Democracy Education And Multiculturalism Dilemmas Of Citizenship In A Global World:

Democracy, Education, and Multiculturalism Carlos Alberto Torres, 1998-10-29 This important book looks at developments that are changing our understanding of the role of education in citizenship and the possibilities of democratic participation The first chapter reviews theories of citizenship and education based on the classical contributions to political theory of C B MacPherson and T H Marshall The second chapter challenges educators to think more politically about education It is based on a seminal analysis that shows the role education plays in the liberal neoliberal and neoconservative state incorporating critical perspectives from neo Marxism postmodernism and feminism In chapter three Professor Torres analyzes the transition from the welfare state to the neoliberal state including the role of international organizations in promoting educational reform and privatization policies In the concluding chapter Torres draws on Hobbes Locke Jefferson Kant Hegel Marx and other writers such as C Mouffe and C Pateman to outline contemporary approaches to multiculturalism in education and citizenship

Citizenship and Education in Liberal-Democratic Societies Kevin McDonough, Walter Feinberg, 2003-08-28 The essays in this volume address the educational issues which arise when national sub national and supra national identities compete How can we determine the limits of parental educational rights when the concern of liberalism to protect and promote children s autonomy conflicts with the desire to maintain communal integrity Given the advances made by the forces of globalization can the liberal democratic state morally justify its traditional purpose of forging a cohesive national identity Or has increasing globalization rendered this educational aim obsolete and morally corrupt Should liberal education instead seek to foster a sense of global citizenship even if doing so would suppress patriotic identification In addressing these and many other questions the volume examines the theoretical and practical issues at stake between nationalists multiculturalists and cosmopolitans in the field of education The fifteen essays plus an introductory essay by the editors provide a genuine productive dialogue between political and legal philosophers and educational theorists

The Educational Challenge of Cultural Diversity in the International Context Christos Govaris, Stavroula Kaldi (ed.), 2010 The book contributes to the promotion of intercultural scientific discourse concerning the issue of managing the worldwide common challenge of cultural diversity in different education systems Considering the diversity in the school student population as an educational challenge the aim of this volume is to present theoretical and research works associated to the scientific discourse about intercultural education and its importance to education on a national level and to the educational policies regarding school integration of pupils with immigrant background in different education systems The examples about the effective management of diversity of student population on a national level and the open scientific questions that are presented can contribute to broaden our perspective regarding the width both of dimensions of this educational challenge and of the possibilities to manage the diversity of student population effectively

Ecopedagogy Greg William Misiaszek, 2020-10-15 To stop the downward spiral of intensifying environmental violence that inevitably leads to social violence we as humans need to better understand what is at stake and to determine how to make changes at the root levels Ecopedagogy is centered on understanding the struggles of and connections between human acts of environmental and social violence Greg W Misiasek argues that ecopedagogies grounded in critical Freirean pedagogies construct learning that leads to human actions geared towards increased social and environmental justice and planetary sustainability Throughout the book he discusses the need for teaching reading and researching through problematizing the causes of socio environmental violence including oppressive processes of globalization and constructs of development economics and citizenship to name a few that emerge from socio historical oppressions e g colonialization racism patriarchy neoliberalism xenophobia epistemicide and dominance over the rest of nature Misiasek concludes with ecopedagogies challenges within the current post truth era and possibilities of reimagining UNESCO s Sustainable Development Goals SDGs

Global Constructions of Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, Joy L. Lei, 2001-06-01 This book tells us how various global regions are dealing with three major concerns within the field of multicultural education the conceptualization and realization of difference and diversity the inclusion and exclusion of social groups within a definition of multicultural education and the effects of power on relations between and among groups identified under the multicultural education umbrella All of the chapter authors pay attention to these themes but at the same time they bring their particular interests and perspectives to the book addressing issues such as linguistic racial ethnic and religious diversity class educational inequalities teacher education conceptualizations of citizenship and questions of identity construction In addition the authors offer both historical and social contexts for their analytical discussion of the ideals and practices of multicultural education in a particular region This is not a book that tells us about multicultural education with an international twist it provides readers with different ways to think talk and do research about issues of diversity difference and the effects of power as they relate to education
