Germaine Krull Michel Frizot:

Germaine Krull Michel Frizot, 2015 Germaine Krull 1897 1985 made a name for herself in avant garde photography in the period between the two World Wars After attending photography school in Munich she launched her career in Berlin and later worked in Paris and Monte Carlo During World War II her leftist political beliefs led her to spend time in Brazil and French Equatorial Africa and afterward she traveled to Southeast Asia and later settled in Northern India She was a remarkable artist who was a pioneer in her field particularly in regard to the development of the photographic book and photojournalism This exhibition catalogue reveals how Krull balanced her avant garde artistic vision and her active role in the media highlighting more than 150 images produced between 1924 and 1945 some of which appeared in her monographic books and others of which were produced for commercial publication This major overview of Krull's work and career sheds new light on one of the great female photographers of the 20th century Distributed for Editions Hazan Paris Exhibition Schedule Jeu de Paume Paris 06 02 15 09 27 15 Martin Gropius Bau Berlin 10 08 15 01 10 16 Realisms of the Avant-Garde Moritz Baßler, Benedikt Hjartarson, Ursula Frohne, David Ayers, Sascha Bru, 2020-09-21 The historical avant gardes defined themselves largely in terms of their relationship to various versions of realism At first glance modernism primarily seems to take a counter position against realism yet a closer investigation reveals that these relations are more complex This book is dedicated to the links between realism modernism and the avant garde in their international context from the late 19th century up to the present day A Promise Kept Marilyn Ekdahl Ravicz PhD, Germaine Krull, 2018-10-12 A Promise Kept Memoir of Tibetans in India is a collaborative work between Germaine Krull and her friend Marilyn Ekdahl Ravicz Although a great photographer Germaine was European and wrote English poorly For this reason she entrusted her memoir manuscript to Marilyn Germaine requested that Marilyn promise to edit and rewrite it for publication so others could share her experiences As promised Marilyn offers Germaine's A Promise Kept to you Enjoy reading about his holiness Sakya Trizin his family and their lives in India Share their trials adaptations and amazing social and religious rebirth as refugee Tibetans Making Strange Kim Sichel, 2020-03-17 A richly illustrated look at some of the most important photobooks of the 20th century France experienced a golden age of photobook production from the late 1920s through the 1950s Avant garde experiments in photography text design and printing within the context of a growing modernist publishing scene contributed to an outpouring of brilliantly designed books Making Strange offers a detailed examination of photobook innovation in France exploring seminal publications by Brassa Henri Cartier Bresson Robert Frank Pierre Jahan William Klein and Germaine Krull Kim Sichel argues that these books both held a mirror to their time and created an unprecedented modernist visual language Sichel provides an engaging analysis through the lens of materiality emphasizing the photobook as an object with which the viewer interacts haptically as well as visually Rich in historical context and beautifully illustrated Making Strange reasserts the role of French photobooks in the history of modern art Postcards from Absurdistan Derek

Sayer,2022-11-01 A sweeping history of a twentieth century Prague torn between fascism communism and democracy with lessons for a world again threatened by dictatorship Postcards from Absurdistan is a cultural history of Prague from 1938 when the Nazis destroyed Czechoslovakia's artistically vibrant liberal democracy to 1989 when the country's socialist regime collapsed after more than four decades of communist party rule Derek Sayer shows that Prague's twentieth century far from being a story of inexorable progress toward some end of history whether fascist communist or democratic was a tragicomedy of recurring nightmares played out in a land Czech dissidents dubbed Absurdistan Situated in the eye of the storms that shaped the modern world Prague holds up an unsettling mirror to the absurdities and dangers of our own times In a brilliant narrative Sayer weaves a vivid montage of the lives of individual Praguers poets and politicians architects and athletes journalists and filmmakers artists musicians and comedians caught up in the crosscurrents of the turbulent half century following the Nazi invasion This is the territory of the ideologist the collaborator the informer the apparatchik the dissident the outsider the torturer and the refugee not to mention the innocent bystander who is always looking the other way and Vclav Havel's greengrocer whose knowing complicity allows the show to go on Over and over Prague exposes modernity's dreamworlds of progress as confections of kitsch In a time when democracy is once again under global assault Postcards from Absurdistan is an unforgettable portrait of a city that illuminates the predicaments of the modern world Passionate

