Delphi Michael Scott, 2015-10-20 Annotation This work engages with the complex archaeological development of the religious sanctuaries of Delphi and Olympia It investigates the physical remains of both sanctuaries to show how different visitors interacted with the sacred spaces of Delphi and Olympia in an important variety of ways during the archaic and classical periods

Delphi (eGalley) Michael Scott, Power of the Priests Sabine Kubisch, Hilmar Klinkott, 2023-12-31 Religion plays a central role in nearly every aspect in people's life of most pre modern cultures Especially the interconnection between religion and politics is a common fact but the details of this relation and interacting processes behind this are not substantially studied Therefore this volume does not aim to confirm the linkage of religion and politics in general but to investigate its functionalities in political processes A focus is placed on the political role of religious personnel beyond their religious and cultic tasks and their influence in pre modern societies from a cross cultural perspective Specialists from various disciplines present their research based on case studies Thereby this interdisciplinary volume covers a wide geographical and chronological range from ancient Egypt in the Bronze Age until medieval England These papers are organised according to core functions questioning the instrumentalisation of religious personnel

The Intellectual Property of Nations Laura R. Ford, 2021-05-20 Drawing on macro historical sociological theories this book traces the development of intellectual property as a new type of legal property in the modern nation state system In its current form intellectual property is considered part of an infrastructure of state power that incentivizes innovation creativity and scientific development all engines of economic growth To show how this infrastructure of power emerged Laura Ford follows macro historical social theorists including Michael Mann and Max Weber back to antiquity revealing that legal instruments very similar to modern intellectual property have existed for a long time and have also been deployed for similar purposes Using comparative and historical evidence this groundbreaking work reflects on the role of intellectual property in our contemporary political communities and societies on the close relationship between law and religion and on the extent to which law's obliging force depends on ancient written traditions

The Making of the Doric Temple Gabriel Zuchtriegel, 2023-04-20 In this volume Gabriel Zuchtriegel revisits the idea of Doric architecture as the paradigm of architectural and artistic evolutionism Bringing together old and new archaeological data some for the first time he posits that Doric architecture has little to do with a wood to stone evolution Rather he argues it originated in tandem with a disruptive shift in urbanism land use and colonization in Archaic Greece Zuchtriegel presents momentous architectural change as part of a broader transformation that involved religion politics economics and philosophy As Greek elites colonized explored and mapped the Mediterranean they sought a new home for the gods in the changing landscapes of the sixth century BC Greek world Doric architecture provided an answer to this challenge as becomes evident from parallel developments in architecture art land division urban planning athletics warfare and cosmology Building on recent developments in geography gender and postcolonial studies this volume offers a radically new interpretation of architecture and society in Archaic Greece Eos CVI (2019), fasc. 2 Jakub Pigoń, Krzysztof Nawotka, A Cultural Encyclopedia of Lost Cities and Civilizations Michael Shally-Jensen, Anthony Vivian, 2022-11-11 A stimulating volume for readers interested in lost cultures or climate change's role in the past and present Library Journal This volume explores the span of human history and plenty of prehistory searching out prominent and fascinating examples of cities or broader civilizations that shifted from a position of influence to a lack thereof The accelerating threat of climate change challenges us to analyze our own communities relationships with the wider world and to contemplate their very existence This single volume cultural encyclopedia examines lost cities and civilizations from every region of the globe and dated throughout human history Arranged alphabetically the compilation allows both students and general readers easy access to detailed entries on specific lost cities and civilizations Throughout the geographically and chronologically diverse entries such themes as colonization migration and especially climate change are developed and analyzed Supplementing the main entries are sidebars detailing mythological cities and Investigative Boxes examining present day cities on the brink of extinction These round out the book's focus on disappearing cultural centers and reveal the robust relevance this material has to a world facing the crisis of climate change Plutarch on Literature, Graeco-Roman Religion, Jews and Christians Frederick E. Brenk, 2023-05-08 The present book includes sixteen studies by Professor Frederick E Brenk on Plutarch on Literature Graeco Roman Religion Jews and Christians Of them thirteen were published earlier in different venues and three appear here for the first time Written between 2009 and 2022 these studies not only provide an excellent example of Professor Brenk's incisiveness and deep knowledge of Plutarch they also provide an excellent overview of Plutarchan studies of the last years on a variety of themes Indeed one of the most salient characteristics of Brenk's scholarship is his constant interaction and conversation with the most recent scholarly literature On the Blissful Islands with Nietzsche & Jung Paul Bishop, 2016-11-03 What are the blissful islands And where are they This book takes as its starting point the chapter called On the Blissful Islands in Part Two of Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra and its enigmatic conclusion The beauty of the Superman came to me as a shadow From this remarkable and powerful passage it disengages the Nietzschean idea of the Superman and the Jungian notion of the shadow moving these concepts into a new interdisciplinary direction In particular On the Blissful Islands seeks to develop the kind of interpretative approach that Jung himself employed Its chief topics are classical the motif of the blissful islands psychological the shadow and philosophical the homo or superman blended together to produce a rich intellectual historical discussion By bringing context and depth to a nexus of highly problematic concepts it offers something new to the specialist and the general reader alike So this book considers the significance of the statue in the culture of antiquity and in alchemy and investigates the associated notion of self sculpting as a form of existential exercise This Neoplatonic theme is pursued in relation to a poem by Schiller at the centre of which lies the notion of self sculpting thus highlighting Nietzsche's and Jung's relationship to Idealism. Its conclusion directly addresses the vexed and controversial question of Nietzsche's relation to Plato. This book's main ambition is to provide a cross-cultural interdisciplinary reading of key themes and motifs using Jungian ideas in general and Jung's vast seminar on Zarathustra in particular to uncover a dimension of deep meaning in key passages in Nietzsche. Engaging the reader directly on major existential questions, it aims to be an original thought-provoking contribution to the history of ideas and to show that Zarathustra was right: There still are blissful islands. This book will be stimulating reading for analytical psychologists including those in training and academics and scholars of Jungian studies, Nietzsche, and the history of ideas.

Commemorating Classical Battles Brandon Braun, 2023-07-15 This is a study of the commemoration of Classical Greek battles approaching monuments and other mnemonic practices as vital elements in the creation and curation of memories. It analyzes the diachronic development of battlefield sanctuary and city spaces as evidenced by archaeological remains and ancient literary sources. In addition, it explores the experience of the commemorative spaces through the application of theories of space phenomenology and social memory. Following a biographical approach, the commemoration of each battle is organized into stages of initial commemoration, official monumentalization, memory curation, memory lapse, and reception. The research has led to several conclusions. While the commemoration of each battle can be divided into stages, these stages are not always discrete. There is variation in the types of commemorations within the stages dependent on time, surrounding space, and the parties involved. Single commemorations can resonate differently with multiple audiences. The processes within the stage of memory curation lead to the subsequent lapse. The final stage of commemoration for each battle begins with the rediscovery of ancient monuments and continues to this day. The battles of Marathon, Leuktra, and Chaironeia are case studies for three reasons. First, they effectively span the period of Classical Greece, Marathon in 490 BCE to Chaironeia in 338 BCE. Secondly, these battles had different participants, thus allowing a variety of perspectives of both the victorious and the defeated. Lastly, these were battles that left lasting impacts in the material and literary record, making their commemoration relevant not only in antiquity but also in the modern world.
