Francesca Woodman Being Angel

Claire Raymond

Francesca Woodman Being Angel:

Francesca Woodman Anna Tellgren, 2015 On Being an Angel takes its title from a caption the artist inscribed on two of her photographs self portraits with her head thrust back and her chest thrust forward Typical of Woodman's work in the way they cast the female body as simultaneously physical and immaterial these photographs and the evocative title they share are apt choices to encapsulate the work of an artist whose legacy has been unavoidably colored by her tragic personal biography and her death at age 22 by suicide In less than a decade Woodman produced a fascinating body of work in black and white and in color exploring gender representation sexuality and the body through the photographing of her own body and those of her friends Since her death Woodman's influence continues to grow her work has been the subject of numerous in depth studies and exhibitions in recent years and her photographs have inspired artists all over the world Published to accompany a travelling exhibition of Woodman's work Francesca Woodman On Being an Angel offers a comprehensive overview of Woodman's oeuvre organized chronologically with texts by Anna Tellgren Anna Karin Palm and the artist's father George Woodman Francesca Woodman 1958-81 was born in Denver Colorado to an artistic family and began experimenting with photography as a teenager In 1975 she attended the Rhode Island School of Design and in 1979 she moved to New York to attempt to build a career in photography Woodman's working career was intense but brief cut short by her death in 1981

Francesca Woodman and the Kantian Sublime Claire Raymond, 2017-07-05 In her feminist inquiry into aesthetics and the sublime Claire Raymond reinterprets the work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958-1981 Placing Woodman in a lineage of women artists beginning with nineteenth century photographers Julia Margaret Cameron and Clementina Viscountess Hawarden Raymond compels a reconsideration of Woodman's achievement in light of the gender dynamics of the sublime Raymond argues that Woodman's photographs of decrepit architecture allegorically depict the dissolution of the frame a dissolution Derrida links to theories of the sublime in Kant's Critique of Judgement Woodman's self portraits Raymond contends test the parameters of the gaze a reading that departs from the many analyses of Woodman's work that emphasize her dramatic biography Woodman is here revealed as a conceptually sophisticated artist whose deployment of allegory and allusion engages a broader debate about Enlightenment aesthetics and the sublime Basics

Francesca Woodman's Dark Gaze Claire Raymond,2016-05-20 Focusing on the later work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958 1981 Claire Raymond takes up the question of the disintegrative condition of the art she produced in the last year of her life Departing from the techniques of her earlier compositions Woodman worked in the diazotype process for many of these late pieces most importantly the monumental Blueprint for a Temple Raymond shows that through her use of diazotype a medium that breaks down when exposed to light Woodman created art that is both supremely evocative aesthetically and inherently unstable physically Woodman Raymond contends was imaginatively responding to the end of the durable image a historical reality acknowledged in the way her work plays the ephemeral and evanescent against the monumental and enduring Raymond focuses on the theoretical and the curatorial issues surrounding Woodman s diazotypes a thematic and practical distress that haunts much of her later art especially the artist s book and photo series Some Disordered Interior Geometries and Portrait of a Reputation Rather than conceiving of Woodman herself as fragile an artist chronicling and seeming to yearn for her own disappearance Raymond juxtaposes Woodman s career spanning documentation of her own image against other post war witnesses of trauma an artist standing in the museum ruins where she emerges most distinctly as a figure of postmodernity Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire

Raymond, 2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender The Hysteric Eleanor Bowen, Laura

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Silent Voices 2006 Ex Machina Press, LLC,2006 Unfolding the Cards Ian Damerell,2015-03-03 These essays attempt to confront the effect of years of postmodernity and its promotion of individuality at the cost of solidarity and communal spirit In the wake of this it suggests possible frameworks for an art study that restores a certain focus on communal spirit It proposes too that art study s fragile position in contemporary society is a consequence of over commercialisation and its resultant surface values Consumerist and corporate ideology encourage the consumer individual s self realisation seemingly divorced from communal interests Within this isolation lies the potential breakdown of ethics Therefore I dream of a kinder society i e one where we are engaged in realising the community as its citizens This is not blind obedience but in a spirit of contributing to a whole society More specifically it means allowing and to a degree maintaining art study as a sphere of possibilities for budding citizen artists It is envisaging art study as a discursive arena and creating an academic space that allows for art s main contribution the dislodging of the so called proper i e entrenched doctrine I believe that art study can contribute to the improving of society in the main because art enacts a different sharing of the sensible Unflux Timothy Shea,2000 The Errant Thread Elline Lipkin,2006 Through the use of nuanced observation rich language and original voice Elline Lipkin explores contemporary womanhood the concerns of travel cross cultural themes and family legacy Emulating the feminist themes of Adrienne Rich the steely resolve of Sylvia Plath and the feeling for loss and spliced cultural heritage that Eavan Boland expresses this work serves as the next link in a lineage of women poets In poems such as Response to Miss Havisham and Ars Poetica With Lines by Dickinson the poet responds to her foremothers within the world of literature Yet in poems such as Rara Avis and At the Corner of Sunset and Morningside she places herself uniquely within her own landscape at her own desk and in her own voice Other poems such as My Parents Meet at La Grande Place or My Grandfather s Last Bird connect language and family as a fractured heritage one that has allowed for a split of words a splice of vows as the poet writes in Sweet Asylum and one that has led to this original and accomplished new book Bachelors Rosalind E. Krauss,2000-08-25 These essays on nine women artists are framed by the question born of feminism What evaluative criteria can be applied to women s art Since the 1970s Rosalind Krauss has been exploring the art of painters sculptors and photographers examining the intersection of these artists concerns with the major currents of postwar visual culture the question of the commodity the status of the subject issues of representation and abstraction and the viability of individual media These essays on nine women artists are framed by the question born of feminism What evaluative criteria can be applied to women s art In the case of surrealism in particular some have claimed that surrealist women artists must either redraw the lines of their practice or participate in the movement's misogyny Krauss resists that claim for these bachelors are artists whose expressive strategies challenge the very ideals of unity and mastery identified with masculinist aesthetics Some of this work such as the part object Louise Bourgeois or the formless Cindy Sherman could be said to find its power in strategies associated with such concepts as critique feminine In the work of Agnes Martin Eva Hesse or Sherrie Levine one can make the case that the power of the work can be revealed only by recourse to another type of logic altogether Bachelors attempts to do justice to these and other artists Claude Cahun Dora Maar Louise Lawler Francesca Woodman in the terms their works demand A história da arte sem os homens Katy
