edition of this text and there are questions at the end of each chapter to promote reflection This new edition presents a deeper dive into the history of conflict and the emergence of new theories and policy guidance about present and future options in the fields of conflict and development Accessible and engaging this textbook is a pivotal resource for a nexus of subjects related to the often separated fields of conflict and development studies as well as practitioners in this area
