Marcus,2023-01-03 Mr Lincoln Sits for His Portrait is a unique middle grade depiction of America's sixteenth president through the story of one famous photograph written by award winning author Leonard S Marcus On February 9 1864 Abraham Lincoln made the mile long walk from the Executive Mansion to photographer Mathew Brady's Washington DC studio to be joined there later by his ten year old son Tad With a fractious re election campaign looming that year America's first media savvy president was intent on securing another portrait that cast him in a favorable light as he prepared to make the case for himself to a nation weary of war. At least four iconic pictures were made that day. One was Lincoln in profile, the image that later found its way onto the penny; two more would be adapted for the 1928 and 2008 five dollar bills. The fourth was a dual portrait of Lincoln and Tad. The pose featuring Lincoln reading to his son was a last minute improvisation, but the image that came of it was and remains incomparably tender and enduringly powerful. Immediately after the president's murder the following year, the picture of Lincoln reading to his son became a mass produced icon, a cherished portrait of a nation's fallen leader, a disarmingly intimate record of a care worn father's feeling for his child, and a timeless comment on books as a binding force between generations.

From the author of the best selling biography Woody Allen, the most informative, revealing, and entertaining conversations from his thirty six years of interviewing the great comedian and filmmaker. For more than three decades, Woody Allen has been talking regularly and candidly with Eric Lax, and has given him singular and unfettered access to his film sets, his editing room, and his thoughts and observations. In discussions that begin in 1971 and continue into 2007, Allen discusses every facet of moviemaking through the prism of his own films and the work of directors he admires. In doing so, he reveals an artist's development over the course of his career to date, from joke writer to standup comedian to world acclaimed filmmaker. Woody talks about the seeds of his ideas and the writing of his screenplays, about casting and acting, shooting and directing, editing and scoring. He tells how he reworks screenplays even while filming them. He describes the problems he has had casting American men, and he explains why he admires the acting of, among many others, Alan Alda, Marlon Brando, Michael Caine, John Cusack, Judy Davis, Robert De Niro, Leonardo DiCaprio, Mia Farrow, Gene Hackman, Scarlett Johansson, Julie Kavner, Liam Neeson, Jack Nicholson, Charlize Theron, Tracey Ullman, Sam Waterston, and Dianne Wiest. He places Diane Keaton second only to Judy Holliday in the pantheon of great screen comediennes. He discusses his favorite films. Citizen Kane is the lone American movie on his list of sixteen best films ever made. Duck Soup and Airplane! are two of his preferred comedian's films. Trouble in Paradise and Born Yesterday among his favorite talking plot comedies. He describes himself as a boy in Brooklyn, enthralled
