Inventing the California Look Philip E. Meza, 2025-09-23 The influential rooms of Elkins Taylor Dickinson and other great talents as photographed by Fred Lyon represent the innovation and splendor of postwar Northern California interiors which continue to inspire the work of designers today From the 1940s to the 1980s some of the best residences in Northern California were decorated by a coterie of designers whose names were once recognized only by the cognoscenti of interior design From Frances Elkins and Tony Hail with their aristocratic aesthetics to Michael Taylor and John Dickinson with their bold fantasies these designers created revolutionary settings that were idiomatic of their time and place fresh luxurious spaces complementing the various terrains and lifestyles of the northern part of the state Fred Lyon b 1924 is perhaps the only photographer who knew and documented the work of this talented group Akin to what Julius Shulman was doing in Southern California Lyon worked closely with the designers and magazine editors to help shape the look for posterity In the years following the work of these giants most of the spaces they created are gone or vastly changed replaced by different tastes and new styles Now re appreciated for their artistry we can relive this exciting era through Lyon s superb photography

New York Magazine ,1979-02-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman,Elyssa Yoneda,2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design They are the people historical and contemporary that students and practitioners should know Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty first centuries The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide The seventeenth and eighteenth century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole The nineteenth century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler The early twentieth century section presents modernism s design heroes including Marcel Breuer Eileen Gray and Gilbert Rohde The post World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history The book also contains less well known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel the British art deco furniture designer Paul Veyseyre the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai the Italian Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters Global in its coverage the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs

Designing Interior Architecture Sylvia Leydecker,2013-05-28 Designing interior spaces is a task that is equally relevant as architecture landscape architecture and urban design for those working professionally in the built environment In this comprehensive work an international and interdisciplinary team of authors presents the essential aspects of the various fields of contemporary interior architecture and design The project examples are illustrated with brilliant photographs and plans They have been selected according to consistent criteria for all chapters of the book and represent the essential building types including exhibition stand design as well as a broad range of today s design approaches The authors place the collaboration between the various design disciplines at the center of focus The appendix contains information for further research All in all Designing Interior Architecture is a fundamental reference work for all those professionally engaged with the design

Interior Design in 20th-century America C. Ray Smith,1987 Interior Design in 20th Century America is the first book to be concerned exclusively with interior design in this century The opening chapter outlines the foundations of twentieth century interior design as received from the legacies of the past The main body of the book relates the history of interior design from 1900 to the 1980s decade by decade Book Preface

A Dark, a Light, a Bright Alexa Griffith Winton,Susan Brown,2023-01-01 The first major publication devoted to weaver and designer Dorothy Liebes reinstating her as one of the most influential American designers of the twentieth century At the time of her death Dorothy Liebes 1897 1972 was called the greatest modern weaver and the mother of the twentieth century palette As a weaver she developed a distinctive combination of unusual materials lavish textures and brilliant colors that came to be known as the Liebes Look Yet despite her prolific career and recognition during her lifetime Liebes is today considerably less well known than the men with whom she often collaborated including Frank Lloyd Wright Henry Dreyfuss and Edward Durrell Stone Her legacy also suffered due to the inability of the black and white photography of the period to represent her richly colored and textured works Extensively researched and illustrated with full color accurate reproductions this important publication examines Liebes s widespread impact on twentieth century design Essays explore major milestones of her career including her close collaborations with major interior designers and architects to create custom textiles the innovative and experimental design studio where she explored new and unusual materials her use of fabrics to enhance interior lighting and her collaborations with fashion designers including Clare Potter and Bonnie Cashin Ultimately this book reinstates Liebes at the pinnacle of modern textile design alongside such recognized figures as Anni Albers and Florence Knoll Published in association with Cooper Hewitt Smithsonian Design Museum Exhibition Schedule Cooper Hewitt Smithsonian Design Museum July 7 2023 February 4 2024

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates from back cover      Classic Country Estates of Lake Forest Kim Coventry, Daniel Meyer, Arthur H. Miller, 2003 On Lake Michigan's North Shore an extraordinary group of cosmopolitan and wealthy clients commissioned havens from the city's bustle during the Gilded Age      Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role

Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05-01 From ancient Greece to Frank Lloyd Wright's studio to smoking rooms chimney boards to cocktail cabinets and papier mâché to tubular steel the Encyclopedia of Interior Design provides a history of interior decoration and design from ancient times to the present day It includes more than 500 illustrated entries covering a variety of subjects ranging from the work of the foremost designers to the origins and function of principal rooms and furnishing types as well as surveys of interior design by period and nationality all prepared by an international team of experts in the field Entries on individuals include a biography a chronological list of principal works or career summary a primary and secondary bibliography and a signed critical essay of 800 to 1500 words on the individual's work in interior design The style and topic entries contain an identifying headnote a guide to main collections a list of secondary sources and a signed critical essay      Alexa Hampton: The Language of Interior Design Alexa Hampton, 2010-10-05 At an early age Alexa Hampton learned the language of good design the vocabulary to speak it and the elements that define it As the daughter of interior design legend Mark Hampton she traveled the world by her father's side touring the great architectural landmarks and discovering beauty training her eye Now one of America's most influential designers herself Alexa Hampton provides a tour of stunning residences from her own portfolio Eighteen classic spaces illustrate in rich detail the elements that govern cultivated design contrast proportion color and balance Among the residences are a landmark 1912 McKim Mead an eclectic house by the sea layered in textures patterns and colors a contemporary apartment distinguished by simple geometry and clean lines and Hampton's own apartment filled with an exquisite collection of architectural elements Hampton also explains how she tailored each space to meet her clients' needs while retaining a timeless aesthetic and she provides design expertise on everything from fabric schemes to the particulars of paint From a French neoclassical tour de force of architecture artwork and design to a Queen Anne summer cottage furnished to showcase the house's graceful nineteenth century dimensions the spaces here speak the language of design a language that under Hampton's tutelage anyone can master
