Ginny and Me: Christine Walters, 2015-04-30 Ginny and Me Reflections of What God Can Do is a deep personal story about my troubled relationship with my mother who lived with a severe mental illness Ginny died unexpectedly at Christmas season and buried later on Mothers Day weekend My story addresses how God carried me and several social issues including mental health child neglect and abuse domestic violence loss and grief Abuse is damaging It comes from cycles of abusive behaviors learned and repeated through generations Because of shame and embarrassment many people do not speak about the cruelty they endured In my case most of the abuse I suffered resulted from my mothers mental illness For my entire life people told me to excuse my moms abuse because she was mentally ill

However mental illness does not give anyone the right to abuse you in particular your child Ginny had childhood paranoid schizophrenia with multiple personality disorder She lived in the Buffalo State Hospital through her adolescent years When released from the hospital she had me She was twenty six and my dad was thirty years older My mother was white and my father was black As a child I struggled with my mixed heritage My mom would tell me that white people did not like me because I was black Even from a religious standpoint I was raised as a Catholic and Baptist On Sundays my mom and I attended mass without my father and Baptist service with him I always felt like I had to choose Was I black Was I white Was I Catholic Was I Baptist My mom told me that her side of the family disliked my dad because he was black and my dad's side of the family disliked my mom because she was white Here I was stuck in the middle I share my life story with the world through God's glory My story is about how faith enabled me to overcome extraordinary struggles pain and loss Faith hope and forgiving the unforgivable through prayer and trusting in God are the keys to healing

I Walk by Faith, Not by Sight Beatrice Guzzi, 2022-08-01 People ask me aEURoeHow did you do it having six children and raising them totally blind aEUR I always give them the same answer aEURoeWith the help of God aEUR This is the gospel truth I don't know how I would have done it without His help It was not easy but I was determined to have children with or without sight I always wanted children even when I was a little girl I was always around them I was the youngest of three but when you come from a big Italian family there are always kids around and more than likely a lot of babies to take care of and play with So taking care of babies was not hard for me I was always very comfortable taking care of my own How would you feel if a doctor told you at the age of twenty three that you are going to be blind and there is no cure I was a newlywed at the time Would my new husband want to stay with a blind wife Would I be able to accept living in the dark in a sighted world Would all my dreams of a home and children go up in smoke I never wanted to be a burden to my husband That's when I drew on my faith and trusted in God If God got me to it He would get me through it You will read about the miraculous ways God worked things out in my life The way in which I had my children was miraculous He said "For I know the plans I have for you" Jeremiah 29:11 God is always in control When I was a young girl I was very insecure and shy But with this change in my life I had to toughen up and that's exactly what I did I went through a lot of hard times in my life but a lot of happy times too The secret is how you deal with it all There was fun and lots of laughter and a lot of surprises too Life's journey is very simple You just follow the Lord and you can't go wrong I am still following that path today and I can say that "Yes indeed I walk by faith and not by sight" 2 Corinthians 5:7
