★ Man in the Sunflower Dress - w4m - 23 (chicago)

You were on the southbound Red line last Wednesday. I was late for class, so I was fidgeting in my seat and checking the time on the train's display every stop, and there you were at Clark and Division.

Your eyes were so vividly blue when they flicked over the train, searching for a seat— so light-that-glances-off-the-lake blue, that they must have been contacts, and they went so well with your sunflower print sundress that I felt my breath stutter and catch. I bet you change your eyes to emphasize your clothes: green for fall days and gray in winter when your wardrobe turns black to mourn the decline of the sun. But its spring now, and you opened up, so the roving eye could take in your broad shoulders, your muscular calves. A white jacket over the dress, a pair of yellow Chucks, and your beard adroitly trimmed, and you smiled, a small secret quirk of the lips, as you stared at your phone.

You got off at Lake, and I didn't care if I was late anymore.

Craigslist Chicago Missed Connections:

Missed Connections 1-3 Jeffe Kennedy, 2018-02-01 The first three books of the Missed Connections romance series now combined into a single volume Last Dance It was five minutes His hand on the small of her back His eyes watching like there was no one else in the crowded club His body a breath away from hers A kiss full of heat and need and promise But then the stranger disappears And Charlotte Emory can't forget him Worse according to the dating Rules she and her four best friends swear by all she can do is post an ad online No names no numbers Just a missed connection and the hope he'll meet her and see where another dance leads Except Mr Mystery has his game too and he isn't playing for only one night He tempts Charley into a daring exploration of power lust and suspense where even the most innocent requests sound indecent and the indecent ones make her burn all night If she plays by the Rules they'll never get past teasing each other But rules were made to be broken With a Prince The guy on the train is just Marcia's type A face like an angel a scent like raw honey treats her like he has a white horse and suit of armor stowed in his messenger bag Perfect Too perfect No guy like that would be interested in prim awkward Marcia notorious goody goody and a twentysomething still clutching her v card She's been following rules her whole life but somewhere the game changed And left her behind So when she meets Damien with his rumbling motorbike gleaming piercings and wicked imagination she doesn't care that he's the exact opposite of her type Her type would never dare her into such shocking fiendishly inventive adventures and she can't wait to say yes Yes to whiskey in the middle of a workday Yes to letting her hands roam over his body from the back of his bike Yes to a fling full of wild abandon and absolutely no long term potential Except Damien's not just the straightforward bad boy she imagined And as they burn through Chicago's nights Marcia can't shake the fear that this happiness is just another fairy tale Since Last Christmas This Christmas Amy is getting what she wants Her career in fashion design is taking off Her boyfriend Brad is the dictionary definition of a catch Soon he'll buy the massive diamond that makes it official she's nobody's hard luck case anymore Her old friend Jon ought to understand A decade ago he was the other scholarship kid with a crap family He got her quirks her insecurities her rules her passions Now he swears she's not really happy and she's forgotten something that proves it When Amy throws away everything she's worked for with one impulsive impossible word she's horrified she's proved Jon right and strangely secretly excited That he knows more than the past she wants to forget he knows what heats her up what makes her heart race But remembering what she's forgotten since last Christmas might mean breaking all the rules

Craigslist Susan M. Freese, 2011-01-01 Examines the life of Craig Newmark and the company he founded
Getting Naked Harlan Cohen, 2012-04-24 A guide to navigating a dating life for love and happiness outlines a five step approach based on the most commonly asked questions from the author's syndicated advice column
An Internet for the People Jessa Lingel, 2022-06-14 How craigslist champions openness democracy and other vanishing principles of the early web Begun by Craig Newmark as an e mail to some friends about cool events happening around San

San Francisco Craigslist is now the leading classifieds service on the planet. It is also a throwback to the early internet. The website has barely seen an upgrade since it launched in 1996. There are no banner ads. The company doesn't profit off your data. An Internet for the People explores how people use Craigslist to buy and sell, find work and find love, and reveals why Craigslist is becoming a lonely outpost in an increasingly corporatized web. Drawing on interviews with Craigslist insiders and ordinary users, Jessa Lingel looks at the site's history and values, showing how it has mostly stayed the same while the web around it has become more commercial and far less open. She examines Craigslist's legal history, describing the company's courtroom battles over issues of freedom of expression and data privacy, and explains the importance of locality in the social relationships fostered by the site. More than an online garage sale, job board, or dating site, Craigslist holds vital lessons for the rest of the web. It is a website that values user privacy over profits, ease of use over slick design, and an ethos of the early web that might just hold the key to a more open, transparent, and democratic internet. Marina Girl Heather Joy

Hampton, 2011-04-29 Olivia Michaels knew she was embarking on an adventure when she moved to San Francisco, but she had no idea her address would label her a social pariah, commonly referred to as a Marina girl. The Marina girl is a stereotype of a preppy, generic young woman who lives in the tiny neighborhood known as the Marina. You need to know about the history of the Marina to understand how and why the Marina girl developed into the albatross of San Francisco. After the 1906 earthquake, the city pushed all the ashes and rubble north down the steep hills of Pacific Heights, creating a landfill adjacent to a former pasture that later became the Cow Hollow neighborhood. Hundreds of Mediterranean-style homes were constructed in the 1920s on land that jiggled better than Bill Cosby's Jell-O when the 1989 earthquake hit. Most of the longtime residents moved away, leaving yuppie youngsters, perhaps less aware of their own mortality, to take over the neighborhood. Twenty years later, the Marina is the playground for San Francisco's worst nightmare, otherwise known as the Marina girl. The Indie Cred Test Henry H. Owings, 2012-09-04

An obsessively completist checklist of cool, covering lifestyle, fashion, music, movies, body art, and more. The Indie Cred Test is the ultimate test of hipness. Sixteen chapters and countless sidebars cover musicians, authors, hipsters, hippies, miniature toy poodles, and everything in between. Part pop culture quiz, part satire, part handbook of all things cool, this fun and fascinating book is The Official Preppy Handbook meets The Hipster Handbook, plus massive amounts of what else indie cred. Readers can put their indie cred to the test by answering such questions and prompts as: Explain McSweeney's. Is a bike your primary form of transportation? Is there any kind of T-shirt that can't be worn ironically? Has Courtney Love ever taken a swing at you? Doors Open on the Left: An
