Craigslist Chicago Guns:

Unforgiving Places Jens Ludwig, 2025-04-21 What if everything we understood about gun violence was wrong In 2007 economist Jens Ludwig moved to the South Side of Chicago to research two big questions Why does gun violence happen and is there anything we can do about it Almost two decades later the answers aren't what he expected Unforgiving Places is Ludwig's revelatory portrait of gun violence in America's most famously maligned city Disproving the popular narrative that shootings are the calculated acts of malicious or desperate people Ludwig shows how most shootings actually grow out of a more fleeting source interpersonal conflict especially arguments By examining why some arguments turn tragic while others don't Ludwig shows gun violence to be more circumstantial and more solvable than our traditional approaches lead us to believe Drawing on decades of research and Ludwig's immersive fieldwork in Chicago including countless hours spent in schools parks playgrounds housing developments courtrooms jails police stations police cars and lots and lots of McDonald's Unforgiving Places is a breakthrough work at the cutting edge of behavioral economics As Ludwig shows progress on gun violence doesn't require America to solve every other social problem first it only requires that we find ways to intervene in the places and the ten minute windows where human behaviors predictably go haywire

Craigslist Confessional Helena Dea Bala, 2020-07-07 Touching The New York Times For fans of Humans of New York and PostSecret a collection of raw urgent and heartfelt stories shared anonymously Helena Dea Bala was an exhausted and isolated DC lobbyist suffocating under the weight of her student loan debt when she decided to split her lunch with a man who often panhandled near her office They chatted effortlessly as they ate there were no half truths or white lies and no fear of judgment Helena felt connected and unburdened in a way she hadn't in years Inspired she posted an ad on Craigslist promising to listen anonymously and for free to whatever the speaker felt he or she couldn't tell anyone else Emails from people desperate to connect flooded her inbox and she listened Within months Helena quit her job deferred her loans and dove into listening full time The forty first person confessions in this book are vivid intimate and real they range from devastating traumas to lost loves to reflections on hard choices Some accounts are quotidian like that of one increasingly estranged husband I want to feel that we're not just roommates that we're not just waiting for the kids to grow up so that we can move on Others are deeply disconcerting like that of a sex addict employed by a religious organization and several are heartening like that of a mother who dares to hope that her daughter born with life threatening heart defects will one day walk down the aisle Sometimes you need to have the audacity to believe that it will all be okay that it is okay to have the same kinds of dreams as everyone else In its complex portrayal of the common human experience Craigslist Confessional challenges us to explore the depths of our vulnerability and expand the borders of our empathy

Saving the Streets of Chicago But God, His Story in the lives of Reverend Roosevelt, Mary Matthews, 2023-12-05 This is the story of Reverend Roosevelt Matthews and his beloved wife Mary whose work saved many in one of the poorest and most dangerous neighborhoods on Chicago's West Side But as

Roosevelt emphasizes it's not his story but God's story. In 1952, Roosevelt and Mary came to Chicago from Rolling Fork, Mississippi, as part of the Great Migration of six million Southern Blacks. Shortly after they married, Mary became a sixth-grade Chicago Public School teacher at Faraday Elementary, where she taught for thirty years. With his teaching degree and certificate in hand, Roosevelt headed out to the Chicago Board of Education to be assigned the school he would teach in. But God had other ideas. As he walked down his front steps, he heard gunshots and saw troubled youth where gangs and drugs were prevalent. He suddenly came to an abrupt halt, struck with the Lord's call to help these young people. Forgoing a career as a schoolteacher, Roosevelt founded the Albany Youth Center and Albany Baptist Church, which he and Mary ran for the next forty-five years. As one youth center attendee stated, "The gangs in the area did not bother the kids who attended the youth center. They respected the efforts of Reverend Matthews and his wife to make the life of those kids better." With the violence and racism in our country today, the work of Roosevelt and Mary is a big part of the solution. This book documents the "But God" moments where the Lord provided their needs. But God when Roosevelt went to buy a defunct factory as a place to put his youth center's outdoor basketball court, the owner looked him in the face and said, "I'd rather burn the factory down than sell it to an N word." A few months later, Dr. King was assassinated, and in the resulting riots, the factory was burned to the ground. The factory then became property of the City of Chicago and sold to Roosevelt for a much lower price. But God, teaching interracial friendship by living in each other's homes, Roosevelt established the Friendship Outreach program between white churches and Albany Baptist Church in 1972. White children came to live with Black families on Chicago's West Side, and vice versa. In 2018, one of the original exchange students from Minnesota returned to Albany Church with her own children, continuing this wonderful long-term friendship. But God, Mary got the smooth transition; she prayed for after being diagnosed with ovarian cancer. She never suffered from the ravages of the disease. Looking as beautiful as ever, she played piano in church just three days before she passed from her beloved Roosevelt's loving arms to God's kingdom. But God, as Roosevelt said, "The Lord directed such fine people to help us along the way." One was Mother Vera Stephens, who taught Roosevelt and Mary child evangelism. Vera later felt the call to go to Liberia, where she established the Bethesda Christian Mission School, that is still inspiring the lives of many children today. In 2011, Mother Stephens was posthumously honored for her work by both the president and vice president of Liberia. But God, while Mary and Roosevelt were not able to have biological children, many former pupils, attributing much of their success to Mom and Dad, still call, send letters, and emails. Several have become Bible teachers and ministers themselves, while others include a college president and a corporate executive.

An Internet for the People Jessa Lingel, 2022-06-14. How Craigslist champions openness, democracy, and other vanishing principles of the early web. Begun by Craig Newmark as an e-mail to some friends about cool events happening around San Francisco, Craigslist is now the leading classifieds service on the planet. It is also a throwback to the early internet. The website has barely seen an upgrade since it launched in 1996. There are no banner ads. The company doesn't profit off your data An Internet for the People explores how people use craigslist to buy and sell find work and find love and reveals why craigslist is becoming a lonely outpost in an increasingly corporatized web Drawing on interviews with craigslist insiders and ordinary users Jessa Lingel looks at the site s history and values showing how it has mostly stayed the same while the web around it has become more commercial and far less open She examines craigslist s legal history describing the company s courtroom battles over issues of freedom of expression and data privacy and explains the importance of locality in the social relationships fostered by the site More than an online garage sale job board or dating site craigslist holds vital lessons for the rest of the web It is a website that values user privacy over profits ease of use over slick design and an ethos of the early web that might just hold the key to a more open transparent and democratic internet Craigslist Susan M.
