

FUNERAL SERMON OUTLINE

by

Herbert W. Armstrong

The system I have used is a series of small folded sheets of paper, each containing the notes associated with the scripture in which each note is found. The notes I have used are on pieces of paper, four of which can be made from one standard 8.5 x 11 sheet by folding and creasing it in half, and then tearing off, and then folding in half and creasing and tearing off each half. Then the quarter-size sheet is in turn folded in thirds. Usually I wrote my outlines in pen and ink, and in so doing I used my own system of abbreviating, and even leaving out words such as articles etc.

So that in future use I will know where it begins, I start the first note with the name of deceased and date of funeral. Then, underscored, I write "START". Usually there were at least two of these note-pieces required at the start before turning to the next scripture. In the case I have chosen as an illustration, all three of these slips would be inserted in between the pages where Isaiah 57:1 is found. These notes end with the notation of Job 14:14. The next note has at the top "Job 14:14" and is inserted in between the pages in the Bible where Job 14:14 is found. You will find you can turn instantly to this scripture with this note inserted. The three thicknesses of paper in each of these note is sufficient to cause the Bible to open at that place, but not thick enough to become apparent to the audience. They never see the notes.

Now, when you turn to Job 14:14, first read the first sentence of this verse, then the note gives you what you have decided to say in comment on it, and at the bottom of the little page (or reverse side if your notes require both sides) you have plainly written and underscored the next text. Then you have your next note with that text (John 5:28-29 in this case) underscored at the top, inserted between the pages where this text is found. You turn to it, first read that text, then the comment on the note, and so on from text to text.

Following is a sample outline I have used. At the beginning is where I desire to use Isaiah 57:1, spanstyle= I do not use it, but shorten it by going directly to Job 14:14, as I will outline below.
