This volume presents recent research on the relationship between the material format of text bearing artefacts the texts they carry and their genre The essays cover a vast period from the counting stones of the late 4th millennium BCE to the time of the Great Hittite Kingdom in the 2nd millennium BCE The breadth of substantive focus allows new insights of relevance to scholars in both Ancient Middle Eastern studies and the humanities      Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988      Take the Silk Road Home Barry Terenna,2012

Gianni and Vinnie Fresco two very different brothers grow up in a close but neurotic Italian American family in a small town in Westchester County New York The responsible younger brother aids his reckless brother through the trials of his life Take the Silk Road Home traces the journey of each brother through the 1960s to the present day relating their careers loves and relationship with one another and the women in their lives The story begins hundreds of years earlier with a glimpse of ancestors past and ultimately leads to the curious events in the lives of both brothers The simple life in the old country contributes to the paths both brothers take There is a strong connection to Asia where one brother faces the horrors of the war in Vietnam and the other travels to China for adventure and inspiration Cultures and national heritage enrich the human interactions and connections between friends families and lovers and show that different backgrounds are less important to relationships than human emotions      Valuing Services in Trade Sebastian Saez,Daria Taglioni,Erik van der Marel,Claire H.
