

Funeral Sermon

WELCOME

Psaln 23 says: "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever" (ESV).

My name is [your name], and I am one of the pastors at [church name]. On behalf of the family, I would like to welcome you as we have gathered here together today to remember [name of deceased].

Thank you for being here today. I am sure that the family recognizes that you don't have to be here. Your presence today is an affirmation of your love and support for them. Although they may not remember every word shared today, they will remember your presence here for the rest of their lives.

Jesus once said, "Let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth" (1 John 3:17-18 (ESV)). Your presence today shows your love in deed, but do not it end here today. One week, one month, one year from now this family is still going to need you.

So how do we help a family in their time of need?

When we feel powerless and don't know what to say, some of the best advice I have ever heard is three simple words that begin with the letter "H."

1. Hush. Don't feel like that you have to give the family answers for [name of deceased] death. Don't feel the pressure. There are some answers we will never receive on this side of eternity. Even if we did have a full explanation, it wouldn't bring [name of deceased] back to us or heal the pain in our hearts.
