Astaire by Numbers Todd R. Decker, 2022 Astaire by Numbers looks at every second of dancing Fred Astaire committed to film in the studio era all six hours thirty four minutes and fifty seconds Using a quantitative digital humanities approach as well as previously untapped production records author Todd Decker takes the reader onto the set and into the rehearsal halls and editing rooms where Astaire created his seemingly perfect film dances Watching closely in this way reveals how Astaire used the technically sophisticated resources of the Hollywood film making machine to craft a singular career in mass entertainment as a straight white man who danced Decker dissects Astaire's work at the level of the shot the cut and the dance step to reveal the aesthetic and practical choices that yielded Astaire's dancing figure on screen He offers new insights into how Astaire secured his masculinity and his heterosexuality along with a new understanding of Astaire's whiteness which emerges in both the sheer extent of his work and the larger implications of his famous full figure framing of his dancing body Astaire by Numbers rethinks this towering straight white male figure from the ground up by digging deeply into questions of race gender and sexuality ultimately offering a complete re assessment of a twentieth century icon of American popular culture     The Poets of Tin Pan Alley Philip Furia, Laurie J. Patterson, 2022

From the turn of the century to the 1960s the songwriters of Tin Pan Alley were synonymous with American popular music Irving Berlin Cole Porter George and Ira Gershwin Rodgers and Hart even today these giants remain household names their musicals regularly revived their methods and styles analyzed and imitated and their songs the bedrock of jazz and cabaret In this new edition of The Poets of Tin Pan Alley authors Philip Furia and Laurie Patterson offer a unique perspective on these great songwriters showing how their poetic lyrics were as important as their brilliant music in shaping a golden age of American popular song Furia and Patterson continue the tradition of great perception and understanding established in the first edition as they explore the deft rhymes inventive imagery and witty solutions these songwriters used to breathe new life into rigidly established genres They devote full chapters to such greats as Irving Berlin Lorenz Hart Ira Gershwin Cole Porter Oscar Hammerstein II Howard Dietz E Y Harburg Dorothy Fields Leo Robin and Johnny Mercer They also offer a comprehensive survey of other lyricists who wrote for the sheet music industry Broadway Hollywood and Harlem nightclub revues This was the era that produced The New Yorker Don Marquis Dorothy Parker and E B White and the book places Tin Pan Alley lyrics firmly in this fascinating historical context In these pages the lyrics emerge as an important element of American modernism as the lyricists like the great modernist poets took the American vernacular and made it sing     The Songs of Hollywood Philip Furia, Laurie Patterson, 2010-04-07

From Over the Rainbow to Moon River and from Al Jolson to Barbra Streisand The Songs of Hollywood traces the fascinating history of song in film both in musicals and in dramatic movies such as High Noon Extremely well illustrated with 200 film stills this delightful book sheds much light on some of Hollywood's best known and loved repertoire explaining how the film industry made certain songs memorable and highlighting important moments of film history along the way The book focuses on how the songs were presented in the movies from early talkies where actors portrayed singers performing the songs to the Golden Age in which characters burst into expressive integral song not as a performance but as a spontaneous outpouring of feeling The book looks at song presentation in 1930s classics with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers and in 1940s gems with Judy Garland and Gene Kelly The authors also look at the decline of the genre since 1960 when most original musicals were replaced by film versions of Broadway hits such as My Fair Lady
