Demystifying Diversity Daralys Lyons, 2020 It can be difficult to find reliable information that amplifies the voices and the viewpoints of those who have direct experience dealing with diversity, equity, and inclusion. In Demystifying Diversity: Embracing our Shared Humanity, biracial journalist Daralys Lyons has interviewed more than 100 individuals, academics, politicians, thought leaders, advocates, activists, and even an incarcerated inmate, and reveals her most important information and insights. By engaging with this text, you will find areas of human intersection and connection that challenge your biases and break down your barriers. Through empathy and understanding, we can create a more inclusive world. The work of any reconciliation along the lines of the basis of identity requires vulnerability, a vulnerability that we are told is not of value to the American way of being. Paul Reese, Master of Divinity, Yale Divinity School, Exposure and practice prepare people for unpredictable racial moments. Dr. Howard Stevenson, director, Racial Empowerment Collaborative, "We are siblings in humanity. No one has superiority over another except by their character." Nihad Awad, executive director and co-founder of the Council on American Islamic Relations, "In the present and correcting the ills of the past, our public policy needs to always move towards equity. If we can do that, I think as a society, we're going to get better." Senator Sharif Street, third senatorial district of Philadelphia. Demystifying the Big House Katherine A. Foss, 2018-07-06 Essays in this volume illustrate how shows such as Orange Is the New Black and Oz impact the public's perception of crime rates, the criminal justice system, and imprisonment. Contributors look at prison wives on reality television, series portrayals of death row breastfeeding while in prison, transgender prisoners, and black masculinity. They also examine the ways in which media messages ignore an individual's struggle against an all too frequently biased system and instead dehumanize the incarcerated as violent and overwhelmingly masculine Together these essays argue media reform is necessary for penal reform proposing that more accurate media representations of prison life could improve public support for programs dealing with poverty abuse and drug addiction factors that increase the likelihood of criminal activity and incarceration Scholars from cultural and critical studies feminist studies queer studies African American studies media studies sociology and psychology offer critical analysis of media depictions of prison bridging the media s portrayals of incarcerated lives with actual experiences and bringing to light forgotten voices in prison narratives
