Creating A Successful Retirement Finding Peace And Purpose:

Creating a Successful Retirement Richard P. Johnson,1999 Retirement is perhaps the greatest time for self discovery You may not believe it but Christ has something incredible in store for you in your new role It all begins with an assessment of your focus In light of this Dr Richard Johnson presents you with the 15 keys that will help you redefine yourself He begins by setting the stage for your new world of opportunity helping you to move away from the external material achievement oriented definition of self toward a more personal genuine and spiritual definition It is this reorientation that will help you steer clear of the possible frustrations of retirement and give you a newfound sense of optimism Each chapter opens with stories of retirees from all walks of life Dr Johnson uses their life lessons to cull out pearls of wisdom for your future Plus he includes affirming prayers to draw you closer to the God who loves you and who wants to make your life a success Finally Dr Johnson presents 15 self evaluation exercises that will help you plan in a comprehensive way for the shift to retirement

Paperback The Senior Volunteer Charles C. Sharpe,2005-06-29 The goal of this comprehensive volume is to encourage volunteerism among retired and older people for their own good and for the good of society To this end it documents the physical and psychosocial benefits and the personal rewards that derive from a productive volunteer experience The book also discusses volunteerism in the context of changing concepts of aging and retirement in America and presents an extensive listing of up to date opportunities for prospective volunteers bringing the idea of volunteer work into the 21st century Three appendices provide both hard data on the ways people volunteer in America today and specific guidance on learning how to use the Internet in volunteering including a useful glossary of Internet terms A list of sources cited in print and on the Internet and an index complete the work
