Foundations Of Theological Study A Sourcebook:

Foundations of Theological Study Richard Viladesau, Mark Stephen Massa, 1991 This is a collection of readings in theology classical and contemporary intended for college level students It covers the major themes of an introductory course in theology the experience of the sacred the notion of God Revelation Jesus Christ and the Christian life A Mission for Justice Mary A. Ward, 2002 Founded in 1930 as the result of efforts by several black Catholic laywomen Queen of Angels was the first African American Catholic congregation in Newark New Jersey The church quickly embarked on an outreach campaign that endured for decades and affected the entire Newark community black and white Catholic and Protestant By the 1960 s many people looked to Queen of Angels as a model of social and civil rights activism In A Mission for Justice Mary Ward places Queen of Angels within its broader historical religious and social context and explores the church s struggle for justice within the Catholic Church and in society as a whole The reach of Queen of Angels extended far beyond its own membership For example while riots erupted in other cities across the country after the murder of Martin Luther King Jr Queen of Angels played an instrumental role in organizing the Walk for Understanding a peaceful march of twenty five thousand blacks and whites through the heart of the inner city That event and the ethos that inspired it gave birth to the New Community Corporation the largest nonprofit housing corporation in the country led by former Queen of Angels priest William Linder Today Queen of Angels is one of several African American Catholic parishes in Newark and its mission is now more pastoral than activist But the church continues as a home to various community based programs working to improve the lives of Newark s residents Based on nine years of research A Mission for Justice draws on oral histories of parishioners pastors nuns and layworkers at Queen of Angels as well as on documents from various private collections Ward s study will be valuable reading for those interested in African American and church history as well as the history of social activism and the Civil Rights Movement The Author Mary A Ward is an adjunct professor of religion at Fordham University Theology within the Bounds of Language Garth L. Hallett, 2012-01-02 In this wide ranging work Garth L Hallett offers a guided tour through fundamental issues regarding the use of language in theology His preliminary discussions on language and thought language and truth the authority of language making sense the relationship between sense and possibility prepare linguistic reflection on such topics as inference and argument universal factual and moral claims defining and saying what things are verbal versus nonverbal agreement and disagreement interfaith dialogue theological language and metaphor Hallett employs a wealth of distinctly Christian examples in these considerations including love faith God religion the Eucharist the afterlife divine law evil the Incarnation the Trinity the holy and many others In the course of this fascinating exploration readers should learn to find their way more surely in a vast complex terrain and mystery will emerge both diminished and deepened In addition at the end of each chapter Hallett provides a series of intriguing quotations that invite further reflection

Theodicy and Justice in Modern Islamic Thought Mr Ibrahim M Abu-Rabi, 2013-06-28 This book explores the theology and philosophy of the distinguished modern Muslim scholar and theologian Bediuzzaman Said Nursi d 1960 Nursi wrote in both Ottoman Turkish and Arabic and his life and thought reflected the transition of modern Turkey from an empire to a secular republic The contributors to this volume shed new light on two major dimensions of Nursi s thought theodicy and justice Classical Muslim theologians debated these two important issues however we must consider the modern debate of these issues in the context of the radical political and social transformations of modern Turkey Nursi explored these matters as they related to the development of state and society and the crisis of Islam in the modern secular nation state Nursi is the founder of a faith movement in contemporary Turkey with millions of followers worldwide In this book distinguished scholars in Islamic Middle Eastern and Turkish Studies explore Nursi s thought on theodicy and justice in comparison with a number of western philosophers theologians and men of letters such as Dante Merton Kant and Moltman This book presents an invaluable resource for studies in comparative religion philosophy and Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies
