Elleander Morning Jerry Yulsman:

Elleander Morning Yulsman, Jerry, 2015-12-16 A dying woman given a second chance to relive her life travels back in time Her goal the execution of an obscure Viennese artist named Adolf Hitler Two generations later the assassin's granddaughter is mystified to discover a book relating the history of World War II the chronicle of a conflict that never took place Elleander Morning spans eight decades of the twentieth century tracing two different timelines from two very different worlds and raising thought provoking questions along the way Part detective story part thriller and part romance this alternative history won the 1986 Ditmar Award for best international fiction and the 1987 Kurd La witz Preis This edition features a new Introduction by Gavriel Rosenfeld an expert on Nazi Germany and the Holocaust The World Hitler Never Made Gavriel D. Rosenfeld, 2005-05-23 A fascinating 2005 study of the place of alternate histories of Nazism within Western popular culture

Lessons and Legacies VII Peter Hayes, Dagmar Herzog, 1991 In the courtroom and the classroom in popular media public policy and scholarly pursuits the Holocaust its origins its nature and its implications remains very much a matter of interest debate and controversy Arriving at a time when a new generation must come to terms with the legacy of the Holocaust or forever lose the benefit of its historical social and moral lessons this volume offers a richly varied deeply informed perspective on the practice interpretation and direction of Holocaust research now and in the future In their essays the authors an international group including eminent senior scholars as well those who represent the future of the field set the agenda for Holocaust studies in the coming years even as they give readers the means for understanding today's news and views of the Holocaust whether in court cases involving victims and perpetrators international national and corporate developments or fictional documentary and historical accounts Several of the essays such as one on nonarmed amideh or resistance and others on the role of gender in the behavior of perpetrators and victims provide innovative and potentially significant interpretive frameworks for the field of Holocaust studies Others for instance the rounding up of Jews in Italy Nazi food policy in Eastern Europe and Nazi anti Jewish scholarship emphasize the importance of new sources for reconstructing the historical record Still others including essays on the 1964 Frankfurt trial of Auschwitz guards and on the response of the Catholic Church to the question of German guilt bring a new depth and sophistication to highly charged sharply politicized topics Together these essays will inform the future of the Holocaust in scholarly research and in popular understanding Publisher's description

Imagining the Unimaginable Glyn Morgan, 2020-01-23 Imagining the Unimaginable examines popular fiction's treatment of the Holocaust in the dystopian and alternate history genres of speculative fiction analyzing the effectiveness of the genre's major works as a lens through which to view the most prominent historical trauma of the 20th century It surveys a range of British and American authors from science fiction pulp to Pulitzer Prize winners building on scholarship across disciplines including Holocaust studies trauma studies and science fiction studies The conventional discourse around the Holocaust is one of the unapproachable unknowable and the unimaginable The Holocaust has been compared to an earthquake another planet another universe a void It has been said to be beyond language or else have its own incomprehensible language beyond art and beyond thought The othering of the event has spurred the phenomenon of non realist Holocaust literature engaging with speculative fiction and its history of the uncanny the grotesque and the inhuman This book examines the most common forms of nonmimetic Holocaust fiction the dystopia and the alternate history while firmly positioning these forms within a broader pattern of non realist engagements with the Holocaust

Space, Time, and Infinity Brian M.
