Recommendatory note, by W. L. Alexander George WIGHT (Presbyterian Minister.), 1857 A Theory of Epistemic Justification J. Leplin, 2009-02-28 One goal of epistemology is to refute the skeptic Another with an equally distinguished if briefer pedigree is to make sense of science as a knowledge acquiring enterprise The goals are incompatible in that the latter presupposes that the skeptic is wrong The incompatibility is not strict One could have both goals conditioning the latter upon success at the former In fact however epistemologies aimed at the skeptic tend not to get anywhere near science They've got all they can handle figuring out how we can know we have hands I come to epistemology from the philosophy of science my original interest in which was epistemological Philosophers of science are concerned with epistemic justification but their question about it is how far it extends They take justification to be unproblematic at the level of ordinary experience their worries begin with the interpretation of experience as evidence for theory They are interested in the scope of scientific knowledge Having taken a position on this question 1997 going that justification extends to theoretical hypotheses I came to wonder about the nature of justification generally This is not a belated discovery of the skeptical problem or a reconsideration of what I took to be unproblematic It is simply an interest in the possibility of locating epistemic advance in science within a broader understanding of the nature of epistemic justification Now that I know that justification extends to theory I am taking a step back and asking what justification is , The Listener , 1929 Fear and Fantasy in a Global World , 2015-09-01 At a time when the mass media insist on bombarding us with news about natural political and economic disasters words ideas and images associated with such crises and catastrophes shape to a great extent collective memory and current imagination Fear and Fantasy in a Global World seeks to stir the debate on the processes and meanings of as well as on the relations between fear and fantasy in the globalized world Collective fears and fantasies are analysed from a number of cross disciplinary perspectives promoted by the epistemological underpinnings of comparative literature In various ways and from different disciplinary angles the 17 essays here gathered respond to and scrutinize key questions related to the imaginaries of fear and fantasy as well as their relations to trauma crisis anxiety and representations of both the conscious and the unconscious Contributors Alexandra Hills Ana Filipa Prata Brecht de Groote Christin Grunert Christopher Bollas Daniela Di Pasquale David Vichnar Edith Beltr n Gero Gutzzeit Hande Gurses Harriet Hulme James Rushing Daniel Jo o Pedro da Costa Margarita Garc a Candeira Marija Sruk Martijn Boven and Ortwin de Graef Geology of To-day John Walter Gregory, 1919 Scientific American , 1908 Wittgenstein's On Certainty Rush Rhees, 2008-04-15 Rush Rhees a close friend of
