The Life of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson Nellie Van de Grift Sanchez, 2019-12-03 In The Life of Mrs Robert Louis Stevenson Nellie Van de Grift Sanchez presents a nuanced biography that intricately weaves personal narrative with historical exploration. This work not only chronicles the life of Fanny Van de Grift Stevenson, the wife of the renowned author Robert Louis Stevenson, but also delves into her own achievements and struggles, highlighting the complexities of being a woman in the late 19th century. Sanchez employs a vivid literary style that combines thoughtful analysis with engaging prose, providing readers with a rich context of the social norms and expectations of their time while also capturing the spirit of adventure and creativity that characterized Stevenson's literary world. Sanchez's motivations for writing this biography stem from her own experiences as a woman writer and her fascination with the roles of women in the lives of great literary figures. As a contemporary of Fanny, Sanchez brings a unique perspective to the story, drawing on her own understanding of the societal constraints faced by women and the importance of their contributions, often overshadowed by their male counterparts. Her research paints a fuller picture of Fanny's life and her impact on her husband's literary endeavors, offering fresh insights into a partnership marked by both love and tension. This compelling biography is highly recommended for readers interested in literary history, feminist studies, and the untold stories of remarkable women. Sanchez's incisive prose, combined with her thorough research, invites readers to empathize with Fanny's journey, enriching their understanding of not just Robert Louis Stevenson's life and work but also the pivotal yet often neglected role of women in the literary canon.

Writing for Immortality Anne E. Boyd, 2010-01-01 Before the Civil War American writers such as Catharine Maria Sedgwick and Harriet Beecher Stowe had established authorship as a respectable profession for women. But though they had written some of the most popular and influential novels of the century, they accepted the taboo against female writers regarding themselves as educators and businesswomen. During and after the Civil War, some women writers began to challenge this view, seeing themselves as artists writing for themselves and for posterity. Writing for Immortality studies the lives and works of four prominent members of the first generation of American women who strived for recognition as serious literary artists: Louisa May Alcott, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Elizabeth Stoddard, and Constance Fenimore Woolson. Combining literary criticism and cultural history, Anne E. Boyd examines how these authors negotiated the masculine connotation of artist, imagining a space for themselves in the literary pantheon. Redrawing the boundaries between male and female literary spheres and between American and British literary traditions, Boyd shows how these writers rejected the didacticism of the previous generation of women writers and instead drew their inspiration from the most prominent literary writers of their day: Emerson, James Barrett, Browning, and Eliot. Placing the works and experiences of Alcott, Phelps, Stoddard, and Woolson within contemporary discussions about genius and the American artist, Boyd reaches a sobering conclusion. Although these women were encouraged by the democratic ideals implicit in such concepts, they were equally discouraged by lingering prejudices about their applicability to women.

Selected Letters of Vernon Lee, 1856 - 1935 Amanda Gagel, 2016-10-26 Vernon Lee was the pen name of Violet Paget, 1856-1935, a prolific author best known for her supernatural fiction, her support of the Aesthetic Movement, and her radical polemics. She was also an active letter writer whose correspondents include many well-known figures in fin de siècle intellectual circles across Europe. However, until now, no attempt has been made to make these letters widely available in their complete form. This multi-volume scholarly edition presents a comprehensive selection of her English, French, Italian, and German correspondence, compiled from more than 30 archives worldwide that reflect her wide variety of interests and occupations as a Woman of Letters and contributor to scholarship and political activism. Letters written in a language other than English have been expertly translated by scholars: Sophie Geoffroy from the French, Crystal Hall from the Italian, and Christa Zorn from the German. The edition focuses on those letters concerning writing, ideas, and aesthetics that influenced Lee's articles, books, and stories. Full transcriptions of some 500 letters covering the years 1856-1935 are arranged in chronological order, along with a newly written introduction that explains their context and identifies the recipients friends and colleagues mentioned Since scholarship on Lee s critical and creative output is still in the beginning stages these letters will serve a purpose to students and researchers in a number of academic fields In this first volume tracing the years 1856 1884 the assembled letters cover the beginnings of her career encompassing her first publication visits to London and encounters with some of the important artistic figures of the time As her career begins to blossom the letters also reflect the expansion of her subject matter from cultural studies and art history to novels and aesthetic philosophy Correspondents include Lee s parents Matilda and Henry Paget her brother the poet Eugene Lee Hamilton English poet Mary Robinson English authors Henrietta Jenkin and Linda Villari and Italian writers Enrico Nencioni Mario Pratesi and Angelo De Gubernatis among others
