

Nurse Retirement Rules

A recent study of retired nurses has shown that nurses should ease into it gradually by following these impt steps:

1. For the first week, all meals should be eaten standing up and should consist of Graham crackers, generic ginger ale, and a small amount of vanilla ice cream.
2. On the second week, begin to sit down as you gobble popcorn out of a real bowl. But continue drinking generic ginger ale.
3. Week three, you should progress to all meals on a plate as tolerated and start burning your scrubs in a pit in the yard. Wear your goggles and paper mask as there will be fumes from God knows what that has been growing on them.
4. Week four, tie your stethoscope into small knots and plant some flowers in your Nurse shoes. You may also begin to answer your phone and cancel the caller ID to save money.
