The gentleman owl says musical notes occur here in the printed text and she answers from her tree a little way off musical notes beautifully assenting to and completing her lord's remark as becomes a properly constructed German she owl They say the same thing over and over again so emphatically that I think it must be something nasty about me but I shall not let myself be frightened away by the sarcasm of owls

ELIZABETH VON ARNIM, 2023-03-11 From the author of the Books Like Elizabeth and Her German Garden Vera The Solitary Summer Mr Skeffington Love The Pastor's Wife Father The Benefactress In the Mountains The Enchanted April By Elizabeth Von Arnim Glimpse of the Book It began in a Woman's Club in London on a February afternoon an uncomfortable club and a miserable afternoon when Mrs Wilkins who had come down from Hampstead to shop and had lunched at her club took up The Times from the table in the smoking room and running her listless eye down the Agony Column saw this To Those Who Appreciate Wistaria and Sunshine Small mediaeval Italian Castle on the shores of the Mediterranean to be Let furnished for the month of April Necessary servants remain Z Box 1000 The Times That was its conception yet as in the case of many another the conceiver was unaware of it at the moment So entirely unaware was Mrs Wilkins that her April for that year had then and there been settled for her that she dropped the newspaper with a gesture that was both irritated and resigned and went over to the window and stared drearily out at the dripping street Not for her were mediaeval castles even those that are specially described as small Not for her the shores in April of the Mediterranean and the wisteria and sunshine Such delights were only for the rich Yet the advertisement had been addressed to persons who appreciate these things so that it had been anyhow addressed too to her for she certainly appreciated them more than anybody knew more than she had ever told But she was poor In the whole world she possessed of her very own only ninety pounds saved from year to year put by carefully pound by pound out of her dress allowance She had scraped this sum together at the suggestion of her husband as a shield and refuge against a rainy day Her dress allowance given her by her father was 100 a year so that Mrs Wilkins's clothes were what her husband urging her to save called modest and becoming and her acquaintance to each other when they spoke of her at all which was seldom for she was very negligible called a perfect sight Mr Wilkins a solicitor encouraged thrift except that branch of it which got into his food He did not call that thrift he called it bad housekeeping But for the thrift which like moth penetrated into Mrs Wilkins's clothes and spoilt them he had much praise You never know he said when there will be a rainy day and you may be very glad to find you have a nest egg Indeed we both may

The Enchanted April By Elizabeth Von Arnim Summary of the Book A light and pastoral novel compared to her other works British author Elizabeth von Arnim's historical fiction The Enchanted April 1922 was inspired by her experience touring the Italian Riviera It ties together the narratives of four unique women living in Arnim's present day England who somewhat reluctantly band together to vacation in Italy Eventually realizing they have a number of commonalities the women reach the moralistic conclusion that it is prudent and wise to seek social connection rather than exclusivity Famous for being a relatively early text to feature a solidarity of women as protagonist figures the novel inaugurated later feminist British literature It also addresses themes such as self fulfillment love the intrinsic value of the natural world and the texture of memory

