Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1922 Kathleen G. Chapman,2019-01-21 In Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1925 Kathleen Chapman re defines Expressionism by situating it in relation to the most common type of picture in public space during the Wilhelmine twentieth century the commercial poster Focusing equally on visual material and contemporaneous debates surrounding art posters and the image in general this study reveals that conceptions of a modern image were characterized not so much by style or mode of production and distribution but by a visual rhetoric designed to communicate more directly than words As instances of such rhetoric Expressionist art and posters emerge as equally significant examples of this modern image demonstrating the interconnectedness of the aesthetic the utilitarian and the commercial in European modernism Jean Delville Brendan Cole,2014-11-10 This book is the first full length study of the art and writings of Jean Delville As a member of the younger generation that emerged during the end of the nineteenth century he was a dynamic leader of a group of avant garde artists who sought to establish a new school of Idealist Art in Belgium He was one of the most talented painters of his generation producing a vast body of works that in both scale and technical accomplishment is unsurpassed amongst his contemporaries In his extensive writings in contemporary journals and books he pursued a singular vision for the purpose of art to serve as a vehicle for social change as well as to inspire individuals to be drawn to a higher spiritual reality Delvilles thinking is heavily indebted to the hermetic and esoteric philosophy that was widely popular at the time and his paintings poetry and writings reformulate the main tenets of this tradition in a contemporary context In this regard his aesthetic and artistic goals are similar if not identical to those found in the writings and art of Kandinsky and Mondrian during the early twentieth century The Cambridge World History: Volume 7, Production, Destruction and Connection, 1750-Present, Part 2, Shared Transformations? J. Pedriali,Cristina Savettieri,2020-08-19 This book tackles cultural mobilization in the First World War as a plural process of identity formation and de formation It explores eight different settings in which individuals communities and conceptual paradigms were mobilized Taking an interdisciplinary approach it interrogates one of the most challenging facets of the history of the Great War one that keeps raising key questions on the way cultures respond to times of crisis Mobilization during the First World War was a major process of material and imaginative engagement unfolding on a military economic political and cultural level and existing identities were dramatically challenged and questioned by the whirl of discourses and representations involved Modernity and Bourgeois Life Jerrold Seigel,2012-04-12 To be modern may mean many different things but for nineteenth century Europeans modernity suggested a new form of life in which bourgeois activities people attitudes and values all played key roles Jerrold Seigel s panoramic new history offers a magisterial and highly original account of the ties between modernity and bourgeois life arguing that they can be best understood not in terms of the rise and fall of social classes but as features of a common participation in expanding and thickening networks of means that linked together distant energies and resources across economic political and cultural life Exploring the different configurations of these networks in England France and Germany he shows how their patterns gave rise to distinctive forms of modernity in each country and shaped the rhythm and nature of change across spheres as diverse as politics money and finance gender relations morality and literary artistic and musical life

Locating August Strindberg's Prose Anna Westerstahl Stenport, 2010-11-01 The setting of a novel is more than just an anonymous interchangeable backdrop In Locating August Strindberg s Prose Anna Westerstahl Stenport argues that spatial setting is a key though often neglected tool for exploring the fundamentals of European literary modernism Stenport examines the importance of location by exploring the prose of Swedish exile August Strindberg 1849 1912 challenging previous studies of the author that have focused on identity and subject formation Strindberg wrote in both Swedish and French situating his stories in various places across Europe from Berlin to the French countryside the Austrian Alps and Stockholm to purposely destabilize concepts of national belonging language and literary history Close readings of Strindberg s prose find that his boundary challenging narratives redefine and rewrite the meaning of a marginal literary identity By contextualizing Strindberg against other early modernists including Kafka Conrad Rilke and Breton Stenport emphasizes the burgeoning transnationality of literature at the turn of the last century
