chamber and said to me I have been as a lion against you but now I come like a lamb and like the jailer that came to Paul and Silas trembling And he desired he might lodge with me I told him I was in his power he might do what he would but he said Xay that he would have my leave and that he could desire to be always with me but not to have me as a prisoner He said he had been plagued and his house had been plagued for my sake So I suffered him to lodge with me Then he told me all his heart and said that he believed what I had said of the true faith and hope to be true and he wondered that the other man who was put in prison with me did not stand it and said That man was not right but you are an honest man He confessed also to me that at those times when I had asked him to let me go forth to speak the word of the Lord to the people when he refused to let me go and I laid the weight thereof upon him he used to be under great trouble amazed and almost distracted for some time after and in such a condition that he had little strength left him When the morning came he rose and went to the justices and told them that he and his house had been plagued for my sake One of the justices replied as he reported to me that the plagues were upon them too for keeping me This was Justice Bennet of Derby who was the first that called us Quakers