The Enchanted April begins on an ordinary day in England Mrs Arbuthnot a reticent and traditional woman meets up with Mrs Wilkins who is more spontaneous to discuss an advertisement they found listing the lease of a villa in Italy the next April Each woman considers the other an acquaintance but not a friend by any means However Mrs Wilkins notices Mrs Arbuthnot's dissatisfaction with life and resonates with her She urges Mrs Arbuthnot to sign the lease with her Mrs Arbuthnot contacts Mr Briggs the owner who becomes infatuated with her Realizing that the rate is higher than they expected the two women resolve to find other female boarders to split the cost Their petition draws in two other women Mrs Fisher a controlling woman and the extremely wealthy Lady Caroline Denston Lacking other interested parties Mrs Arbuthnot and Mrs Wilkins agree to go with them despite their initial judgments Mrs Arbuthnot and Mrs Wilkins travel together to Italy while the other two women make their own arrangements When they arrive at the villa they find that they are the last to reach it and are irritated that Mrs Fisher and Lady Caroline have taken the villa's two finest rooms Quickly enamored with the beauty of Italy Mrs Wilkins forgets her trivial woes In contrast Mrs Arbuthnot despairs revealing that she has not even informed her husband of her travels Mrs Fisher proves to be a solitary person and Lady Caroline uses Italy as a meditative and spiritual experience As their vacation progresses the four women learn more about themselves and of each other Mrs Wilkins revels in the Italian countryside believing that her marital woes would disappear if she lived there she decides to invite her lawyer husband to join her at the villa Mrs Arbuthnot follows suit inviting her husband as well though it is out of guilt Mrs Fisher realizing she has repressed much of her youthful spirit resolves to nurture it further Reflecting on her life in England Lady Caroline realizes she has cheapened it with trivialities and shallowness However she is at a loss as to how to lead a more meaningful life Soon Mr Wilkins makes it to the Italian villa An ambitious man he tries to use the opportunity to get business from the wealthy Mrs Fisher and Lady Caroline Despite his preoccupation with his career he comes to appreciate Mrs Wilkins more for getting him out of his element Lady Caroline rebuffs Mr Wilkins viewing him as just another man interested in her fortune Mrs Fisher befriends him spending time with him and his wife who is elated to spend so much more time with him Mr Briggs en route to Rome stops at the villa He virtually forgets about Mrs Arbuthnot upon seeing Lady Caroline Lady Caroline ignores him but eventually softens seeing that his affection is genuine and not based on shallow personal desire The plot takes an unexpected twist near the end of the novel Lady Caroline invites a lover from England who turns out to be Mr Arbuthnot Before Mr Arbuthnot registers shock giving his affair away Mrs Arbuthnot rejoices that he has come to see her Lady Caroline quickly pivots turning to Mr Briggs as Mrs Arbuthnot reconnects with her husband The story concludes at the end of the women s month in Italy They look forward to returning to England implementing their improved relationships and self understanding in daily life A gentle novel even with its unexpected twists and turns The Enchanted April casts the setting of an idealized rural Italy as an environment that enables its visitors to reconnect to their spiritual roots Using this trope of the change of scenery as a source of therapy it suggests that the social connections that nature and relaxation foster can be a remedy to one s exacting and modern urban life The Enchanted April By Elizabeth Von Arnim Elizabeth and her German Garden Elizabeth von Arnim,2021-02-23 Elizabeth von Arnim s novel Elizabeth and Her German Garden was first published in 1898 It was instantly popular and has gone through numerous reprints ever since This story is the main character Elizabeth s diary where she relates stories from her life as she learns to tend to her garden Whilst the novel has a strongly autobiographical tone it is also very humorous and satirical due to Elizabeth s frequent mistakes and her idiosyncratic outlook on life She comments on the beauty of nature and shares her view on society looking down on the frivolous fashions of her time and writing I believe all needlework and dressmaking is of the devil designed to keep women from study The book is the first in a series about the same character Elizabeth von Arnim 1866 1941 n e Mary Annette Beauchamp was a British novelist Born in Australia her family returned to England when she was three years old and she was Katherine Mansfield s cousin She was first married to a Prussian aristocrat the Graf von Arnim Schlagenthin and later to the philosopher Bertrand Russel s older brother Frank whom she left a year later She then had an affair with the publisher Alexander Reeves a man thirty years her junior and with H G Wells Von Arnim moved a lot living alternatively in the United Kingdom Switzerland Germany Poland

The Adventures of Elizabeth in Rugen Elizabeth Von Arnim,2015-10-17 Every one who has been to school and still remembers what he was taught there knows that Rugen is the biggest island Germany possesses and that it lies in the Baltic Sea off the coast of Pomerania Round this island I wished to walk this summer but no one would walk with me It is the perfect way of moving if you want to see into the life of things It is the one way of freedom If you go to a place on anything but your own feet you are taken there too fast and miss a thousand delicate joys that were waiting for you by the wayside If you drive you are bound by a variety of considerations eight of the most important being the horses legs If you bicycle but who that loves to get close to nature would bicycle And as for motors the object of a journey like mine was not the getting to a place but the going there
