Georgialina A Southland As We Knew It:

Georgialina Tom Poland, 2015-11-24 Veteran journalist and southern storyteller Tom Poland has been writing about the disappearing rural South for nearly four decades With a companionable appreciation for nostalgia preservation humor and wonder Georgialina A Southland as We Knew It brings to life once more the fading and often forgotten unfiltered character of the South as Poland takes readers down back roads to old homes covered bridges and country stores He recalls hunting for snipes and for lost Confederate gold the joys of beach music the shag and cruising Ocean Drive and the fading traditions of sweeping yards with homemade brooms funeral processions calling catfish and other customs of southern heritage and history Peppered with candid memoir Georgialina also introduces readers to a host of quirky and memorable characters who have populated the southland of Poland's meanderings As commercialization homogenization and relocation have slowly altered distinctive regions of the country making all places increasingly similar southern traditions have proven to be more resilient than most But Poland notes that many elements that once defined day to day life in the South are now completely foreign to contemporary generations Set primarily in Poland's native Georgia and adopted home of South Carolina his tales of bygone times resonate across a recognizably southern landscape and faithfully recall the regional history and lore that have defined the South for generations as a place uniquely its own for natives newcomers and visitors Georgialina

Thomas M. Poland, 2015 A nostalgic look at Georgia and South Carolina before development outsiders and modern conveniences brought wholesale change South Carolina Country Roads Tom Poland, 2018-04-16 Venture off the beaten path down forgotten roads and discover where a hidden South Carolina exists Time travel and dead end at a ferry that leads to wild islands Cross a rusting steel truss bridge into a scene from the 1930s Behold an old gristmill and imagine its creaking clashing gears grinding corn See an old gas pump wreathed in honeysuckle Drive through a ghost town and wonder why it died When's the last time you saw a country store's cured hams hanging from wires How about a vintage Bull Durham tobacco ad on old brick Author Tom Poland explores scenic back roads that lead to heirloom tomatoes poke salad restaurants that were once gas stations overgrown ruins and other soulful relics South Carolina Country Roads: Of Train Depots,

Filling Stations & Other Vanishing Charms Tom Poland, 2018-04-16 Venture off the beaten path down forgotten roads and discover where a hidden South Carolina exists Time travel and dead end at a ferry that leads to wild islands Cross a rusting steel truss bridge into a scene from the 1930s Behold an old gristmill and imagine its creaking clashing gears grinding corn See an old gas pump wreathed in honeysuckle Drive through a ghost town and wonder why it died When's the last time you saw a country store's cured hams hanging from wires How about a vintage Bull Durham tobacco ad on old brick Author Tom Poland explores scenic back roads that lead to heirloom tomatoes poke salad restaurants that were once gas stations overgrown ruins and other soulful relics Carolina Bays Tom Poland, 2019-12-23 There is a strange beauty at the heart of every mystery and the mystery of the Carolina Bays is an enigma that is lushly uniquely beautiful How did these odd geomorphological features come to be formed in the landscape in the first place with their uniform shapes and matching elliptical orientations scattered across the Carolinas There are many hypotheses but no definitive answers Why are these inland phenomena even called bays There is no clear answer to that either The best definition of these features are temporary isolated freshwater wetlands variously described as high or flatwater ponds wet weather lakes or vernal pools often identified more accurately as pocosins and they are ecological wonders full of all manner of amphibians and reptiles insects and birds wildlife and plants many of them exotic and rare What also defines them is their uncommon beauty Featuring more than one hundred fifty color images Carolina Bays takes you from an aerial perspective of these unusual bays to an on the ground safari from frogs that croak and bark and boom to skinks that skim across the water as if on skis and on to squawking herons to black and yellow polka dotted caterpillars There are growling alligators and four hundred year old trees and delicate yellow fringed orchids Life is found in astounding abundance These wetlands are unique and almost immeasurably ancient as is to be expected in the modern world they are threatened by human intervention Such diverse habitats and their rich unmatched biodiversity call out for preservation and restoration The bays are not only visited and documented by the authors they make an impassioned case for respecting how important these singular formations are for the health of the planet You could not find more able guides
