Geoinformation from the Past Hendrik Herold,2017-12-21 Hendrik Herold explores potentials and hindrances of using retrospective geoinformation for monitoring communicating modeling and eventually understanding the complex and gradually evolving processes of land cover and land use change Based on a comprehensive review of literature available data sets and suggested algorithms the author proposes approaches for the two major challenges To address the diversity of geographical entity representations over space and time image segmentation is considered a global non linear optimization problem which is solved by applying a metaheuristic algorithm To address the uncertainty inherent to both the data source itself as well as its utilization for change detection a probabilistic model is developed Experimental results demonstrate the capabilities of the methodology e g for geospatial data science and earth system modeling The European Information Society Lars Bernard,Anders Friis-Christensen,Hardy Pundt,2008-04-11 The Association of Geographic Information Laboratories for Europe AGILE was established in early 1998 to promote academic teaching and research on GIS at the European level AGILE seeks to ensure that the views of the geographic information teaching and research community are fully represented in the discussions that take place on future European search agendas and it also provides a permanent scientific forum where geographic information researchers can meet and exchange ideas and periences at the European level In 2007 AGILE provided for the first time since its existence a book constituting a collection of scientific papers that were submitted as fu papers to the annual AGILE conference and went through a competitive and thorough review process

Published in the Springer Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography this first edition was well received within AGILE and within the European Geoinformation Science community as a whole. Thus the decision was easily made to establish a Springer th Volume for the 11 AGILE conference held 2008 in Girona Spain and led to what you now hold in your hands
