Virginia State Documents ,1994 Fleet Owner ,1990 Libros españoles en venta, ISBN ,1998 Spaniards, Planters, and Slaves Gilbert C. Din,1999 Spaniards Planters and Slaves is a provocative look at the institution of slavery and how it functioned as a part of Louisiana s culture during the years of Spanish rule Gilbert C Din challenges the idea that conditions under the Spaniards differed little from the years of French rule and examines how local culture merged with colonial government and residual laws to create a slave system unlike any other in the Deep South Din presents many aspects of the slavery issue including a look at the French system conflicts between planters who favored the established system and governors who promoted the less stringent Spanish laws and the political favoritism that sought to benefit the wealthy New Orleans district Din also discusses the role of the Catholic Church and debates the commonly held idea that the church s influence made Spanish slavery less brutal asserting instead that its role in most areas was insignificant and largely observational Using government documents from archives in Spain and Louisiana Din paints a historically accurate portrait of a time when the blended culture of the eighteenth century colony resulted in conflict and turmoil Most important are the Papeles Procedentes de la Isla de Cuba a collection of colonial documents that illustrate not only the actions but also the personalities of the governors and how they implemented changes and handled problems within the slave system Spaniards Planters and Slaves is the first in its field to capture the years of Spanish rule as a specific and unique point in Louisiana s history of slavery Din s research uncovers both the complexities of the slavery issue and the Spanish heritage that ultimately helped to shape the slave system of the future state It is an ideal study for anyone interested in the history of both colonial Louisiana and slavery itself Manual de bibliografía de la literatura española José Simón Díaz,1966
