Care That Works A Relationship Approach To Persons With Dementia:

Care That Works Jitka M. Zgola, 1999-04-23 In her widely acclaimed Doing Things Jitka M Zgola offered practical and much needed advice for those caring for persons with Alzheimer disease Now in Care That Works Zgola shows how caregivers can better meet the demanding challenges of their job by building and improving their personal relationships with those in their care Instead of simply prescribing approaches Care That Works gives caregivers the information with which they can develop their own approaches evaluate their effectiveness and continue to grow in skill and insight Zgola explains that optimal dementia care involves three elements a good relationship between the caregiver and the person who has dementia a safe and nurturing environment and meaningful activities Evident throughout the book is Zgola's gift for compassionately portraying the difficulties faced by people with dementia and then suggesting ways to act in a manner that accords such people the respect and dignity they deserve Topics that receive special attention include communicating with persons who have language deficits and coping with problem behaviors two critical problems in dementia care

Social Work with Older People: Approaches to Person-Centred Practice Barbara Hall, Terry Scragg, 2012-03-16 This accessible book takes a unique person centred approach to working with older people and provides an introduction to the legislation policy theory and research needed by social workers The authors explore the experience of being an older person and how practitioners can work to make positive differences to older people's lives In addition the book Goes beyond the mechanistic care management approaches to social work and encourages the reader to see older people holistically Features case studies and exercises to assist readers in reflecting on their practice Examines a range of contexts and perspectives including sexuality spirituality learning disabilities Encourages wider reflection on the constraints posed by organisations employing social workers and the impact on their practice Provides an up to date exploration of safeguarding issues The authors take into account financial constraints with regard to the care of older people and the impact of a changing demography but remain upbeat and positive about the value of social work intervention Social Work with Older People is relevant for students on placement in adult services or voluntary organizations and social work practitioners working with older people
