International Arbitration and the Permanent Court of Arbitration Manuel Indlekofer,2013-08-01 The modern tendency to restrict international arbitration to matters of commerce and investment is succumbing to a renewed recognition of the original impetus for dispute resolution by arbitration i e matters of public international law most importantly the settlement of disputes that pose a threat of international conflict Recent developments suggest a renaissance of public international arbitration most clearly manifested in the present flourishing of the Permanent Court of Arbitration PCA the oldest existing dispute settlement institution in international law As the calls for the development of new and more appropriate methods for dispute settlement in international law increased during the 1990s the PCA undertook a structural reform and is today a vital forum for dispute settlement with scores of arbitrations currently pending under its auspices This book the most comprehensive study of the institution to date covering its history its present status and its future prospects proves the PCA s contemporary relevance within the international dispute settlement framework Among aspects of the PCA s work covered are the following how public international arbitration functions in comparison to other means available for dispute settlement in international law the PCA s historical contributions to the current dispute settlement framework arbitrations between a state and a non state actor that are in whole or in part governed by public international law the fields in which public international arbitration plays a revived role the PCA s present day institutional framework and its current activities the prospects for public international arbitration and the PCA in the dispute settlement framework of the twenty first century and proposals to increase the PCA s activities in future and to sustain and enhance the institution s ongoing revitalization A very useful Practitioner s Guide provides an overview of the PCA s various services and the best means of accessing them along with a summary of the key provisions of the new PCA Arbitration Rules 2012 For lawyers who are involved in dispute resolution proceedings there can be little doubt about the PCA s relevance This book is at once an academic work indispensable for scholars of the institution and a practical guide that will be a required addition to the libraries of counsel arbitrators and others involved in dispute resolution proceedings conducted at the PCA

Patriotism to the Earth Richard A. Falk, 2025-04-15 This book of essays is preoccupied with the contrast between prevailing loyalty to the sovereign state patriotism and an emergent alternative of loyalty to the species and its natural habitat Such an orientation toward ecological patriotism focuses on conditions of human survival ecological stability and cosmological awareness in the Age of the Anthropocene It is a patriotism guided by empirical and normative assessments regarding the deficiencies of the existing world order and its inability to provide the biological economic political ecological cultural ethical and spiritual foundations for the future viability of life on earth Falk s assessment rests on a growing inability of existing policies practices and problem solving arrangements to protect and promote the global national and local public goods on the increasing marginalization of international law global ethics internationalism and spiritual imperatives on a prevailing anachronistic nationalism and related conceptions of national self interest on the unsustainable market driven and state centric world order reinforced by the non accountability of Great Powers on a vital but currently weak disempowered and disoriented UN on a potentially fatal identification of military capabilities arms sales and policing with the pursuit of security as well as for the fulfillment of the extra territorial ambitions of a few rival states and alliances These deficiencies imperil humanity as never before in world history not only the viability of sovereign states regions or localities but the entirety of human experience and overall ecological sustainability Against such a background the most immediate challenge is to create sufficient political traction to overcome settled ideas special interests and habitual ways of acting This does not now seem possible despite the urgency of the situation Empirical indicators suggest strong trends that on balance are reinforcing and accentuating the deficiencies rather than their moving toward their correction Confronting such a reality is not meant to be taken as a recipe for despair On the contrary it is meant to ground prospects for a hopeful future in the realities of our time which presuppose learning to respect the limiting conditions of the carrying capacity of the earth As such it is calling for a politics of impossibility an engagement at all levels of social order with the struggle for a future that exceeds the bounds of perceived feasibility yet from the vantage point of humane global governance that constitutes necessity and equity warranting struggle for the various futures needed and desired by the peoples of the world There are of course no assurances of success but we do know that current modes of sleepwalking into the future do not offer solutions and rather reflect a collective species death wish as the failure to respond in time and scale amounts to a virtual death warrant for many species and their habitats including the human We have always lived amid uncertainty with respect to our own life and death but now we are also challenged by the precarious mortality of the species and planet earth It seems the worst of times but it may yet just possibly become the best of times The inclusion of law ethics and spirituality acknowledge that the values prevailing in civic culture and among the peoples of the world are an essential element of the transformative vision of patriotism being proposed The challenge is not just functional It is a matter of how we choose to live together on the earth what relationships to its resources and limitations are developed and of whether people can be mobilized in ways that overcome obstacles posed by entrenched special interests and civilizational habits deeply embedded in social consciousness The chapters that comprise this book seek to be both down to earth that is grounded in the realities of the present and yet animated by and rooted in a spiritual and cosmopolitan imaginary of what lies ahead It hopes for a reinvention of nationalism by reference to the sky above and land below that is by cosmic cycles of being and by the intimacies of local existence

