chapter aims and summaries and further reading boxes throughout It covers the context for professional practice including historical perspectives policy and discussion of relevant competencies and frameworks the concept of professionalism exploring what it means to be a professional values and ethics underpinning professional practice professional identity development including formation and changes in identity professional practice in complex environments paying particular attention to working in organisations becoming a critical and globally aware practitioner the role of evidence and knowledge in professional practice working with supervision Maintaining a strong focus on the ethical dimensions of professional practice this text emphasises how health and social care practitioners can contribute to social justice and challenge social exclusion

Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community Anthony H. Goodman, 2012-05-25

Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community is a significant examination of the historical development of work with offenders and their treatment by the state and society It offers unique perspectives and a wealth of information drawn from numerous interviews with probation staff Highlights how the work of probation staff has changed over time and the reasons behind these changes Includes discourse with probation staff carried out over many years for a comprehensive insiders view of the situation Focuses on contemporary issues including the changes brought in by the Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition Written by a leading academic with extensive experience in the probation service

The Resettlement of Sex Offenders after Custody David Thompson, Terry Thomas, 2017-07-14 Sexual offending is a very contemporary issue and not least following news of historical cases of well known people and of localised grooming for sexual exploitation e g the Rotherham case The rehabilitation of all offenders from prison is currently undergoing a transformation initiated by the coalition government The position of the voluntary sector in that transformation see 2 alongside the public probation service and private sector is still being discussed Voluntary work has taken on a new significance in the age of austerity and the so called Big Society even though that term has recently fallen into some disuse Circles of Support and Accountability challenge the prevailing negative public protection agenda which just seeks to constrain offenders and offers a more positive way of working with sex offenders

Moving on From Crime and Substance Use Anne Robinson, Paula Hamilton, 2016-09-21

Desistance is a hot topic of the criminological world but while research suggests that as offenders turn their backs on crime they often change their behavior and their sense of identity we know relatively little about how this reforming or transforming of identity might be affected by gender age or ethnicity Showcasing international research from a wide range of contributors in the field this book investigates the roles played by these various diversity issues during desistance By considering similarities and differences between desisting from crime and recovering from addiction it pushes the desistance and recovery debates in novel directions offering unique insight into experiences of change and transformation among individuals who are seeking healthier and more successful futures

Mental Health and Punishments Paul Taylor, Sharon Morley, Jason Powell, 2020-06-09 How might we best manage those who have offended but have mental vulnerabilities How are risks identified managed and minimised What are ideological differences of care and control punishment and therapy negotiated in practice These questions are just some which are debated in the eleven chapters of this book Each with their focus on a given area authors raise the challenges controversies dilemmas and concerns attached to this particular context of delivering justice Taking insights on imprisonment community punishments and forensic services this book provides a broad analysis of environments But it also casts a critical light on how punishment of the mentally vulnerable sits within public attitudes and ideas policy discourses and the ways in which those seen to present as risky and dangerous are imagined Written in a clear and direct style this book serves as a valuable resource for those studying working or researching at the intersections of healthcare and criminal justice domains This book is essential reading for students and practitioners within the fields of criminology and criminal justice social work forensic psychology forensic psychiatry mental health nursing and probation

An Introduction to Penology: Punishment, Prisons and Probation Lawrence Burke, Dr Helena Gosling, 2022-11-23 An Introduction to Penology is a concise informative scholarly guide that will speak to a variety of audiences interested in how the notion of punishment plays out in community and custodial settings with people who have broken the law With a particular focus on prisons and probation the book provides an opportunity for readers to critically engage with the concept of punishment in theory and practice and consider different ways in which we as a society can respond to lawbreaking The text will allow students to pursue a more in depth study of two of the main criminal justice institutions through the lens of their organisational structures cultures service delivery and responses to the needs of minority and vulnerable groups Throughout the text students will be encouraged to critically engage with longstanding penological debates taking into consideration the theory policy and practice of punishment and will explore ways in which we can rethink penology on an individual and social level and begin to make a case for social justice rather than criminal justice This innovative and contemporary text is a must read for students studying criminology criminal justice penology and those interested in pursuing a career in either the prison or probation services Lol Burke is Professor in Criminal Justice and Dr Helena Gosling is a Senior Lecturer in Criminal Justice at Liverpool John Moores University

Delivering Rehabilitation Lol Burke, Steve Collett, 2014-12-05 Do offenders have the right to be rehabilitated and should the state be responsible for their rehabilitation Should the public expect punitive and coercive approaches to offender rehabilitation Why should the state be interested in the reform of individuals and how can helping offenders be justified when there are other disadvantaged groups in society who are unable to access the services they desperately need Finally why does the state appear to target and criminalise certain groups and individuals and not others These are just some of the questions asked in this new text which offers an analysis of the delivery of rehabilitative services to offenders over the past two decades It focuses particularly on the ideological and political imperatives of a neoliberal state that intends to segment the work of the Probation Service and hand over the majority of its work to the private sector Issues covered include governance politics and performance of probation occupational culture and professional identity markets profit and delivery partnership localism and civil society citizenship exclusion and the State This book is aimed at academics practitioners managers and leaders within the field of corrections and wider social policy It will also appeal to undergraduates and postgraduates specialising in criminal justice criminology politics and social policy

