

I was unlocking the door. Stepping into the foyer the screaming came at me like a cannon ball. I dropped the bag and ran to the phone. When the power line flicked I lifted the receiver for my to report everything he was doing and come home. "Can you hear the screaming?" demanded as I pulled the receiver from my ear and held it out so that I was hearing. "Listen" he said "just go to the bedroom and it will stop." That was easy for him to say since he was more likely to place the phone back on the hook and went to the stairs and climbed one step at a time while the screaming continued. When I reached the second landing it stopped. The horrific outcry from the door was subject to the screaming. The house was like a block of an evil ghost seemed to exist. It was a true haunting.
