Anthony G Reddie, Carol Troupe, 2023-07-28 What happens when go make disciples meets Black Lives Matter Arising from the Council for World Mission s Legacies of Slavery project this book offers an unapologetic exploration of Christian Mission and its history and the ways in which this legacy has unleashed notions of White supremacy systemic racism and global capitalism on the world Contributors reflect on the past and consider the future of world mission in an age of renewed understandings of empire and its impact Contributors include Mike Highton David Clough Eve Parker James Butler Cathy Ross Jione Havea Peniel Rajkumar Victoria Turner Carol Troupe Michael Jagessar Paul Weller Jill Marsh Kevin Ellis Rachel Starr Kevin Snyman Al Barrett and Ruth Harley

The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians

Timothy A. van Aarde, 2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1 3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4 6 The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission The missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4 6

Christian Mission, Contextual Theology,

Prophetic Dialogue Irvin, Dale T., Phan, Peter C., 2018-12-20 While the intent of the editors is to honor Steve Bevans SVD a towering figure in the field of missiology and a longtime author of Orbis books on missiology this book will be designed less as a festschrift than as a textbook for classroom use Designed around the three main foci of Bevans theology mission contextual theologies and dialogical theory it will appeal to teachers of courses in Christian mission theological method contextual theologies and contemporary Third World theologies The contributors are a who s who of contemporary mission studies in a global context including representatives from various Christian traditions and from throughout the global church

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, Peniel Rajkumar, 2013      Building on a Common Foundation Brian R.

Talbot, 2021-04-12 In the second half of the nineteenth century Scottish Baptists like other Evangelical Protestant denominations were focusing more on things they had in common such as a commitment to home evangelization and church planting providing a common fund to assist small and struggling congregations the provision of theological education for the training of prospective pastors together with the need to disseminate information between the churches concerning their progress in the work of the gospel From the start of this Baptist Union in 1869 the numbers of churches and members grew steadily until 1935 It was a remarkable story of dedicated Christian service Scottish Baptists came through two world wars the social revolution of the 1960s and the materialistic emphases of the 1980s with a significant degree of success in adapting their evangelistic activities to relate to their social context There is little doubt that from the late 1980s the growing secularization in this country ensured that mission strategies adopted by these Scottish Christians were less successful than in previous decades However a revitalization of its work in the early years of the twenty first century has given renewed grounds for hope for its work and witness in the coming years      Mission as Integrated Witness Jae-Suk Lee, 2021-05-25

This study aims to read Jesus's foot washing narrative missionally John 13 1-38 A missional reading is identical to a missional hermeneutics based on the literary theological interpretation of the text John uses sending language and formulae and the frame of as so throughout the whole Gospel which clarifies Jesus's and his disciples mission as integrated witness In this literary context the foot washing narrative signifies the integrated witness of Jesus and the disciples The narrative consists of two parts one Jesus's symbolic action for his death and the other for its interpretation for the disciple community Jesus's death as his unique mission results in purifying both his disciples and the world so that they might dwell in the holy union with the triune God The disciples are sent into the world Just as Jesus did so must they proclaim Jesus and his teachings Also they should bear witness to him by living Jesus's life pattern of self giving sacrificial love and humble service Their verbal proclamation as evangelism and life witness cannot be separated to testify to Jesus and their identity Finally today's Christians specifically Evangelicals are invited to participate in the Johannine mission as the integrated witness of evangelism and life witness      A Theological Assessment of Reconciliation for Missiology in the Korean Context Hyo Seok Lim, 2021-07-01 Any Christian who lives in such a broken world may ask God what their role would be as the person who is reconciled with God and about the implications of the vertical dimension of reconciliation Many would agree that the vertical and horizontal dimensions of reconciliation should not be separated It is however still necessary to examine further For instance what does the inseparableness of the two dimensions actually mean in theory and practice How does the vertical dimension of reconciliation become the source and foundation of the horizontal dimension How should the church maintain its theology of reconciliation which includes both dimensions All these questions point to an underlying question what is the relationship between the vertical and horizontal dimensions of reconciliation This book explores this question interacting with the four thinkers and practitioners of reconciliation Karl Barth Miroslav Volf Son Yang Won and Desmond Tutu and assessing the theology of a leading theologian in the discourse of mission as reconciliation Robert Schreiter Based on the discussions it presents a proposal for a more wholesome and robust understanding of reconciliation for the discourse in mission studies which can be applied to any broken context including the Korean peninsula      Edinburgh 2010 Kirsteen Kim, Andrew Anderson, 2011-12-12 Edinburgh 2010 engaged in serious study and reflection on the current state of world mission and the challenges facing all those who seek to witness Christ today This record of the conference is intended to stimulate informed and focused participation in God's mission in Christ for the world's salvation      Mission from the Perspective of the Other Tim Noble, 2018-08-30 Christian mission involves God the missionary and the other the recipient of mission This book argues for the centrality of this other in the practice of mission The other as child of God is presented not as an empty vessel waiting to be filled but as the one who draws near to the missionary Both are sent by God and together they enter into the journey towards God Drawing on Scripture contemporary missiology and phenomenology the book argues for the importance of this often neglected other and demonstrates through historical case studies involving Saint Ignatius of Loyola William Carey and Saint Innocent of Alaska that the recognition of the gift of the other has always been present in Christian mission and can continue to inspire      The Church in Mission Betril Ekstrom, 2016-06-01 What does it mean today to be a church totally committed to the gospel and fully engaged in God's mission What major religious and sociological trends in our world are affecting the role of the global church and local churches How must we understand and be prepared to face these trends How do we define church in the twenty first century being faithful to the Scriptures and at the same time relevant to a generation that does not believe in the institutional church anymore What are some good models of missional churches in different regions of the world that will encourage and inspire those who long to see a church making difference in society and in the world These are some of the issues that the book you are holding in your hands addresses There are certainly no final answers and magical forms rather we present a broad and deep discussion on how the gospel should be lived out by Jesus followers in our time and through our communities Questions are raised and analyzed both from the perspective of a local church as well as from a global and general understanding of the Christian church Some of our examples will focus more on local realities others more on global challenges The first part of the book is dedicated to a biblical and theological reflection on gospel church and mission It includes Old and New Testament studies on the theological implications of being church based on the biblical narrative The second part deals with a variety of contemporary missiological issues related to the broader theme of church and mission Different perspectives from current discussions and dialogues around the globe are included covering both ideological reflections and practical aspects of being a mission shaped church The third part presents regional and national case studies that show the enormous creativity in church planting and engagement of local communities in their own societies Models applied in the secularized Europe are contrasted to ways of functioning as church in fast growing congregations in the global South      Edinburgh 2010 Daryl Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010-08-01 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God s purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2 6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world Book jacket

