Gerard Manley Hopkins Gerard Manley Hopkins, 1990 Gerard Manley Hopkins 1844-89 has long been admired as a letterwriter for the vividness sense of humor and honesty with which he expressed his opinions Although he died young his life overlapped with some of the great poets Wordsworth Tennyson Yeats Robert Bridges of the Victorian era and his comments on them are astute and revealing This collection drawn from the three volumes edited by C C Abbott covers the whole period of Hopkins's life adding some important and lesser known letters that have only recently come to light Ranging in date from his school days to his final years in Dublin the letters include correspondence with his German master at Highgate a rare letter written during the course of his priestly duties one to an Irish colleague on the political situation in Ireland a late letter to his brother Everard on art and poetry and various other letters to his Oxford friends to John Henry Newman and Coventry Patmore and to his family Together they reveal a man of great warmth who had a wonderful perception of natural beauty and deep religious ardor Gerard Manley Hopkins Gerard Manley Hopkins, 2013-06-01

Thomas L. Martin, 2025-08-18 Literature's probative force travels across the realm of sense in this world to what lies beyond it When we speak of what is beyond our grasp in this world we think most immediately of the world of the spirit Shakespeare famously celebrates literature's power to explore the forms of things unknown How many great works of literature guide us through a familiar world to the edge of the spiritual unknown Not only Shakespeare but Dante Milton Dostoevsky Hopkins Eliot O'Connor and many others in these pages carry us there This book follows their quest Literary apologetics is the study of the characteristic moves by the authors who take readers on their journey of faith with them Most notably that tradition begins with Latin authors spreads across Europe in a continuous literary culture and extends over world literature to the present day While early apologetics is proclamation rhetoric philosophy and poetry above all it is witness to the faith manifesting itself in time The early faith community produces a distinct literary culture as Christian witness takes all these forms and more From then until now this kind of literature probes ultimate questions adumbrates numinous experience and extrapolates ethical outcomes of Christian teachings across a wide variety of literary forms The Handbook of Literary Apologetics provides an authoritative introduction to the scope of this tradition and its major figures The Art of New Creation Jeremy Begbie, Daniel Train, W.
