Writings by Pre-Revolutionary French Women Colette H. Winn, Anne R. Larsen, 2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment Two Texts by Edward Everett Hale Edward Everett Hale, Hsuan L. Hsu, Susan Kalter, 2010-01-01 Two Texts by Edward Everett Hale brings together one of the most popular stories of the nineteenth century The Man Without a Country with its novel length sequel Philip Nolan's Friends Written in 1863 in response to Clement Vallandigham's speeches against Abraham Lincoln's suspensions of civil liberties The Man without a Country recounts the life of a rash naval officer sentenced to spend his life on naval ships where he might never again see or hear of the United States Thirteen years later in Philip Nolan's Friends Hale would employ the travel narrative again with his fictional Cuban American heroine Inez Perry to retell the true story of that rash officer the early filibuster Philip Nolan Culminating in the transfer of the Louisiana territory to the United States the novel draws parallels between her coming of age adventures and the implied manifest destiny of the country Nolan hoped to extend As Hsuan Hsu and Susan Kalter show in this critical edition these engaging works of fiction helped orient nineteenth century Americans opinions about citizenship statelessness imperialism and conflicts with Mexico and Native American nations in the U S Southwest Reprinted now for the modern audience these stories exemplify how literature comes to terms with the internal and foreign conflicts that accompanied the consolidation of the nation