Doing Probation Work Rob C. Mawby, Anne Worrall, 2013 This book reaches beyond criminological and policy analysis and presents the first comprehensive picture of who probation workers are what motivates them and how they construct a working identity that sustains them in adverse working conditions

Women and Criminal Justice Jill Annison, Jo Brayford, John Deering, 2015-10-14 This insightful book focuses on developments since the publication in 2007 of the Corston Report into women and criminal justice While some of its recommendations were accepted by government actual policy has restricted the scale and scope of change The challenges of working with women in the current climate of change and uncertainty are also explored seeking to translate lessons from good practice to policy development and recommending future directions resulting from the coalition government's Transforming Rehabilitation plans This timely analysis engages with wide ranging considerations for policy makers providers and practitioners of services and interventions for women who offend and questions whether women should be treated differently in the criminal justice system

Foundations for Youth Justice Anne Robinson, 2014-02-28 How can youth justice refocus its attentions on the rights and perspectives of young people in transition This exciting new book outlines the state of practice now in flux within structures created by New Labour but moving in a different direction under the Coalition Government With a loosening of rules and prescription it explores opportunities for a fresh orientation that places young people at the centre and works collaboratively to nurture strengths competences and capital The chapters build a picture of the risks and problems that modern society creates for young people while acknowledging that society must respond when their behaviours legitimately cause risks and problems for others The burning question is how we do so and this book proposes a critical perspective that leads into a bold but realistic remodelling of practice It will be ideal for students of youth justice and criminal justice on foundation post qualifying or professional CPD courses

Social Work with Sex Offenders Malcolm Cowburn, Steve Myers, 2016-04-27 This topical book engages with a wide range of issues related to social work practice with people who have sexually offended It addresses the emotional impacts of facing the sex offender the importance of values and ethics in practice and reviews popular and academic understandings of sex offenders and sex crimes Its accessible style and use of practice based learning exercises will help readers to reflect on theory practice and developing emotional resilience

Youth Justice in Context Mairéad Seymour, 2013 This book offers a fresh way of considering compliance in the youth justice system drawing on examples from youth justice systems around the world and considering the social context of community based disposals for young offenders

Critical Issues in Crime and Justice: Thought, Policy, and Practice Mary Maguire, 2011 This text provides a comprehensive overview of the criminal justice and criminology curriculum through contributed essays designed to review and expand upon key areas of study The text will explore and examine theory cases laws and policies as they have been shaped by a larger social cultural and historical context Topics span the gamut of the Criminal Justice and Criminology curriculum including crime theory law enforcement jurisprudence corrections and organizations

Community Justice in Australia Brian Stout, 2020-07-16 An effective interweaving of complex theory with mainstream concepts Overall an excellent book for use in Australian universities teaching criminology social work Dr Jane Bolitho Lecturer Criminology and Social Sciences UNSW The concept of community justice of engaging with offenders within the community offers an important new approach to the prevention of crime and the rehabilitation of offenders Community Justice in Australia is the first text to consider how this concept can be successfully applied within Australia by social workers criminologists parole officers police and anyone working with both adult and youth offenders Brian Stout begins by defining community justice and outlining its successes in the United Kingdom and the United States He then explains theories of offending behaviour considers relevant Australian legislation policy and common intervention strategies and considers the implications of community justice approaches for both adult and juvenile offenders Restorative justice is also examined and contrasted The book s second half details practice issues including working in community justice organisations the use of technology and the need for community justice workers to co create long term change with their clients The importance of risk management and protection of the public is explored together with a comprehensive guide to practice skills and working with involuntary clients Each chapter also contains a detailed analysis of the implications and potential benefits of a community justice approach for culturally diverse groups and Indigenous people

The Routledge International Handbook of Life-Course Criminology Arjan Blokland, Victor van der Geest, 2017-03-16 Since its introduction in the latter half of the 1980s the meticulous study of distinct criminal career dimensions like onset frequency and crime mix has yielded a wealth of information on the way crime develops over the life span Policymakers in turn have used this information in their efforts to tailor criminal justice interventions to be both effective and efficient Life course criminology studies the ways in which the criminal career is embedded in the totality of the individual life course and seeks to clarify the causal mechanisms governing this process The Routledge International Handbook of Life Course Criminology provides an authoritative collection of international theoretical and empirical research into the way that criminal behavior develops over the life span which causal mechanisms are involved in shaping this development and to what degree criminal justice interventions are successful in redirecting offenders criminal trajectories Drawing upon qualitative and quantitative research this handbook covers theory describes and compares criminal career patterns across different countries tests current explanations of criminal development and using cutting edge methods assesses the intended and unintended effects of formal interventions This book is the first of its kind to offer a comprehensive overview of state of the art developments in criminal career and life course research providing unique perspectives and exclusive local knowledge from over 50 international scholars This book is an ideal companion for teachers and researchers engaged in the field of developmental and life course criminology     Risk Assessment of Youth who Have Sexually Abused David S. Prescott, 2005-11
