

EXPOSITION

One night, Mako's grandfather tells him of a creature that inhabits the lagoon near the village. This creature, Tupa, has frightened the villagers for many years. King Opu Nui has offered a reward for Tupa's capture.

CONFLICT

Mako's mother believes it is time for Mako to learn the truth. His father was one of the fishermen who was killed by the shark, Tupa. He vows to kill the shark to avenge his father and to claim the reward.

RISING ACTION

Mako's mother sends him on an errand. Mako and his dog, Afa, travel to a nearby island to pick some bananas and oranges. Mako imagines the reef as a great white shark, and dreams of defeating Tupa.

CLIMAX

Mako sees Tupa's dorsal fin circling the canoe. Afa falls into the water and is in danger! Mako kills the shark with his spear.

FALLING ACTION

Mako ties the shark's tail to the boat and tows it behind him. He brings the shark back home.

RESOLUTION

The villagers are thrilled that Mako has defeated Tupa. Mako will be awarded thirty acres of land and a canoe after a celebration feast the next day.

Conrad's Short Fiction Lawrence Graver, 2023-04-28 In recent years critics and readers alike have increasingly recognized the unique brilliance of Joseph Conrad's short fiction elevating it to the pinnacle of his artistic achievements Marvin Mudrick in his provocative analysis even argues that Conrad's finest works are his novellas suggesting that their compact scope perfectly channels his intense moral and psychological explorations While Mudrick's view might challenge the centrality of Conrad's renowned novels like Lord Jim or Nostromo it highlights the enduring power of works such as Typhoon The Shadow Line and Heart of Darkness which encapsulate Conrad's themes with unparalleled clarity and force This book delves into Conrad's mastery of short fiction examining his evolution as a writer and the creative tensions he navigated Conrad's long short stories as he termed them straddle the line between compact storytelling and the expansive narrative techniques of the novel With works often ranging around 30 000 to 40 000 words his ideal length for achieving narrative depth and realism Conrad forged a form that resonated deeply with his artistic sensibilities even if it challenged market conventions By exploring the thematic and structural intricacies of his short fiction this study reveals how Conrad's tales reflect his quest for a balance between innovation moral complexity and reader engagement This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1969

Though New Zealand author Janet Frame 1924-2004 lived at a time of growing dissatisfaction with European cultural models and though her autobiography and letters all testify to the fact that a direct encounter between herself and Buddhism occurred her work has so far never been examined from the vantage point of its indebtedness to Buddhism It is of the utmost significance however that a Buddhist navigation of Frame's texts should shed fresh light on large segments of the Framean corpus which have tended to remain obdurately mysterious This includes passages centering on such themes as the existence of a non-dual world or a character's sudden embrace of a non-ego-like self Of equal significance is the conclusion one then draws that this unharnessed world which human beings are often unable to embrace has always been right under their nose for whenever the aspect of the intellect that filters perceptions into mutually excluding categories fails to function he or she finds a place of subjective arrival in and sees this supposedly unknowable beyond Thus possibly against the grain of mainstream criticism this study argues that Janet Frame constantly seeks ways through which the infinite and the Other can be approached though not corrupted by the perceiving self and that she found in the Buddhist epistemology a pathway towards evoking such alterity
