Ghost Ships A Surrealist Love Triangle:

Ghost Ships Robert McNab, 2004      Ghost Ships Robert McNab, 2004-01-01 A moving and spectacular tale of love jealousy and exotic travel centering on three significant figures in the surrealist movement This book describes the secret journey made by an extraordinary ménage à trois the painter Max Ernst Paul Eluard cofounder of surrealism with André Breton and Eluard's wife Gala The author unravels the story of Ernst's love affair with Gala Eluard's disappearance Ernst and Gala's pursuit of him their meeting in Saigon where the love triangle came apart and the resulting departure of the Eluards who left Ernst to explore the jungles of French Indochina alone The impact on the work of both men was profound As for Gala she eventually dropped both her lovers for Salvador Dalí      A Surrealist Stratigraphy of Dorothea Tanning's Chasm Catriona McAra, 2016-11-10 In A Surrealist Stratigraphy of Dorothea Tanning's Chasm Catriona McAra offers the first critical study of the literary work of the celebrated American painter and sculptor Dorothea Tanning 1910-2012 McAra fills a major gap in the scholarship repositioning Tanning's writing at the centre of her entire creative oeuvre and focusing on a little known short story Abyss a gothic flavoured desert adventure which Tanning worked on intermittently throughout her creative life finally publishing it in 2004 as Chasm A Weekend McAra performs a major reassessment of the visual and literary principles upon which the surrealist movement was initially founded Combining a groundbreaking methodological approach with reference to cultural theory and feminist aesthetics as well as Tanning's unpublished journals and notes McAra reveals Tanning as a key player in contemporary art practice as well as in the historical surrealist milieu      Higher Gossip John Updike, 2011-11-01 One of the most gifted American writers of the twentieth century and the author of the acclaimed Rabbit series delivers the intimate generous insightful and beautifully written collection he was compiling when he died This collection of miscellaneous prose opens with a self portrait of the writer in winter a Prospero who though he fears his most dazzling performances are behind him reveals himself in every sentence to be in deep conversation with the sources of his magic It concludes with a moving meditation on a modern world robbed of imagination a world without religion without art and on the difficulties of faith in a disbelieving age In between are previously uncollected stories and poems a pageant of scenes from seventeenth century Massachusetts five late golf dreams and several of Updike's commentaries on his own work At the heart of the book are his matchless reviews of John Cheever Ann Patchett Toni Morrison William Maxwell John le Carr and essays on Aimee Semple McPherson Max Factor and Albert Einstein among others Also included are two decades of art criticism on Chardin El Greco Blake Turner Van Gogh Max Ernst and more Updike's criticism is gossip of the highest order delivered in an intimate and generous voice      Roland Penrose James King, 2016-05-04 As an artist an impresario a biographer and a collector Roland Penrose 1900-1984 is a key figure in the study of art in England from 1920 to 1984 In the first biography of Penrose acclaimed biographer James King explores the intricacies of Penrose's life and work tracing the profound effects of his upbringing in a Quaker household on his values the early influence of Roger Fry his friendships with Max Ernst André

Breton and other surrealists especially Paul Eluard his organization of the landmark International Surrealist Exhibition in the summer of 1936 his conflicted relationship with Pablo Picasso and his tireless promotion of surrealism as well as the production of his own surrealist art With a deftness of touch King traces Penrose s complex professional and personal lives including his pacifism his work as a biographer including his outstanding life of Picasso as well as those of Miro Man Ray and Tapies and as an art historian as well as his unconventionality especially in his two marriages including that to Lee Miller and his numerous love affairs

Dark Toys David Hopkins,2021-01-01 A wide ranging look at surrealist and postsurrealist engagements with the culture and imagery of childhood We all have memories of the object world of childhood For many of us playthings and images from those days continue to resonate Rereading a swathe of modern and contemporary artistic production through the lens of its engagement with childhood this book blends in depth art historical analysis with sustained theoretical exploration of topics such as surrealist temporality toys play nostalgia memory and 20th century constructions of the child The result is an entirely new approach to the surrealist tradition via its engagement with childish things Providing what the author describes as a long history of surrealism this book plots a trajectory from surrealism itself to the art of the 1980s and 1990s through to the present day It addresses a range of figures from Marcel Duchamp Giorgio de Chirico Max Ernst Hans Bellmer Joseph Cornell and Helen Levitt at one end of the spectrum to Louise Bourgeois Eduardo Paolozzi Claes Oldenburg Susan Hiller Martin Sharp Helen Chadwick Mike Kelley and Jeff Koons at the other

