Communities, Development, and Sustainability across Canada John T. Pierce, Ann Dale, 2011-11-01 What is a sustainable community The pressing need to answer this simple question is what prompted John Pierce and Ann Dale to gather the essays in this volume Communities Development and Sustainability across Canada is a timely synthesis of work on how Canadian communities can achieve sustainable development It bridges the gap between theory and praxis and brings together academics policy makers and community activists all of whom have argued for increased local participation in sustainable community development Communities have become the weak link in efforts to refashion relations between the environment and the economy The goal of this book is not simply to describe problems but also to suggest answers not simply to offer theory but also to promote action so that Canadian communities can better achieve sustainable development The twelve essays are organized into four sections Vision Connections Action and Assessing Progress The first and last sections discuss local sustainable development within the context of increasing globalization The second section approaches sustainable development from the perspective of social evolution and urban systems The third section the heart of the book is comprised of three community case studies an assessment of the Pacific salmon fishery and four general discussions of sustainable development The conclusion reiterates the need to make communities stronger links in sustainable development The message of Communities Development and Sustainability across Canada is clear it is time for communities themselves to act if they are to achieve sustainable development This provocative and persuasive book will prove to be a valuable guide to taking the first steps

Wetlands of the World I: Inventory, Ecology and Management Dennis F. Whigham, D. Dykyjová, S. Hejný, 2013-03-09 The impetus for this volume was the 2nd International Wetlands Conference which was held in June 1984 at Trebon Czechoslovakia An overview of the worlds wetlands was one of the themes of the conference and it was decided that a useful follow up would be a publication on the same topic The initial goal was to cover as many of the worlds wetlands as possible in one volume and to have an emphasis on wetland ecology biota classification and management Individuals who made presentations at the Trebon conference were asked to prepare chapters and the editors also solicited other contributions For a variety of reasons the initial goal has been difficult to reach especially coverage of the entire globe and it has been necessary to publish the contributions in more than one volume Volume 1 represents the completion of the first phase of the project and it covers most of the Western Hemisphere Australia most of Africa the Indian subcontinent the Mediterranean region and Papua New Guinea Volume 2 will contain chapters on Western Europe Northern Europe Central Europe most of northern and It is our hope that Volume western Asia the Middle East and Indonesia 2 will appear in the near future and if possible a third volume will be published if authors can be secured to cover areas such as the Far East other parts of the Indo Pacific region and New Zealand

Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health Marina Morrow, Lorraine Halinka Malcoe, 2017-01-01 An exceptional showcase of interdisciplinary research Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health presents various critical theories methodologies and methods for transforming mental health research and fostering socially just mental health practices Marina Morrow and Lorraine Halinka Malcoe have assembled an array of international scholars activists and practitioners whose work exposes and disrupts the dominant neoliberal and individualist practices found in contemporary mental research policy and practice The contributors employ a variety of methodologies including intersectional decolonizing indigenous feminist post structural transgender queer and critical realist approaches in order to interrogate the manifestation of power relations in mental health systems and its impact on people with mental distress Additionally the contributors enable the reader to reimagine systems and supports designed from the bottom up in which the people most affected have decision making authority over their formations Critical Inquiries for Social Justice in Mental Health demonstrates why and how theory matters for knowledge production policy and practice in mental health and it creates new imaginings of decolonized and democratized mental health systems of abundant community centred supports and of a world where human differences are affirmed

Unnatural Law David R. Boyd, 2011-11-01 While governments assert that Canada is a world leader in sustainability Unnatural Law provides extensive evidence to refute this claim A comprehensive assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of Canadian environmental law the book provides a balanced critical examination of Canada's record focusing on laws and policies intended to protect water air land and biodiversity Three decades of environmental laws have produced progress in a number of important areas such as ozone depletion protected areas and some kinds of air and water pollution However Canada's overall record remains poor In this vital and timely study David Boyd explores the reasons why some laws and policies foster progress while others fail He ultimately concludes that the root cause of environmental degradation in industrialized nations is excessive consumption of resources Unnatural Law outlines the innovative changes in laws and policies that Canada must implement in order to respond to the ecological imperative of living within the Earth's limits The struggle for a sustainable future is one of the most daunting challenges facing humanity in the 21st century Everyone academics lawyers students policy makers and concerned citizens interested in the health of the Canadian and global environments will find Unnatural Law an invaluable source of information and insight For more information on Unnatural Law visit David Boyd's site www.unnaturallaw.com Resources in Education, 1998 This Elusive Land Melody Hessing, Rebecca Raglon, Catriona Sandilands, 2005 This Elusive Land provides an introduction to the literature about women and the environment in Canada It looks at the ways in which women integrate the social and biophysical settings of their lives and features a range of contexts in which gender mediates inspires and informs a sense of belonging to and in this land Drawing from geographical historical and cultural perspectives the volume reveals the significance of women's experiences in various landscapes Jacket Canadian Books in Print, 2000 Alternative Media in Canada Kirsten Kozolanka, Patricia Mazepa, David Skinner, 2012-04-01 Alternative media hold the promise of building public awareness and action against the constraints and limitations of media conglomeration and cutbacks to public broadcasting But what exactly makes alternative media alternative This path breaking volume gets to the heart of this question by focusing on the three interconnected dimensions that define alternative media in Canada structure participation and activism The contributors reveal not only how various kinds of alternative media including indigenous anarchist ethnic and feminist media are enabled and constrained within Canada's complex policy environment but also how in the context of globalization the Canadian experience parallels media and policy challenges in other nations Canada and the United States David M.

Thomas, Christopher Sands, 2023-06-26 Canada and the United States explains across fifteen diverse areas why and how Canada and the United States are still so different The book discusses whether or not these differences are growing the key results of such differences and the major challenges to be faced in each system Focusing on institutions political cultures and social values the book shows how both federal systems are extremely complex and how our institutions cultures and historical experiences often lead to very different outcomes The fifth edition discusses the emergence of vital new issues including the pandemic and its effects climate change energy requirements increasing international tensions and new trade problems This book also reviews massive budgetary changes new forms of protest emerging in Canada and an ongoing political crisis in the US instigated by a former president convincing millions that the 2020 election was a hoax Written by leading scholars in their field Canada and the United States reveals how the two countries compare when dealing with similar problems that often spill across the border
