Handbook of Decision Making Goktug Morcol, 2006-11-01 Handbook of Decision Making includes the wisdom of the long theological and philosophical traditions of human society as well as a systematic exploration of the implications of contemporary evolutionary theories. Common patterns in decision making styles are identified as well as the common variations that different contexts may generate. The text covers the multiplicity of mainstream decision making styles such as cost-benefit analysis and linear programming. It also explains alternative and emerging methods such as geographic information systems, Q methodology, and narrative policy analysis. Practical applications are discussed using decision making practices in budgeting, public administration and governance, drug trafficking, and information systems.

Comparative Management Studies Alan S. Gutterman, 2019-04-04 All managers regardless of where they work must understand certain basic concepts such as the functions, roles, and skills associated with the managerial position and the styles available to managers for use in any given situation. However, context matters, and it is essential that managers understand the role that culture plays in being effective in their positions. This book begins with a brief description of the history and evolution of management studies, continues with an overview of the scope and practice of comparative management studies, and provides examples of the research that has been done on cross-cultural transfer of management theories. In addition, the book includes materials on the search for and analysis of dimensions of management styles that can be used as a basis for creating models that can be used for comparison purposes. Entrepreneurship in the BRICS

Ndivhuho Tshikovihi, Fulufhelo Netswera, Ravinder Rena, 2024-10-14 Entrepreneurship is a tool of innovation promotion that supports sound economic environments as it stimulates economic growth and development. The BRICS nations, i.e., Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa, are a group of emerging countries comprising the highest developmental block of the emerging nations. It is imperative to assess the entrepreneurship policies, strategies, and promotional programmes and their implications for, among others, entrepreneurship funding, economic growth, and employment trends. The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted the entrepreneurship environment and equally steered state funding priorities away from entrepreneurship development support worldwide. This research book assesses the effect that COVID-19 has had on government funding, priority policy interventions, and resultant implications on the entrepreneurship environment, economic growth, and employment with a focus on BRICS Readers will gain insight into what entrepreneurship looks like in the BRICS context and how it has been affected by COVID 19 indicating how the BRICS nations are likely to move forward to further strengthen entrepreneurship This edited volume will be of interest to researchers academics practitioners and advanced students in the fields of entrepreneurship innovation strategy international relations multilateralism and economic development

Educational Leadership and Organizational Management Victor C.X. Wang, Bernice Bain, John Hope, Catherine A. Hansman, 2016-10-01 This book is intended for students leaders and managers who wish to explore the personal relevance and conceptual bases of educational leadership and organizational management and to develop their expertise in this field It is a book written for both scholars and practitioners The general public will also appreciate the accessible language in the book There are two goals in the experiential learning process One is to learn the specifics of a particular subject matter in this case educational leadership and organizational management The other is to learn about one's own strengths and weaknesses as a learner This book is focused on the analysis of prevalent theories and concepts and their application to the development of leadership and management skills and the knowledge and attitudes required to solve real world problems in the workplace For decades students have focused their studies of educational leadership and organizational management theories in classroom settings without actual opportunities to apply these theories in the workplace A profound and significant lesson learned in history is that we must follow the principle of integrating theory with practice unity of theory with practice Then we can follow the policy of walking on two legs an analogy made by the late Chinese chairman Mao Ze Dong

J. Smit,2007 Book CD To improve on an award winning book poses a major challenge to its authors The authors of this book took the challenge head on by conducting a major research study to determine what exactly the outcomes are that managers at different levels must deliver in contemporary organisations in South Africa and the rest of Africa The findings of this study which dealt with current and near future management issues as well as classical and contemporary thinking about management were used as the blueprint for the updating of this book After placing management in context the authors deal with the knowledge skills and dispositions required of managers to perform the management functions of planning organising leading and controlling in a volatile business world Examples of how the functions are applied in practice are cited throughout the book These examples refer mainly to South African organisations and situations that managers in South Africa and Africa have to deal with to create and sustain a competitive advantage for their organisations The book endeavours to break down the silo effect of seeing the management functions as separate activities This is done by continuously placing the management function at hand in a bigger context This enables learners of management to assess the implications of management decisions on different people processes systems and so on that make up the organisation □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□,2022-06-01 Forthcoming Books
