Whither the Arctic Ocean? Guillermo Auad, Marcel Babin, David A. Balton, Eddy C. Carmack, Robert W. Corell, Dorthe Dahl-Jensen, Andrey V. Dolgov, Edel O. Elvevoll, Elizaveta Ershova, Brian D. Fath, Andrea M. Fisher, Matthias Forwick, Sam Herreid, Alf Håkon Hoel, Grete K. Hovelsrud, Henry P. Huntington, Anne Husebekk, Brendan P. Kelly, Malinda Labriola, Rolf Mjelde, Lars-Otto Reiersen, Kenneth Ruud, Gunnar Sand, Asgeir J. Sørensen, Shirley Tagalik, Andrea Tilche, Frances Ulmer, Francis K. Wiese, Eduard Zdor, 2021-05-01 Climate change in the Arctic Ocean has stirred a remarkable surge of interest and concern Study after study has revealed the astonishing speed of physical chemical ecological and economic

change throughout the expanse of the Arctic. What is more, the consequences of the changing Arctic are not restricted to the Arctic itself but affect everyone in the Northern Hemisphere ranging as they do from extreme weather to resource availability and food security with implications for politics, economics and sociology. The challenge is to comprehend the full extent and variety of these consequences and meeting this challenge will demand a multi and transdisciplinary understanding. Only by this means can we hope to map out a knowledge based ecosystem and move toward knowledge based resource management, the essential precondition for any sustainable future. In this book, leading international experts from many fields of science and across the entire pan Arctic region give their specific takes on where the Arctic Ocean is heading. All have taken care in their writing not to exclude non experts in the conviction that multi and transdisciplinarity can only be achieved when communication and outreach are not tribal in nature. The recurrent guiding theme throughout these pages is: Whether the Arctic Ocean. Taken in concert, the essays synthesize the current state of scientific knowledge to project how climate change may impact on the Arctic Ocean and the continents around it. How can and how should we prepare for the imminent future that is already lapping at the threshold of the commons? What readers will hopefully take from this multi and transdisciplinary endeavor is not the individual perspective of each contribution but the picture that emerges across the entire suite of essays. As we move into a near future that will encompass both the probable and the surprising, this book attempts to conjure the multi dimensional space in which a sustainable future must be brought into being.

Congressional-Executive Commission on China Annual Report 2015, Emerging Legal Orders in the Arctic Akiho Shibata, Leilei Zou, Nikolas Sellheim, Marzia Scopelliti, 2019-04-11. More than ever before, the changing environmental and political landscape in the Arctic requires stability and foreseeability based on resilient common norms. The emerging legal orders in the Arctic cannot be legitimately created or effectively implemented unless all relevant actors are involved. Simultaneously, it must always be based on respect for the sovereign rights of the eight Arctic states in the region as well as the tradition and cultural livelihood of the local communities. It is this delicate balance between Arctic and non Arctic interests that is the core problematique for the emerging legal orders in the Arctic. Emerging Legal Orders in the Arctic critically examines the role of non Arctic actors in this advancement of the shape and scope of the Arctic legal order. Discussing the admittance and participation of Observer states and organisations in the Arctic Council including task force meetings where new treaties are negotiated, it details the issues and successes this can result in. Setting up the context of the current legal orders in the Arctic, the book discusses Asian indigenous and European perspectives amongst others. There is a strong focus on the groundbreaking fisheries agreement of November 2017 in the Central Arctic Ocean (CAO) and the impact on both Arctic and non Arctic actors. Interests in marine living resources, scientific cooperation and the Arctic shipping regimes and governance are also thoroughly discussed from multiple perspectives. The book combines the expertise of academics and practitioners in the fields of international law and Arctic governance, uniquely focusing on Asian actors in the Arctic legal order making The resulting study is a fascinating insight into the interplay between non Arctic actors and the Arctic legal order and will be invaluable to academics in the field of Arctic and international law Career Coach Dearbhla Kelly,2015-08-06 The tools every parent needs to help their teenager find the career of their dreamsIn Ireland one in six students drop out of their chosen college course feeling disillusioned about their career path and uncertain about their future This can deal a major blow to their self esteem not to mention the financial blow to parents who are paying the tuition fees So whether you are a parent of teenagers starting secondary school or preparing to leave it makes sense to be informed about practical ways to help your child take steps towards a successful future now Most career advice in Ireland has a rather narrow focus when helping teens decide which college course to choose Career Coach is different By looking at the bigger picture who they are and what they are good at experienced and inspirational career guidance counsellor Dearbhla Kelly will empower you to help your teenager link their dreams to the reality of the world of work and reach their full potential This book will be of great help to parents who are supporting their teens to make sense of who they are and what they want to do with their life Jennifer McKenzie Director National Centre for Guidance in Education and parent to two college students