Leaving The Twentieth Century McKenzie Wark,2024-08-20 The acclaimed history of the groundbreaking Situationist movement The Situationist International which leaped to the fore during the Paris tumult of 1968 has extended its revolutionary influence right up to the present day In Leaving the Twentieth Century the movement is captured for the first time in its full range and diversity McKenzie Wark traces the group s development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68 She introduces the group as an ensemble revealing the work and activities of thinkers previously obscured by the reputation of founding member Guy Debord Roaming through Europe and exploring the vital lives its members including Constant Asger Jorn Mich le Bernstein Alexander Trocchi and Jacqueline de Jong Wark uncovers a group riven with conflicting passions She follows the narrative beyond 1968 to the Situationists International s disintegration and beyond the ideas of T J Clark the Fourierist utopia of Raoul Vaneigem Ren Vignet s earthy situationist cinema Gianfranco Sanguinetti s pranking of the Italian ruling class Alice Becker Ho s account of the anonymous language of the Romany and Debord s late films and his surprising work as a game designer

The Beach Beneath the Street McKenzie Wark,2015-05-05 Over fifty years after the Situationist International appeared its legacy continues to inspire activists artists and theorists around the world Such a legend has accrued to this movement that the story of the SI now demands to be told in a contemporary voice capable of putting it into the context of twenty first century struggles McKenzie Wark delves into the Situationists unacknowledged diversity revealing a world as rich in practice as it is in theory Tracing the group s development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68 Wark's take on the Situationists is biographically and historically rich presenting the group as an ensemble creation rather than the brainchild and dominion of its most famous member Guy Debord Roaming through Europe and the lives of those who made up the movement including Constant Asger Jorn Michèle Bernstein Alex Trocchi and Jacqueline De Jong Wark uncovers an international movement riven with conflicting passions Accessible to those who have only just discovered the Situationists and filled with new insights The Beach Beneath the Street rereads the group's history in the light of our contemporary experience of communications architecture and everyday life The Situationists tried to escape the world of twentieth century spectacle and failed in the attempt Wark argues that they may still help us to escape the twenty first century while we still can

On This Modern Highway, Lost in the Jungle Jan Mrázek, 2022-02-01 I love Christmas that Muslim holiday K Biebl In 1926 the communist avant garde poet Konstantin Biebl 1898-1951 travelled from Czechoslovakia to the Dutch East Indies In his texts poetic and often comic both landlocked Bohemia and the colonized tropical islands are seen disorientingly anew like mirrors looking at themselves in each other On This Modern Highway Lost in the Jungle takes the reader on a journey crisscrossing the poet's life and work with particular attention to his travel writing and his dreams and memories of travel as they mirror the book author's own life experience as a Czech scholar of Indonesia living in island Southeast Asia Biebl's poetry and travels are also the book's point of departure for a broader exploration of the intersections of travel and poetry the attitudes to colonial social injustice and the representation of otherness in Czech literary and visual imagination beyond Biebl's times In its attention to how poetic travel reflects the Czech historical experience in the shadow of imperial nations the book moves scholarly reflection on literary travel modernity and colonialism to a new ground Jan Mrázek grew up in Czechoslovakia and lives on an island in the Malay Archipelago He is Associate Professor in Southeast Asian Studies at the National University of Singapore and has published widely on Indonesia seafaring and Czech travel writing

Visions of the City David Pinder, 2013-11-12 Visions of the City is a dramatic history of utopian urbanism in the twentieth century It explores radical demands for new spaces and ways of living and considers their effects on planning architecture and struggles to shape urban landscapes The author critically examines influential utopian approaches to urbanism in western Europe associated with such figures as Ebenezer Howard and Le Corbusier uncovering the political interests desires and anxieties that lay behind their ideal cities He also investigates avant garde perspectives from the time that challenged these conceptions of cities especially from within surrealism At the heart of this richly illustrated book is an encounter with the explosive ideas of the situationists Tracing the subversive practices of this avant garde group and its associates from their explorations of Paris during the 1950s to their alternative visions based on nomadic life and play David Pinder convincingly explains the significance of their revolutionary attempts to transform urban spaces and everyday life He addresses in particular Constant's New Babylon finding within his proposals a still powerful provocation to imagine cities otherwise The book not only recovers vital moments from past hopes and dreams of modern urbanism It also contests current claims about the end of utopia arguing that reconsidering earlier projects can play a critical role in developing utopian perspectives today Through the study of utopian visions it aims to rekindle elements of utopianism itself A superb critical exploration of the underside of utopian thought over the last hundred years and its continuing relevance in the here and now for thinking about possible urban worlds The treatment of the Situationists and their milieu is a revelation David Harvey Distinguished Professor of Anthropology City University of New York Graduate School

