Gereformeerde Homiletiek:

The Touch of the Sacred F. Gerrit Immink, 2014-08-03 All over the world Christian communities meet on Sunday morning for worship But what really happens during a worship service How do worshipers participate in the service What does it mean to sing pray and celebrate the Lord's Supper together What do worshipers do when they listen to a sermon In The Touch of the Sacred Gerrit Immink offers thoughtful theological reflection on the religious practice of worship services in the Protestant tradition He develops a theology of worship with a clear focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ as he explores the meaning of worship the mystery of Christ the sacraments prayer and preaching Ultimately he says something dynamic happens when a church congregation speaks and acts it is touched by the sacred by a very encounter with the living God

Petrus Van Mastricht (1630-1706) Adriaan Cornelis Neele, 2009 This book is a first monograph on the life and work of Petrus van Mastricht 1630 1706 Expanding the new interest in Protestant scholasticism this book portrays Mastricht as a post Reformation reformed theologian philosopher and Christian Hebraist The result provides a fresh appraisal in particular on the relationship of biblical exegesis doctrine polemic and praxis

Evangelistic Preaching Lloyd M. Perry, John R. Strubhar, 2000-02-05

Sola Scriptura Sidney Greidanus, 2001-10-31 This book deals with a key question every pastor faces nearly every week in preparing sermons That question concerns the appropriate manner of treating the historical material of the Scriptures In the history of the Christian Church this material has often served as the basis for moral lessons or intellectual truths This study presents a careful analysis of the way in which this age old controversy surfaced in the revival of redemptive historical theology in the Reformed churches in Holland between the two world wars It also presents the basis for a fresh approach and is thus exceedingly helpful for both pastors and students

The Spirituality of the Heidelberg Catechism Arnold Huijgen, 2015-03-11 At the occasion of the 450th anniversary of the Heidelberg Catechism an international conference on the spirituality of the Heidelberg Catechism was held at the Theological University Apeldoorn 21 22 June 2013 This publication offers the plenary papers presented and a selection of the short papers While the papers center on the Catechism's spirituality a wide range of topics is covered from both historical and theological perspectives These topics include the roles of Ursinus and Olevianus controversial theologians anabaptist spirituality comparisons with Calvin's Genevan Catechism and the later Synopsis of Purer Theology Also the distinct spirituality of faith regeneration the trinity the law and prayer in the Heidelberg Catechism are scrutinized besides the idea of mystical union and the art of dying and living Three contributions reflect on the controversy on the Eucharist which has stamped the Heidelberg Catechism From a practical theological perspective the preaching and teaching of the Catechism are discussed as well as the mode of gospel presentation and the permanent character of catechetical instruction So this volume offers a broad range of scholarly perspectives on the Catechism Its spirituality is famous for the first question and answer on the only comfort in life and death That I am not my own but belong body and soul in life and in death to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ      The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus, 1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles      The Drama of Preaching Eric B. Watkins, 2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God's redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word      *Vital Balance: The Pursuit of Professors J. Psychology of religion has been enjoying considerable attention of late the number of publications and people involved in the field is rapidly increasing It is however one of the oldest branches within psychology in general and one of the few in which an interdisciplinary approach has been kept alive and fostered The fate of the field has been quite varied in the countries where psychology of religion has been initiated and developed during the 20th century In this volume some aspects of this international history are examined Coming from six different Western countries each of the contributors has a record in the historiography of psychology and profound knowledge of psychology of religion Their approaches combine elements from the history of mentalities the social history of science and biographical studies The volume contains in depth treatments of such topics as the growth of the field as reflected in university politics developments within international organizations and the personal involvement of contributors to the field A wealth of information is provided on the background of the work of well known psychologists of religion like James Henry Leuba Oskar Pfister Gordon Allport Werner Gruhn Antoine Vergote and others Preaching Christ from the Old Testament Sidney Greidanus, 1999-07-13

Arguing for the need both to preach Christ in every sermon and to preach regularly from the Old Testament Sidney Greidanus develops a christocentric method that will help preachers do both simultaneously Greidanus challenges Old Testament scholars to broaden their focus and to understand the Old Testament not only in its own historical context but also in the context of the New Testament Suggesting specific steps and providing concrete examples this volume provides a practical guide for preaching Christ from the Old Testament Towards a Reformed Enlightenment Matthias Mangold, 2024-05-27

In Towards a Reformed Enlightenment Salomon van Til 1643 1713 and the Cartesio Cocceian Debates in the Early Modern Dutch Republic Matthias Mangold offers the first in depth investigation into the theological and philosophical convictions of an influential yet hitherto much neglected Dutch theologian working around the turn of the eighteenth century With its strong contextual approach this analysis of Van Til's thought sheds new light on various intellectual dynamics at the time most notably the long standing conflict between the Voetian and Cocceian factions within the Dutch Reformed Church and the reception of Cartesian philosophy in the face of emerging Radical Enlightenment ideas The Klaas Schilder Reader Klaas Schilder, 2022-05-25

Recovering a forgotten theologian Klaas Schilder 1890 1952 was a prominent Dutch Reformed theologian in the early twentieth century first as a