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, 2012      Missional Leadership Nelus Niemandt, 2019-12-12 The purpose and aim of this book is to develop an appropriate leadership model for missional churches This implies a positioning of this book within the broader theology of mission and a consensus on the theology of the Missio Dei originating at the 1952 conference of the International Missionary Council in Willingen Germany In this approach to the theology of mission mission is understood as the work of the Trinitarian God and the church is privileged to participate in God s mission It is against this background that the growing consensus on missional ecclesiology challenges leadership models developed for a different time and a different kind of church with less or no emphasis on the missional character of the church The aim is to reflect theologically on the role of leadership in the missional church What kind of ideas about power authority and leadership are appropriate for a missional church New missional challenges demand new ideas about missional leadership Church organisation and leadership reflects a theological position there is a strong relation between ecclesiology and church organisation The nature of the church provides the framework to understand the character of the church What the church is determines what the church does The church organises what it does and agrees on rules that regulate ministries and organisation Issues such as the way the church organises and governs what it does and thus church leadership need to be answered against this background and understanding Church polity and organisation as well as leadership must reflect the identity calling life and order of the church This book therefore addresses life in the Trinity participation in the Missio Dei and contours of the missional church as the point of entry to develop leadership insights It contributes towards the development of an appropriate model of leadership for missional churches because although recent developments in the theology of mission comprehensively addressed the area of missional ecclesiology there is a gap in the development of a leadership model based on the concept of authority in the missional church      The Second Commandment Joey R.

Peyton,2024-02-07 In an increasingly broken world filled with hate and violence God's plan from the beginning was to save and restore the world to the glory for which he had created it This simple plan has not changed with the evolution of sin time or man's rejection of his creator Rather God's simple twofold plan of redemption included both a commandment to love the creator with all one's heart mind soul and strength and a commandment to love one's neighbor as one's self Neither commandment stands in isolation for one cannot fully love others without a consuming love for God and neither can one completely love God without a love for the neighbor created by God The answer to hate is love the answer to war is love the answer to violence is love and the answer to all of societal disfunction is love The answer is not a commandment to like God and others because one only likes others because of likeness Rather love is a choice A choice to love what you don't like A choice to love what you don't understand A choice to love until the God you love sets everything right in eternity      Mission

Continues Claudia Wahrisch-Oblau,Fidon Mwombeki,2010-09-01 In May 2009 thirty five theologians from Asia Africa and Europe met in Wuppertal Germany for a consultation on mission theology organized by the United Evangelical Mission Communion of Thirty five Churches in Three Continents The aim was to participate in the 100th anniversary of the Edinburgh conference through a study process and reflect on the challenges for mission in the twenty first century We decided not to invite renowned experts but to have an open invitation through a call for papers so that practicing mission experts not yet well known would have an opportunity to share their expertise We decided not to predetermine a theme or motto for the consultation but to allow various themes on mission to emerge from the papers themselves and thus to allow wide ranging discussions Indeed the papers were varied each drew strong reactions lively and even controversial debates We were able to discover common concerns transcending very different contexts The collection of papers in this book has been taken from the papers delivered at the Wuppertal consultation In some cases short responses by one or two of the consultation participants were added to highlight the discussions that followed The very varied voices collected in this anthology nevertheless have much in common Even where they are most theoretical it is obvious that all contributors come from missionary practice and bring in their contextual experiences      Holistic Mission Brian Woolnough,Wonsuk

Ma,2011-01-01 Holistic mission or integral mission implies God is concerned with the whole person the whole community body mind and spirit Many Christians concentrate only on one aspect This book reaffirms that to be true to the Bible to follow the example of Jesus the church must address the whole person in all their needs It considers the meaning of the holistic gospel how it has developed and implications for the individual Christian for the local church for denominations and church groups for missionary societies for Christian NGOs and for theological training institutions It takes a global eclectic approach with 19 writers church leaders academics and practitioners all of whom have much experience in and commitment to holistic mission It addresses critically and honestly one of the most exciting challenging and important issues facing the church today

To be part of God s plan for God s people the church must take holistic mission to the world