Analytical Chemistry for the Study of Paintings and the Detection of Forgeries Maria Perla Colombini, Ilaria Degano, Austin Nevin, 2022-09-08 Forgeries present a daunting problem to art historians museums galleries and curators who face challenges in determining the authenticity of paintings Recent progress in science has led to the development of new methods for investigating works of art and can provide new insights into the materials found in paintings The rise in the value of paintings together with the knowledge and skills of forgers highlights the need to develop reliable scientific procedures to identify fakes Given the complexity of materials in paintings and the convergence of various disciplines a methodological approach for investigations of paintings is based on art historical curatorial aesthetic technical and scientific evaluation In this book sophisticated digital and analytical techniques are reviewed for the identification of materials pigments binders varnishes adhesives and the physical characteristics of paintings such as brushstrokes craquelure and canvas weaves This book presents an updated overview of both non invasive and micro invasive techniques that enable the material characterization of paintings The materials constituting a painting are reviewed as are ways that changes in materials over time can provide insights into chronology and physical history State of the art digital methods including multi and hyper spectral imaging and computational approaches to data treatment will be presented Analytical techniques developed and optimized to characterize binders varnishes and pigments are reviewed focusing on materials which can provide information on ageing or provenance Case studies of applications of synchrotron based methods and the analysis of paintings are given as are chapters devoted to legal aspects related to authenticity Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom, 2022-11-08 This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies Methodologically the companion considers Surrealism's many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moments from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history      Prague, Capital of the Twentieth Century Derek Sayer, 2021-11-09 The story of modernity told through a cultural history of twentieth century Prague Setting out to recover the roots of modernity in the boulevards interiors and arcades of the city of light Walter Benjamin dubbed Paris the capital of the nineteenth century In this eagerly anticipated sequel to his acclaimed Coasts of Bohemia A Czech History Derek Sayer argues that Prague could well be seen as the capital of the much darker twentieth century Ranging across twentieth century Prague s astonishingly vibrant and always surprising human landscape this richly illustrated cultural history describes how the city has experienced and suffered more ways of being modern than perhaps any other metropolis Located at the crossroads of struggles between democratic communist and fascist visions of the modern world twentieth century Prague witnessed revolutions and invasions national liberation and ethnic cleansing the Holocaust show trials and snuffed out dreams of socialism with a human face Yet between the wars when Prague was the capital of Europe s most easterly parliamentary democracy it was also a hotbed of artistic and architectural modernism and a center of surrealism second only to Paris Focusing on these years Sayer explores Prague s spectacular modern buildings monuments paintings books films operas exhibitions and much more A place where the utopian fantasies of the century repeatedly unraveled Prague was tailor made for surrealist Andr Breton s black humor and Sayer discusses the way the city produced unrivaled connoisseurs of grim comedy from Franz Kafka and Jaroslav Hasek to Milan Kundera and V clav Havel A masterful and unforgettable account of a city where an idling flaneur could just as easily be a secret policeman this book vividly shows why Prague can teach us so much about the twentieth century and what made us who we are      Hunting the Collectors Susan Cochrane, Max Quanchi, 2014-11-10 This volume investigates Pacific collections held in Australian museums art galleries and archives and the diverse group of 19th and 20th century collectors responsible for their acquisition The nineteen essays reveal varied personal and institutional motivations that eventually led to the conservation preservation and exhibition in Australia of a remarkable archive of Pacific Island material objects art and crafts photographs and documents Hunting the Collectors benchmarks the importance of Pacific Collections in Australia and is a timely contribution to the worldwide renaissance of interest in Oceanic arts and cultures The essays suggest that the custodial role is not fixed and immutable but fluctuates with the perceived importance of the collection which in turn fluctuates with the level of national interest in the Pacific neighbourhood This cyclical rise and fall of Australian interest in the Pacific Islands means many of the valuable early collections in state and later national repositories and institutions have been rarely exhibited or published But as the authors note enthusiastic museum anthropologists curators collection managers and university based scholars across Australia and worldwide have persisted with research on material collected in the Pacific This volume is a very important one for anyone studying the art and material culture of the Pacific It focuses on collections now in Australia Even those well versed in museum collections from the Pacific will learn about many important but little known collectors as well as better known figures like the anthropologists F E Williams and Thomas Farrell the husband of Queen Emma This will be a treat for students and specialist alike Professor Robert L Welsch University of Dartmouth

