à ce stade de la nuit

Lampedusa. Une nuit d'octobre 2013, une femme entend à la radio ce nom aux résonances multiples. Il fait rejaillir en elle la figure de Burt Lancaster — héros du Guépard de Visconti et du Swimmer de Frank Perry — puis, comme par ressac, la fin de règne de l'aristocratie sicilienne en écho à ce drame méditerranéen : le naufrage d'un bateau de migrants.

Écrit à la première personne, cet intense récit sonde un nom propre et ravive, dans son sillage, un imaginaire traversé de films aimés, de paysages familiers, de lectures nomades, d'écrits antérieurs. Lampedusa, île de littérature et de cinéma devenue l'épicentre d'une tragédie humaine. De l'inhospitalité européenne aussi.

Entre méditation nocturne et art poétique À ce stade de la nuit est un jalon majeur dans le parcours littéraire de Maylis de Kerangal.

Maylis de Kerangal est l'auteure de cinq romans aux Éditions Verticales, dont Corniche Kennedy (2008), Naissance d'un pont (prix Médicis 2010 et prix Franz Hessel) et Réparer les vivants (2014, élu par une dizaine de prix littéraires), ainsi que des récits Ni fleurs ni couronnes (« Minimales », 2006) et Tangente vers l'est (« Minimales », 2012 ; prix Landerneau).

Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory Oana Panaïté, 2022-06-15 Contemporary literature gathers in a commemorative site the remains of history and its own story by erecting literary tombs Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory argues that current narratives of the aftermath enable writers to honour the past while casting off its burdensome legacy and to dismantle while reassembling affective political and aesthetic communities The genre is defined and discussed in relation to other literary forms such as trauma writing historical novels archival narratives biofiction or field literature Necrofiction fulfils in distinct ways the social and artistic function of an individual or collective act of remembrance of a lost family member or a historical figure At the same time it offers a creative space in which the authors can overcome the burden of literary tradition by incorporating existing models and devices into their own poetic art while as demonstrated by the works of five writers whose personal and artistic trajectories transcend political cultural and linguistic frontiers Linda Lévi-Patrick Modiano Assia Djebar Patrick Chamoiseau and Maylis de Kerangal By examining the ways in which fiction both reflects and resists what Achille Mbembe has defined as necropolitics Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory delves into the contentious yet intimate relationship between singular models of literary remembrance and the frameworks of hegemonic discourses

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen,2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism's heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture. But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act? In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained. Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it's a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real. Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology. Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it's upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism. Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild. From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life. While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature. With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives. Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion. For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited. Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK Refugees' Europe Cristina Astier,Ander Errasti,2021-05-20 Refugees Europe Towards an Inclusive Democracy addresses through the normative practical and political views of well known international experts the challenges that the so called refugee crisis has generated for democracy in Europe The management of the refugees crisis reflects the crisis of democracy in Europe The refugees phenomenon has had a huge impact on European integration from the local to the supranational scale making it a pressing matter for the future of democracy in Europe This book provides a myriad of critical evidence based expertise combining philosophical legal economic and political reflections on how to better understand and deal with the refugees case

Sinno, 2024-09-04 Entre l'autobiografia i l'assaig un text poderós similitud voltatge literari sobre l'abús sexual a menors Aquesta és la història d'una dona que de petita va patir abusos per part del seu padastre i que reflexiona sobre el sentit de l'experiència que li va tocar viure. Sap que mai entendrà realment què va passar i així tot continua buscant amb la distància pacificadora dels anys per amb la memòria intacta. Pensarà com la lluita d'un samurai contra un monstre i per lluitar contra els monstres del passat i els que apareixen en el moment de ser mare. Aquesta dona utilitza les armes amb què s'ha format les armes de la literatura. Trist tigre és una aventura del pensament que ens proposacompanyar la narradora en els seus plantejaments al voltant de la violència sexual del mal del trauma del silenci per també de les maneres possibles de ser un adult protector de la llibertat de la veritat del relat. Com explicar una història inexplicable? Com escoltar una història que ningú vol escoltar? Què fer amb això que és terriblement greu i alhora perfectament normal? Trist tigre no és un llibre, és una bomba, una petita bomba artesanal que detona a casa en la intimitat de la lectura. Té la intensitat i la fragilitat de les coses concebudes en solitud i amb força. També la boja i riscula ambició que tot salti pels aires.

Flüchtlinge: Opfer - Bedrohung - Helden
Heidrun Friese, 2017-07-15 Wie die Macht der sprachlichen Bilder die gesellschaftspolitischen Debatten prägt wird in der aktuellen Diskussion über die Flüchtenden die Schutz in Europa suchen so deutlich wie selten Heidrun Friese geht den kontroversen gesellschaftlichen Imaginationen von den Geflüchteten nach. Die Figur des Fremden als Bedrohung artikuliert den Rassismus des Populismus und legitimiert Sicherheitspolitiken. Humanitäres religiöses ethisches Handeln hingegen fasst Geflüchtete als Opfer die der Hilfe bedürfen. In einer dritten Perspektive wird das berschreiten von Grenzen zum heroischen Akt stilisiert und antikapitalistischen Kampfen eingeschrieben. Der Essay interveniert in diesen Schlussdiskurs der Einwanderungsgesellschaft und setzt diesen imaginierten Figuren des Fremden die den Flüchtenden auf jede verschiedene Weise eine eigene Subjektivität absprechen ein anderes Bild entgegen.
