

11th Grade ELA CCGPS Frameworks – Unit 2

Framework Title

The Individual versus Society

Grade Level

11

Course

American Literature

Approximate Duration

7-9 weeks

Overview of the unit

The purpose of this unit is for students to study and comprehend the birth of the American identity following the Revolutionary War. Students will investigate a variety of texts from America's Romantic period to study the efforts of authors to capture the search for self that is just as alive in modern times. In order to show the modern day relevance, students will study modern texts that uphold these Romantic beliefs to fully synthesize the importance of individuality in America's past and present cultures.

Standards

Learning targets

- Students analyze the historical and societal influence evidence in American texts.