The Complete Lives of Camp People Rudolf Mrázek, 2020-01-17 In The Complete Lives of Camp People Rudolf Mr zek presents a sweeping study of the material and cultural lives of twentieth century concentration camp internees and the multiple ways in which their experiences speak to the fundamental logics of modernity Mr zek focuses on the minutiae of daily life in two camps Theresienstadt a Nazi ghetto for Jews near Prague and the Dutch isolation camp Boven Digoel which was located in a remote part of New Guinea between 1927 and 1943 and held Indonesian rebels who attempted to overthrow the colonial government Drawing on a mix of interviews with survivors and their descendants archival accounts ephemera and media representations Mr zek shows how modern life s most mundane tasks buying clothes getting haircuts playing sports continued on in the camps which were themselves designed built and managed in accordance with modernity s tenets In this way Mr zek demonstrates that concentration camps are not exceptional spaces they are the locus of modernity in its most distilled form

Dada Culture , 2016-08-01 How Dada is to break its cultural accommodation and containment today necessitates thinking the historical instances through revised application of critical and theoretical models The volume Dada Culture Critical Texts on the Avant Garde moves precisely by this motive bringing together writings which insist upon the continuity of the early twentieth century moment now at the start of the twenty first Engaging the complex and contradictory nature of Dada strategies instanced in the linguistic gaming and performativity of the movement s initial formation and subsequently isolating the specific from the general with essays focusing on Ball Tzara Serner Hausmann Dix Heartfield Schwitters Baader Cravan and the exemplary Duchamp the political philosophy of the avant garde is brought to bear upon our own contemporary struggle through critical theory to comprehend the cultural usefulness relevance validity and effective or otherwise oppositionality of Dada s infamous anti stance The volume is presented in sections that progressively point towards the expanding complexity of the contemporary engagement with Dada as what is often exhaustive historical data is forced to rethink realign and reconfigure itself in response to the analytical rigour and exercise of later twentieth century animal anarchic thought the testing and cultural placement of thoughts upon the virtual and the eventual implications for the once blissfully unproblematic idea of expression From the opening provocative proposition that historically Dada may have been the falsest of all false paths the volume rounds to dispute such condemnation as demarcation continues not only of Dada s embeddedness in western culture but more precisely of the location of Dada culture Ten critical essays by Cornelius Partsch John Wall T J Demos Anna Schaffner Martin I Gaughan Curt Germundson Stephen C Foster Dafydd Jones Joel Freeman and David Cunningham are supplemented by the critical bibliography prepared by Timothy Shipe which documents the past decade of Dada scholarship and in so doing provides a valuable resource for all those engaged in Dada studies today

Violent Histories David Gascoigne, 2007 This series aims to publish new research monographs and essays into relationships and interactions between culture and identity The notions of both culture and identity are broadly conceived interdisciplinary and theoretically diverse approaches are encouraged in a series designed to promote a better understanding of the processes of identity formation both individual and collective

Surrealism Elza Adamowicz, 2006 This collection of essays inspired by Andr Breton's concept of the limites non frontières of Surrealism focuses on the crossings intersections and margins of the surrealist movement rather than its divides and exclusion zones Some of the essays originated as papers given at the colloquium Surrealism Crossings Frontiers held at the Institute of Romance Studies University of London in November 2001 Surrealism is foregrounded as a trajectory rather than a fixed body of doctrines radically challenging the notion of frontiers The essays explore real and imaginary journeys as well as the urban drives of the surrealists and situationists The concept of crossing central to a reading of the dynamics at work in Surrealism is explored in studies of the surrealist object which eludes or elides genres and explorations of the shifting sites of identity as in the work of Joyce Mansour or Andr Masson Surrealism's engagement with frontiers is further investigated through a number of revealing cases such as a political reading of 1930s photography the parodic rewriting of the popular locked room mystery or the surrealists cavalier redrawing of the map of the world The essays contribute to our understanding of the diversity and dynamism of Surrealism as an international and interdisciplinary movement

Darwin's Screens Barbara Creed, 2009 Darwin's Screens addresses a major gap in film scholarship the key influence of Charles Darwin's theories on the history of the cinema Much has been written on the effect of other great thinkers such as Freud and Marx but very little on the important role played by Darwinian ideas on the evolution of the newest art form of the twentieth century Creed argues that Darwinian ideas influenced the evolution of early film genres such as horror the detective film science fiction film noir and the musical Her study draws on Darwin's theories of sexual selection deep time and transformation and on emotions death and the meaning of human and animal in order to rethink some of the canonical arguments of film and cinema studies