War, Peace, and Security Jacques Fontanel,Manas Chatterji,2008-10-13 In the name of international and domestic security billions of dollars are wasted on unproductive military spending in both developed and developing countries when millions are starving and living without basic human needs This book contains articles relating to military spending military industrial establishments and peace keeping The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Roman World Greg

Woolf,2003-11-03 From its mythical foundation in 753 BC to its sack in the fifth century AD the city of Rome had an impact on the world that it would be hard to overestimate At its height the empire which it built up stretched from northern Britain to the deserts of Arabia In this new history an international team of historians archaeologists and classicists presents a vision of the world s most famous imperial power based on the most up to date research and discoveries Chapters and box features present gripping accounts of Roman history and literature and deal with themes ranging from medicine to warfare They are supported by a rich set of illustrations of sites monuments and works of art from across the Empire Read together these build up a fascinating picture of a civilization permeated by its imperial role and of the colossal costs as well as the gains of empire seemed to mark a period of relative rest. However, it became apparent that we have not reached the end of history. As a matter of fact, the world is confronted by new political constellations of so far unknown martial intensity. Although Muslim terrorism and the revival of tribalism and nationalism are closely connected, at the same time the international community proves mostly powerless as a result of the cooling relationship between East and West. These developments offer challenging questions for Western societies. Both in Germany and in the Anglo Saxon world, debates on the concepts of Just Peace and Just War have intensified, but mutual engagement between these contexts has remained scarce. Against this background, a conference was held in Apeldoorn in a Dutch interspace in 2016 in which ethicists from both contexts were involved. The present volume contains the edited version of the seven contributions to this conference, supplemented with four articles by others that were written deliberately for this volume.

Die Debatte Gerechter Frieden, Gerechter Krieg: Zwei Diskussionen oder eine Nach dem Ende des Kalten Krieges hatte es den Anschein, als breche eine Friedensperiode an. Leider hat sich inzwischen gezeigt, dass wir nicht ans Ende der Geschichte gelangt sind. Vielmehr sieht sich die Welt am Beginn des 21. Jahrhunderts mit neuen politischen Konstellationen ungekannter kriegerischer Intensität konfrontiert. Dabei haben islamistischer Terror und das Wiederaufleben von Tribalismus und Nationalismus zusammen hinzu kommt, dass das Ost-West-Verhältnis sich zunehmend verschlechtert, wodurch die Machtinstrumente der internationalen Gemeinschaft kraftlos geworden sind. Diese Entwicklungen stellen herausfordernde Fragen an die westlichen Gesellschaften. Sowohl in Deutschland als auch in der angelsächsischen Welt ist die Debatte über die Themen Gerechter Frieden, Gerechter Krieg neu aufgebrochen, aber sie findet weitgehend getrennt voneinander statt. Vor diesem Hintergrund hat 2016 in Apeldoorn im niederländischen Zwischenraum eine Konferenz stattgefunden, an der Ethiker aus beiden Kontexten beteiligt waren. Dieser Band dokumentiert deren sieben Vorträge ergänzt um vier Aufsätze, die speziell für diesen Band geschrieben wurden. Mit Beiträgen von Ted van Baarda, Nigel Biggar, Jan Peter van Bruggen, Ad de Bruijne, Guido de Graaff, Gerard den Hertog, Marco Hofheinz, Wolfgang Lienemann, Hans Ulrich, Pieter Vos, Greetje Witte Rang.

Track Two Diplomacy in Theory and Practice Peter Jones, 2015-09-02 Jones provides a nuanced perspective on both the promise and limits of this unheralded form of unofficial diplomacy. Stephen J. Del Rosso, Director, International Peace and Security, Carnegie Corporation of New York. Track Two diplomacy consists of informal dialogues among actors such as academics, religious leaders, retired senior officials, and NGO officials that can bring new ideas and new relationships to the official process of diplomacy. Sadly, those involved in official diplomacy often have little understanding of and appreciation for the complex and nuanced role that Track Two can play or for its limitations. And many Track Two practitioners are often unaware of the realities and pressures of the policy and diplomatic worlds and not particularly adept at framing their efforts to make them accessible to hard-pressed officials. At the same time, those interested in the academic study of Track Two sometimes fail to understand the realities faced by either set of practitioners. A need therefore exists for a work to bridge the divides between these constituencies and between the different types of Track Two practice and this book crosses disciplines and traditions in order to do just that It explores the various dimensions and guises of Track Two the theory and practice of how they work and how both practitioners and academics could more profitably assess Track Two Overall it provides a comprehensive picture of the range of activities pursued under this title to provoke new thinking about how these activities relate to each other to official diplomacy and to academe This book will be a classic that defines the field of Track Two diplomacy an exemplary work Esra Cuhadar Bilkent University Agenda for North-east India B.
