Elizabeth Is Missing:

Elizabeth is Missing Emma Healey, 2014 Sunday Times Top Five Bestseller Elizabeth is Missing is the stunning smash hit debut novel from new author Emma Healey Winner of the Costa First Novel Award 2014 Shortlisted for National Book Awards Popular Fiction Book 2014 Shortlisted for National Book Awards New Writer of the Year 2014 Longlisted for the Dylan Thomas Prize 2014 Longlisted for the Baileys Prize for Women's Fiction 2015 A thrillingly assured haunting and unsettling novel I read it at a gulp Deborah Moggach author of The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel Elizabeth Is Missing will stir and shake you the most likeably unreliable of narrators real mystery at its compassionate core Emma Donoghue author of Room Resembling a version of Memento written by Alan Bennett Daily Telegraph One of those mythical beasts the book you cannot put down Jonathan Coe author of The Rotters Club Every bit as compelling as the frenzied hype suggests Gripping haunting Observer If you're after a read you can't put down then look no further New Meet Maud Maud is forgetful She makes a cup of tea and doesn't remember to drink it She goes to the shops and forgets why she went Sometimes her home is unrecognizable or her daughter Helen seems a total stranger But there's one thing Maud is sure of her friend Elizabeth is missing The note in her pocket tells her so And no matter who tells her to stop going on about it to leave it alone to shut up Maud will get to the bottom of it Because somewhere in Maud's damaged mind lies the answer to an unsolved seventy year old mystery One everyone has forgotten about Everyone except Maud 'Elizabeth is Missing'. L. De La Torre-Bueno, 1947

Whistle in the Dark Emma Healey, 2018-05-03 Jen has finally got her daughter home But why does fifteen year old Lana still feel lost When Lana goes missing for four desperate days and returns refusing to speak of what happened Jen fears the very worst She thinks she's failed as a mother that her daughter is beyond reach and that she must do something anything to bring her back The family returns to London where everyone but Jen seems happy to carry on as normal Jen's husband Hugh thinks she's going crazy and their eldest daughter Meg is tired of Lana getting all the attention But Jen knows Lana has changed and can't understand why Does the answer lie in those four missing days And how can Jen find out As gripping as Elizabeth is Missing Elle Utterly compelling Rosamund Lupton A satisfying cathartic mystery Jenny Colgan A compelling modern family drama with witty and wonderful characters Utter bliss Nina Stibbe bestselling author of Love Nina Intriguing and entertaining Observer Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ, 2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia The Publishers Weekly ,1945-03 Alzheimer's Disease in Contemporary U.S. Fiction Cristina Garrigós,2021-07-28 This volume seeks to bring readers to a deeper understanding of contemporary cultural and social configurations of Alzheimer's disease by analyzing 21st century U S novels in which the disease plays a key narrative role Via analysis of selected works Garrigós considers how the erasure of memory in a person with Alzheimer's affects our idea of the identity of that person and their sense of belonging to a group Starting out from three different types of memory individual social and cultural the study focuses on the narrative strategies that authors use to configure how the disease is perceived and represented This study is significant not only because of what the texts reveal about those with Alzheimer's but also for what they say about us about the authors and readers who are producing and consuming these texts about how we see this disease and what our attitudes to it say about contemporary U S society The Language of Literature Marcello Giovanelli,Jessica Mason,2018-01-25 Essential study guides for the future linguist The Language of Literature is a general introduction to the methods and principles behind stylistics It is suitable for advanced level students and beyond Written with input from the Cambridge English Corpus it provides students with an introduction to stylistics with texts from different genres It takes the approach that the best way to study literary texts is to focus closely on language Using short activities to help explain analysis methods this book guides students through major modern issues and concepts It summarises key concerns and findings while providing inspiration for language investigations and non examined assessments NEAs with research suggestions

American English File 3E Level 1 Workbook Christina Latham-Koenig,Clive Oxenden,Jerry Lambert,2020-07-28 American English File Second Edition retains the popular methodology developed by world renowned authors Christina Latham Koenig and Clive Oxenden language motivation opportunity With grammar vocabulary and pronunciation practice in every lesson students are equipped with a solid foundation for successful speaking Plus an array of digital resources provides even more choice and flexibility Students can learn in the classroom or on the move with Online Practice language assessment The first goal is to explore the difference between fairness and justice in language assessment The authors distinguish internal and external dimensions of the equitable and just treatment of individuals taking language tests which are used as gatekeeping devices to determine access to education and employment immigrant status citizenship and other rights The second goal is to show how the extent of test fairness can be demonstrated and improved using the tools of psychometrics in particular the models collectively known as Rasch measurement This book will have an enormous impact on the field of language assessment Using Rasch analysis models to explore and identify sources of unfairness the authors make a compelling case for fairness in the design and implementation of language assessment instruments and for justice in the interpretation and use of test results A real strength of the book is that it guides readers through analytical techniques in an accessible way Dan Douglas Professor Emeritus Applied Linguistics Program Iowa State University English File 4E Elementary Work Book without answers Christina Latham-Koenig, Clive Oxenden, Kate Chomacki, Jerry Lambert, 2020-07-28 English File s unique lively and enjoyable lessons are renowned for getting students talking In fact 90% of English File teachers we surveyed in our impact study found that the course improves students speaking skills The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives Cognitive Grammar in Contemporary Fiction Chloe Harrison, 2017-05-24 This book proposes an extension of Cognitive Grammar Langacker 1987 1991 2008 towards a cognitive discourse grammar through the unique environment that literary stylistic application offers Drawing upon contemporary research in cognitive stylistics Text World Theory deixis and mind modelling amongst others the volume scales up central Cognitive Grammar concepts such as construal grounding the reference point model and action chains in order to explore the attenuation of experience and how it is simulated in literary reading In particular it considers a range of contemporary texts by Neil Gaiman Jennifer Egan Jonathan Safran Foer Ian McEwan and Paul Auster This application builds upon previous work that adopts Cognitive Grammar for literary analysis and provides the first extended account of Cognitive Grammar in contemporary fiction

Narrative in Culture Astrid Erll, Roy Sommer, 2019-07-08 The collection showcases new research in the field of cultural and historical narratology Starting from the premise of the semantisation of narrative forms A N nning it explores the cultural situatedness and historical transformations of narrative with contributors developing new perspectives on key concepts of cultural and historical narratology such as unreliable narration and multiperspectivity The volume introduces original approaches to the study of narrative in culture highlighting its pivotal role for attention memory and resilience studies and for the imagination of crises the Anthropocene and the Post Apocalypse Addressing both fictional and non fictional narratives individual essays analyze the narrative making and unmaking of Europe Brexit and the Postcolonial Finally the collection features new research on narrative in media culture looking at the narrative logic of graphic novels picture books and newsmedia Women's Narratives of Ageing and Care Emily Jeremiah, Shirley Jordan, 2025-02-17 Care is fundamental to human survival yet it is often overlooked undermined undervalued and thought of as women's work Care of the old is particularly low in status and is too readily occluded This volume asks why and how cultures of care for older people are negatively configured It examines some of the powerful responses to relationships of intergenerational care in recent creative works by women It thereby contributes to the contemporary imperative to transform care by investigating some of the ways in which care might be redefined and reconceptualized Taking as its focus the representation or narrativization of care in theory literature visual culture and performance it engages with contemporary female authored works from diverse cultural contexts encouraging the development of comparative cross cultural perspectives Narrative is key here for it is in stories about ageing and care that the complexities and ambiguities of care relationships are made available and that simplified ideas about them are challenged This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary and cultural studies gender studies critical age studies the medical and health humanities and all who are interested in care

Poetics of Disturbances, 2024-10-28 This volume calls for a Narratology of Diversity by investigating narratives of non normative bodies and minds It explores mental health representations in literature including neurodiversity the body mind nexus and embodied non normativities therein emphasizing the importance of understanding diverse psychological conditions as represented in narratives The contributions include perspectives from a wide variety of scholars of European North American and comparative literature and culture While post classical narratology has evolved through phases of diversification and consolidation this volume represents innovation in understanding narrative development to embrace new areas of social awareness including gendered narratologies specifically feminist and queer narratologies and post colonial criticism paving the way for a more inclusive narratology Ill Met By Moonlight Mercedes Lackey, Roberta Gellis, 2005-03-01 GOD AND ELFLAND SAVE THE QUEEN Peace reigns in Elfland Incredibly King Oberon and his exquisite but willful queen Titania are at peace with one another But still the FarSeers of the Selieghe Court are uneasy They fear trouble is coming to the mortal world of England which is close to Elfhame Avalon King Henry VIII is ageing but the futures shown when the FarSeers lift the great crystal lens are unchanged The rule of the son Great Harry finally succeeded in begetting will bring gray lives and a misery of dull oppression to England Worse will come if his eldest daughter comes to the throne a queen warped by fanaticism who might easily summon the Inquisition to rule by torture and fire burning out heresy and every bright aspect of life The prize at the end of the rainbow is the possibility of a red haired queen with lion gold eyes brilliant with interest and curiosity welcoming the blossoming of art music and literature But now the last image is flickering edged in a dark menace Years before Prince Vidal had tried to seize the child Elizabeth and replace her with a simulacrum who would soon die Vidal had been wounded almost to death in the attempt but so also had Denoriel Elizabeth's principal protector Denoriel is now healing but so unbeknownst to those of the Bright Court is Vidal And when Vidal wakes to himself his determination to hurl England into a new dark age is fiercer than ever fueled by his fury over his defeat and injury Also his Dark Court feeds on human suffering and dark emotions To ensure his own power he must at all costs prevent Elizabeth from coming to the throne To gain this goal Vidal has set in motion a plan of which Denoriel and his comrades are dangerously unaware At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management