Publishers Phoebe Kornfeld,2021-08-12 Passionate Publishers traces the lives of the German Jewish refugee migr founders of the Black Star photo agency Ernest Mayer Kurt Safranski and Kurt Kornfeld whose expertise helped ignite a revolution in photojournalism The first half of the book lays the groundwork for understanding how Black Star's founders could play such a key role in photojournalism The author reconstructs their history in Germany before and during World War I and details their accomplishments in Berlin's dynamic Weimar era publishing industry The journey into exile of Safranski Mayer and Kornfeld their influence on the editors of Life the first decade of Black Star and the most notable post World War II experiences of the photo agency's founders are the focus of the second half of the book Family and governmental archives provide extensive new information about the three men and reveal harrowing investigations by J Edgar Hoover's FBI which believed Black Star's founders to be spies or agents of a foreign government The author argues that the refugee migr successfully contested the never substantiated allegations on account of their strong views relating to the freedom of the press and the malevolence of discrimination on the basis of race religion or national origin Adding Sense Mary

Kalantzis,Bill Cope,2020-05-07 Through a wide range of examples from literature to social media the book explores how meaning and communication interact The City Symphony Phenomenon Steven Jacobs,Eva Hielscher,Anthony

Kinik,2018-07-20 The 1920s and 1930s saw the rise of the city symphony an experimental film form that presented the city as protagonist instead of mere decor Combining experimental documentary and narrative practices these films were marked by a high level of abstraction reminiscent of high modernist experiments in painting and photography Moreover interwar city

symphonies presented a highly fragmented oftentimes kaleidoscopic sense of modern life and they organized their urban industrial images through rhythmic and associative montage that evoke musical structures In this comprehensive volume contributors consider the full 80 film corpus from Manhatta and Berlin Die Sinfonie der Grosstadt to lesser known cinematic explorations The Making of Visual News Thierry Gervais, Gaëlle Morel, 2020-09-23 The Making of Visual News sets out to show how photography has changed the way we read report and sell the news It investigates how photographs first became news images at the end of the nineteenth century and how magazines in the USA the UK France and Germany have put them to use ever since Drawing on a wide selection of images author Thierry Gervais in collaboration with Gaëlle Morel analyses news photographs in the context of their original presentation in print Highly illustrated the book contains 85 full colour magazine layouts and spreads offering the reader a view of how photographs were and are used in print publications including Life Picture Post the Berliner Illustrierte Zeitung and VU It examines how photographs were employed to attract new readers throughout the twentieth century arguing that photography was the main tool by which news editors sought to communicate the news and attract a broader readership Looking beyond the roles of photographer and journalist this study also highlights the contributions of picture editors and artistic directors by commissioning photographs and incorporating images into magazine layouts these figures played critical but often overlooked roles in the construction of visual news even as they crafted unique styles for their publications Charting changes in technology and reportage as well as broader social and political histories The Making of Visual News offers new insight into the history of photojournalism making this an essential resource for students and scholars of photojournalism and the history of photography media and culture A New History of Photography Michel Frizot, 1998 A collection of entries that help chronicle the history of photography explaining the different techniques that have been used and defining the common terms used in the field Germaine Krull Michel Frizot, 2015 Photographier c'est un métier Un métier d'artisan Un métier qu'on apprend qu'on fait plus ou moins bien comme tous les métiers Le photographe est un t moin Le t moin de son époque Le vrai photographe c'est le t moin de tous les jours c'est le reporter Germaine Krull 1930 City Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city

Photographs, Museums, Collections Elizabeth Edwards, Christopher Morton, 2015-05-19 The status of photographs in the history of museum collections is a complex one From its very beginnings the double capacity of photography as a tool for making a visual record on the one hand and an aesthetic form in its own right on the other has created tensions about its place in the hierarchy of museum objects While major collections of art photography have grown in status and visibility photographs not designated art are often invisible in museums Yet almost every museum has photographs as part of its ecosystem gathered as information corroboration or documentation shaping the understanding of other classes of objects and many of these collections remain uncatalogued and their significance unrecognised This volume presents a series of case studies on the historical collecting and usage of photographs in museums Using critically informed empirical investigation it explores substantive and historiographical questions such as what is the historical patterning in the way photographs have been produced collected and retained by museums How do categories of the aesthetic and evidential shape the history of collecting photographs What has been the work of photographs in museums What does an understanding of photograph collections add to our understanding of collections history more broadly What are the methodological demands of research on photograph collections The case studies cover a wide range of museums and collection types from art galleries to maritime museums national collections to local history museums and international perspectives including Cuba France Germany New Zealand South Africa and the UK Together they offer a fascinating insight into both the history of collections and collecting and into the practices and poetics of archives across a range of disciplines including the history of science museum studies archaeology and anthropology
